COWPENS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

SIC REPORT 2025-26

POINTS OF PRIDE

- Mrs. Wanda Noblin, Math Interventionist/Coach, was selected to be an ambassador for the South Carolina Council of Teachers of Mathematics (SCCTM).
- Cowpens Elementary raised more than $2,700 for the Kids Heart Challenge. Eighteen families had the opportunity to learn Hands-Only CPR.
- We were able to educate and supply more than 100 families with books, math manipulatives, and other learning resources during our first Family Picnic Day.
- Our Service-Learning Team visited nursing homes. The team read books and created gift bags for senior citizens.
- Our site coordinator, Kris Hammitt, has expanded student opportunities through partnering with Blooms, BRUH Mentor, and ReGenesis. These collaborations help students build healthy habits and create supportive environments focused on health and success.

ANNUAL GOALS AND NEEDS

- We are using Visible Learning as our book study during our Professional Learning Community (PLC) weekly meetings.
- Our IMPACT team will provide thirty minutes of ELA and Math instruction to students in Tier 1.

SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS

- We launched a 12-week academic program known as REACH, which provides 90 minutes of intensive afterschool ELA and math support led by our certified teachers.
- We hosted several successful community events to welcome and celebrate our families at Cowpens Elementary, such as Literacy Night, Career Day, Book Fairs, Terrific Kids, and Breakfast and Buddies.
- Cowpens Elementary students achieved significant yearly growth on SC READY ELA and Math.
