May 2026

Staff Name	Location/Role	Why are they a Model Mustang?
Allan Morrill	MHS East / Operations	When his Supervisor fell behind, Allan stepped up without hesitation - handling deliveries and errands across the district with a positive attitude. Thank you for always being willing to help!
Ally Ridley	Alfred Elementary School	Ally is the definition of a 'Model Mustang.' As the administrative assistant at Alfred Elementary, she is the first smiling face people see and the steady hand that keeps our school running. Whether she is helping a student, supporting a staff member, or assisting a parent, she treats everyone as her top priority with genuine kindness. Ally is always two steps ahead and handles challenging situations with remarkable perseverance and grace. Her love for our PK-5 students is evident in everything she does, and she never skips a beat, no matter how busy the day gets. We are so lucky to have her leadership and positivity in our building.
Amy Troiano	Massabesic Middle School	Amy's door is always open for staff to ask questions and brainstorm ideas. She supports teachers with ideas for instruction and helps curb student behaviors. She follows up when she says she will and genuinely cares about staff and students alike.
Barbara Billingslea	Waterboro Elementary School	Barbara has been an incredible support in the classroom this year, consistently stepping in to work with students where they needed it most. Through small group instruction, patience, and encouragement, she helped students grow both academically and confidently as learners. Her support and teamwork were especially valuable in helping me navigate a group of students with diverse academic and behavioral needs, and her positive presence made a meaningful difference in our classroom every day.
Dee Allen	MHS East	I am so very fortunate to work alongside Dee every day! The magnitude of her job knowledge is astounding. She has the patience of a Saint and the wisdom of a Sage, all of which makes my day to day office existence all the more pleasant. I definitely hit the co-worker lottery with Dee! Thank you, thank you, thank you for all you do!

Erin Boisrond	MHS East/Day Treatment	Erin starts every day with a positive outlook and does her best to uplift her students' spirits. She encourages them to make an honest effort and to be the best possible versions of themselves. She is always "tuned in" and while practicing tremendous patience, she also displays exceptional observation and communication skills. When someone is having a hard day, she is mindful of their need for space and will offer grace when necessary. The MHS Day Treatment program and its students are very fortunate to have her.
Griffin Henderson	Massabesic High School	Griffin has consistently been a great teacher, but this year he has really kicked it up a notch. Taking on a new class, completely transforming it, and bringing his usual high level of enthusiasm has highlighted his passion for improving the lives of his students. He is tireless, hard-working, and continually seeks to do better. He forms lasting bonds with his students and they look to him as someone they can talk to when needed. He is an invaluable resource to his department and this school.
Ian Villmore	Massabesic High School	Ian is always working. He is constantly pushing his students to learn and grow. He sets high expectations for his students and then helps them achieve them. He doesn't stop thinking, planning, and preparing to make his classes the best they possibly can. His passion for his subject and for teaching in general is obvious to everyone who knows him, and his efforts will stay with his students long after they have left his class.
Ileesha Haskell	Waterboro Elementary School/Custodial	Ileesha is such an attentive, hard working and compassionate staff member! Our school is very fortunate to have such a wonderful and kind team player in our building. She goes above and beyond to make the students and staff feel appreciated and thought of. She leaves little tokens of handmade gifts for different celebrations. She is very thoughtful, organized and quick to respond to a call from the office. We appreciate all that she does for our building and are so thankful for everything that she does.
Jamie Newton	MHS East/Adult Education	Jamie is a team player. She jumps in to help with any situation and goes above and beyond in making our students feel welcome and seen. Jamie is a great addition to our East Building team!
Jean Moulton	Central Office	Jean is always smiling, always willing to help, and always does it with a smile!!

