Summit School Presents Spring Concert

Advanced Beginner Band Successful at First Contest

By: Eaglet Staff

Mrs. Richardson and the 5th & 6th grade advanced beginner band traveled to Milbank on April 10th to compete in a band contest. The group received the highest score of a Division 1 rating, which is equal to a superior. The judge had this to say about the band: they had superior band sound, strong rhythm accuracy, excellent melodic and harmonic balance, overall musicianship from every student, and thoughtful and appropriate literature selection. Congratulations to the advanced beginner band and Mrs. Richardson.

Congratulations on your success interpers!

Choir Receives a Superior

By: Eaglet Staff

On April 29th, the Summit High School choir traveled to Watertown to compete in a choral contest. The members received a superior rating on their performance. The judge praised the group for their "Excellent ensemble blend, strong vocal technique, and overall musicality." They highlighted the choir's cohesive sound and professional performance. The judge also recognized that the choir's balance/blend, vocal technique, and presentation were at the highest level. Mr. Kerr commented, "This accomplishment reflects not only the students' commitment to excellence but also the continued support of our community. As we celebrate this success, the choir will continue to grow by refining tone, intonation, and musical expression." Congratulations, Mr. Kerr and the choir students on this accomplishment.
