Summary

Beaverton Schools has experienced a steady, multi-decade decline in K-12 FTE enrollment. The district reported 1,803 FTE in Fall 2001 and 752.8 FTE in Spring 2026 — a loss of 1,050.2 FTE, or approximately 58.2%.

The decline has unfolded in three broad phases: a sharp early decline from 2001 to 2008 (losing roughly 50 FTE per year), a relative plateau through the early 2010s when enrollment held in the 1,300s, and a renewed and accelerating decline from 2013 to the present. The most recent fall-to-fall comparison (Fall 2024 to Fall 2025) showed a drop of nearly 90 FTE — one of the steeper single-year declines in the dataset.
