Hello! My name is John Lewis, and I am your child's Intermediate (3-5) teacher for 2026-2027! I am so excited to get to know all my students!

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT ME & OUR CLASSROOM

Hello!!! New to our room? Welcome! 👋 We're so glad you're here!! 😄 Returning?? Welcome BACK, we MISSED you!! 🎉 AND if you're returning, then you're not surprised to see all these capital letters and exclamation points!! Yeah, that's pretty on brand; sorry not sorry!

For the past 11 years, I've joyfully championed kids and families through roles in teaching, summer camps, coaching, extracurriculars, and more. This will be my 7th year in the classroom, and my second year at TPS. Outside of the classroom, I've also spent the last 7 years coaching gymnastics and still do! 🤸 As for things I do just for myself, I love long-distance running, MMA, ping pong, powerlifting, and adult gymnastics. Also, occasionally, I chase tornadoes! 🌪️😳 (Caught one this summer!) My passion is creating a classroom where kids feel seen, safe, and excited to learn. I believe learning should be joyful, creative, challenging, and full of curiosity—and I'm committed to partnering with you to make this an amazing year for your child. I don't expect kids to be perfect or to always get it right. In fact, I expect mistakes! But I DO challenge them to try it again, try it different, try it better. You can expect the same from ME and my teaching this year. I'm looking forward to the laughter, the growth, and all the lightbulb moments ahead. Let's make it a great one! ☀️

Your child can call me John. My pronouns are he/him.
You can reach me at jlewis@theproejctschool.org.

Please complete our classroom family survey so that I can get to know your child and you!

HIGHLIGHTS YOU CAN EXPECT IN OUR FIRST FEW WEEKS

Let's have fun and get to know each other! I want everybody to feel like they belong, and to believe in themselves and each other. That's what the first week(s) is all about. My friend: You. Belong. There's only one of you in the world, and I am over the MOON that this one-in-a-7-billion-people version of YOU is going to be on THIS team. That's what I call a Dream Team! We basically won the lottery with you!!

We'll spend time in team building and class building (yes, there's a difference), making and creating, playing, getting into a daily flow, and making this classroom feel like it's all of ours, making it feel like a place we're proud and happy to be in. Along the way, we may also attempt to build antique automobiles, climb Mount Everest, save the penguins, join a yacht club, assemble shoes, be the first people on Mars, and "steal zee moon," as time allows. (May need to save some of these for September).

INTRODUCING OUR ARTS & INCLUSION TEACHERS

Here are some additional educators who support the learning of our students:

Sara Irvine (Ms. Sara, she/her) – Visual Arts Specialist
Howdy from (K-8) Visual Arts at TPS with Ms. Sara. I've been with TPS since its 2008 inception and am one of the founders of this wild and wonderful place. When I'm not at TPS2 wrangling the Visual Arts Rodeo, I am at home with my 5 horses, 5 dogs, and one cat. One of my favorite times of year is when all the TPS babes come to Yard Dogs Farm for Field Days. Giddy-up! Reach me: sirvine@theprojectschool.org.

Chris Bultman (Mr. Chris, he/him) – Performing Arts Specialist
Mr. Chris has been the Performing Arts specialist for TPS since 2010, and this year marks his 32nd year of teaching. He began in 1994 at The Curtis School in Los Angeles, where he also spent many of those sixteen "California years" as a performer in music, theatre, and TV – including brief co-starring roles as rather random French doctors on the soap opera "Days of Our Lives." Aside from his passion for all things performing arts, Chris loves outdoors, his dog Moshi, and his big, loving family! Reach me: cbultman@theprojectschool.org.

Nicole Eller (Nicole, she/her) – Intermediate Inclusion Teacher
I am looking forward to another year as the Inclusion Teacher at The Project School, serving students in grades 3-5. I provide academic and additional supports and strive to challenge students, so they meet their full potential. Meaningful connections allow students to thrive, succeed and find joy in learning. Identifying needs is key to providing quality supports. I am the parent of twin TPS grads entering high school, and a recent high school grad dipping her toe into young adulthood. I vote for mysteries as the best genre. Reach me: neller@theprojectschool.org.

WHERE OUR CLASSROOM IS LOCATED

Our classroom is in the Main Building on the second floor on the east side. Your child will enter through the Main Building front door, up the ramp, each morning. Once they enter the front door, they'll turn right to go to the east hallway. They will then make an immediate right and take the staircase up one flight to find our classroom at the very top! If there are students with mobility issues, there will be an elevator for their use. And when family members are visiting, if they have mobility issues, the elevator will also be available for them.

WHO ELSE AT TPS CAN HELP!

We want to make sure that you know that everyone on our staff is excited to welcome you and your child, and eager to help all of you feel comfortable at the start of the new year! Specifically, we want to mention some key people and the roles they play, along with their contact information. You can always find their names and contact information on the website, too:
