Manning High School Symphonic Band Earns Superior Rating at State Performance Assessment

MHS Symphonic Band Scores a Superior Rating

MANNING, SC – The Manning High School Symphonic Band has achieved remarkable success by earning a SUPERIOR rating at the South Carolina Band Directors Performance Assessment. This prestigious recognition reflects the band's hard work, dedication, and exceptional musical talent.

Under the direction of Dr. Jordan Jefferson, the band delivered an outstanding concert that showcased their skill and passion for music. Their performance was praised for its artistry and precision, making it a memorable experience for both the performers and the audience.

"We are incredibly proud of our students and their commitment to excellence," said Dr. Jefferson. "This achievement is a testament to their hard work and the support from our community."

The Superior rating places the Manning High School Symphonic Band among the top-tier ensembles in the state, highlighting their exceptional musicianship and preparation.

Congratulations to all the members of the Manning High School Symphonic Band for this outstanding accomplishment. Your dedication and talent have made us proud!
