EAST PALESTINE ALUMNI & FRIENDS SCHOLARSHIP ASSOCIATION

The East Palestine Alumni and Friends Scholarship Association annually provides scholarships to a number of students based on their student's application, grade point average/GPA, extracurricular activities, community involvement, work experience, and an expressed desire to advance their education. The East Palestine Alumni and Friends Scholarship Association is an organization of dedicated members who work tirelessly at raising funds for scholarships for our students.

When completing the attached application, please consider the following:

1. All areas of the application must be completed.
2. The Scholarship Committee has the final say regarding award winners.
3. Scholarship monies will be determined on funds available and may vary yearly.
4. To be considered for a scholarship, provide the following requested information and return this form to your high school counselor.
5. All applications must be received by the deadline. Late entries will not be accepted.
