Washington Irving

Meet the Stars

Mr. Buffalo

About Me:

This will be my 6th year in Edmond Public Schools. With experience teaching 4th grade before stepping into a 5th grade classroom. My wife, Allison, and I have two sons. Cooper (28) lives and works in Norman. The youngest, Carson (22), is finishing his schooling at the University of Oklahoma, and lives with his brother. It is good to be home at Washington Irving.

My Favorites:

Snacks: Cheez-it, Gardetto's, Animal Cookies
Drink: Unsweet Tea
Food: Pizza
Dessert: Cookies and Cream Ice Cream
Season: Summer
Team: Houston Texans and Oklahoma University
Color: Purple
Authors: Mark Tufo, Rick Riordan, Srephen King
Movies: The Stand, 2012, The Goonies
Animal: A dog named Moose
Flower: Fruit Bouquet

My why for being in education:

I teach because I believe every child deserves someone who believes in them. As a teacher, I can make a positive difference in lives. Guiding students as they discover their strengths and help them believe in what they can achieve. Helping students learn, grow, and feel proud of who they are brings joy to me every day.
