Hello! My name is Leora Baude, and I am your child's Primary (2-3) teacher for 2026-2027. I am so excited to get to know all my students!

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT ME & OUR CLASSROOM

I am absolutely thrilled to begin a new year in the 2-3 classroom at TPS! After working for several years as an editor and writer, I have been in the classroom for 8 years, as an instructional assistant at TPS and in several lead roles across the elementary grades at other area schools, including as both a 3-4 and a 5-6 teacher at Harmony. I believe deeply in the value of multi-age education and in the role of schools in promoting healthy, democratic communities that make space for everyone. I love to teach about the natural world and the endlessly fascinating twists and turns of history. I have two children, Henry and James, both at Bloomington High School North. Outside of school, I love reading, growing native plants, knitting, and thinking about school!

Your child can call me Leora, and my pronouns are she/her.
You can reach me at lbaude@theprojectschool.org.

HIGHLIGHTS YOU CAN EXPECT IN OUR FIRST FEW WEEKS

We will spend the first weeks of school getting to know each other in all kinds of ways. We will be doing some formal and informal assessments, we'll be doing art and writing projects exploring identity, we'll be learning classroom expectations and processes--and of course we will be doing lots of reading and math.

INTRODUCING OUR ARTS & INCLUSION TEACHERS

Here are some additional educators who support the learning of our students:

Sara Irvine (Ms. Sara, she/her) – Visual Arts Specialist
Howdy from (K-8) Visual Arts at TPS with Ms. Sara. I've been with TPS since its 2008 inception and am one of the founders of this wild and wonderful place. When I'm not at TPS2 wrangling the Visual Arts Rodeo, I am at home with my 5 horses, 5 dogs, and one cat. One of my favorite times of year is when all the TPS babes come to Yard Dogs Farm for Field Days. Giddy-up! Reach me: sirvine@theprojectschool.org.

Chris Bultman (Mr. Chris, he/him) – Performing Arts Specialist
Mr. Chris has been the Performing Arts specialist for TPS since 2010, and this year marks his 32nd year of teaching. He began in 1994 at The Curtis School in Los Angeles, where he also spent many of those sixteen "California years" as a performer in music, theatre, and TV – including brief co-starring roles as rather random French doctors on the soap opera "Days of Our Lives." Aside from his passion for all things performing arts, Chris loves outdoors, his dog Moshi, and his big, loving family! Reach me: cbultman@theprojectschool.org.

Em Jalkanen (Ms. Em, she/her) – Primary Inclusion Teacher
I am the Primary Inclusion Teacher at The Project School. This is my second year in this role after spending more than 12 years teaching in early elementary classrooms. I love partnering with students, families, and teachers to create learning experiences that help every child feel included, supported, and successful. One of my favorite parts of the job is celebrating each student's unique strengths while helping them build confidence, independence, and resilience. Outside of school, I enjoy reading, playing games, and spending time with my husband and our three energetic children. I am looking forward to a wonderful year of learning and growing together! During the first few weeks, I'll be popping into rooms to observe and spend time with students exploring likes/dislikes, strengths, and what they are working on. Reach me: ejalkanen@theprojectschool.org.

WHERE OUR CLASSROOM IS LOCATED

Our classroom is on the first floor on the west side of the Main Building. Your child will walk up the ramp and enter through the Main Building front door each morning. Once they enter the front door, they'll turn left and enter the west side hallway. They will walk straight from the front desk to enter our room, which is the first door!
