Hello! My name is Tim Mattingly, and I am your child's Middle School (6-8) teacher for 2026-2027. I am so excited to get to know all my students!

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT ME & OUR CLASSROOM

I'm excited to begin my third year at TPS. My area of focus within the Middle School team is reading and writing. My first two years here have been wonderful, thanks to the close-knit community of teachers, students, and parents. I've taught middle school and high school English/Language Arts for over 10 years at a few different schools around Indiana. I love doing authentic and creative projects with my students, so I love working at a school that really promotes that kind of learning. My wife Taylor and I have lived in Bloomington for about four years now, and we just welcomed our daughter Dani last October. I attended Indiana University for four years as well, so I have grown to love this city. When not teaching, I am probably playing guitar, watching a movie, listening to a record, reading a book, riding my bike, or hanging out with family and friends.

Your child can call me Mr. Tim, and my pronouns are he/him.
You can reach me at tmattingly@theprojectschool.org.

HIGHLIGHTS YOU CAN EXPECT IN OUR FIRST FEW WEEKS

During the first week of school, we will focus on community-building within the classroom, forming relationships with classmates, and making sure everyone feels comfortable and understands various expectations. Students will create and discuss their hopes and goals for the school year, and we will do some activities to stretch our reading and writing muscles after a long summer break.

INTRODUCING OUR ARTS & INCLUSION TEACHERS

Here are some additional educators who support the learning of our students:

Sara Irvine (Ms. Sara, she/her) – Visual Arts Specialist
Howdy from (K-8) Visual Arts at TPS with Ms. Sara. I've been with TPS since its 2008 inception and am one of the founders of this wild and wonderful place. When I'm not at TPS2 wrangling the Visual Arts Rodeo, I am at home with my 5 horses, 5 dogs, and one cat. One of my favorite times of year is when all the TPS babes come to Yard Dogs Farm for Field Days. Giddy-up! Reach me: sirvine@theprojectschool.org.

Chris Bultman (Mr. Chris, he/him) – Performing Arts Specialist
Mr. Chris has been the Performing Arts specialist for TPS since 2010, and this year marks his 32nd year of teaching. He began in 1994 at The Curtis School in Los Angeles, where he also spent many of those sixteen "California years" as a performer in music, theatre, and TV – including brief co-starring roles as rather random French doctors on the soap opera "Days of Our Lives." Aside from his passion for all things performing arts, Chris loves outdoors, his dog Moshi, and his big, loving family! Reach me: cbultman@theprojectschool.org.

Ishika Sinha (Ms. Ishika, she/her) – Middle School Inclusion Teacher
I am the Middle School Inclusion Teacher and excited about starting my 5th year at The Project School. This is my fifth year as an inclusion teacher, and middle school is my favorite place to work. As much as I enjoy being a teacher, I love learning from young minds. When not at school, I like spending time with my two children. In addition, I am an 8th grade math teacher and love all things math and science. Reach me: isinha@theprojectschool.org.

WHERE OUR CLASSROOM IS LOCATED

Our classroom is in the Main Building on the second floor on the west side. Your child will enter through the Main Building front door, up the ramp, each morning. Once they enter the front door, they'll turn left to head to the west hallway. They'll then take an immediate left in that hallway and head up the front stairs to the second floor. Once there, our room is the first door on the left, just outside the stairwell!