Jeffrey Davis	Operations	Jeff is a delight to work with and is a master painter at that! He is currently repainting the kitchen and it looks fantastic. Thank you for all you do for the team.
Jeff Davis	Massabesic Middle School/Operations	Jeff has shown great improvement over the past few months. We truly appreciate his efforts and support with the many painting projects at the high school.
Jenn Durrue	Massabesic Middle School/Speech	I would like to nominate Jenn Durrue for this month's recognition. Jenn is an exceptional colleague who consistently brings positivity, thoughtfulness, and dedication to our school community. She is always willing to jump in and help—whether it's supporting a colleague, collaborating within our speech team, or going above and beyond for students. Jenn creates engaging and exciting activities that truly connect with her students, and her enthusiasm is contagious. She is incredibly organized and plays a key role in keeping our PLCs running smoothly, making sure everyone feels supported and included. On a personal level, Jenn is simply a wonderful friend and teammate. She is someone we can always turn to—whether to problem-solve, share ideas, or just talk things through. She has a natural way of thinking of others, often taking the lead in organizing meaningful gestures for colleagues and recognizing important moments. MMS and RSU 57 are truly lucky to have Jenn. Her kindness, initiative, and unwavering support make a lasting impact on everyone around her, and she absolutely deserves to be recognized.
Jeremy Burbank	Operations/Grounds	A newer member of the Operations team, Jeremy jumped right into learning spring sports on the fly. He takes pride in doing things right and is always looking for ways to improve the grounds department.
Joanne Guimond	Waterboro Elementary School/Special Education	Joanne is such a positive colleague and educator. She loves every student and they know it. She goes above and beyond and works hard to help students feel confident and proud. She is considerate and generous and never forgets a holiday, birthday, or any other reason to celebrate. Whether student or staff, we are all lucky we have Joanne at RSU57.

Julia Lanoue	Waterboro Elementary School	Even though Julia started later in the school year, she jumped right in and has become a valuable member of the special ed team. Julia always has a smile on her face, is welcoming to both students and staff, is flexible when schedules change and always puts the student's needs first. We are so lucky to have Julia supporting our students and promoting natural inclusion throughout the school day. Julia, you rock!!!! And you always have the best fidgets to use during staff meetings!
Laurie Knight	Transportation	If it weren't for Laurie most of our sports trips would not happen! She moves things around, makes phone calls to other districts and drives them to the event herself; most days she's in at 5:30am and doesn't leave till late in the evening to ensure all the kids get to their sporting events! She is amazing at what she does.
Michael Bryant	Massabesic Middle School/Allied Arts	He is a model teacher that always checks in on his colleagues and cares deeply for his students' education and wellness. His lessons are interactive and captivating. Michael is a true Model Mustang.
Mike Knaup	Operations/Grounds	Mike consistently prioritizes the safety of our facilities and is always recommending ways to improve!
Mike Leavitt	Massabesic Middle School/Operations	Thank you to Mike for putting the school's needs first - switching shifts and even canceling a vacation day to assist with training at the middle school.
Rick May	Operations/Grounds	Rick's hard work never goes unnoticed, and his strong moral character is truly commendable.
Rob Fossett	Line Elementary/Operations	Rob and the Line School custodial team did a great job completing floor work during the recent April break. Not only does this put them in good shape for summer, but makes the school look bright and clean. Thank you, Rob!
Ryan Calder	Massabesic High School/Operations	Ryan is a team player. He always keeps us informed on what is happening and offers help. Makes himself available, especially when there's an emergency (when he came in for me). Works his schedule around ours in order to accomplish clean up of after school or athletic activities.
Sarah Foss	Lyman Elementary School/Secretary	Is always smiling, and it even shows through when she speaks over the phone. Her willingness to help Vicki with small tasks when needed does not go unnoticed. Thank You, Sarah!
Sarah Hawes	Central Office/Nutrition	Sarah is hardworking, kind, and always eager to help others. Her caring attitude makes a difference every day.

Sarah Rex	Waterboro Elementary School/Music teacher	Sarah's fun and loving personality creates a classroom environment where students feel safe to explore their creativity and find their own voices. By blending playfulness with genuine heart, Sarah doesn't just teach notes and rhythms; she instills a lifelong love for music and helps her students understand its power to connect us all. Her dedication makes her an invaluable part of our school community.
Sharon Barry	Shapleigh Elementary School	Even though Sharon is a first year teacher, she has transformed math learning for the fourth and fifth grade students at Shapleigh Elementary. She patiently and with logical scaffolded instruction has taught her students the various math content for both grade levels. Sharon's math lessons are informative, well planned to meet the various skills needed, and creative. She has the composure of a tenured teacher. Shapleigh is fortunate to call her the 4/5 math teacher!
Shawn Richards	Line Elementary/Operations	Shawn was part of the crew at Line that recently completely floor waxing over April Break. The floors look great, and this has set them up for success this summer. Thank you Shawn!
Vicki Beaulieu	Lyman Elementary School/Operations	Vicki has gone above and beyond onboarding a new employee who speaks only Spanish. Her patience, cooperation, and dedication to ensuring a smooth and comfortable transition are greatly appreciated.
Victoria Gavel	Transportation	Vicky has been a wonderful addition to our crew. Willing and able to help out wherever she can. She is not afraid to do anything. She is here everyday, oftentimes coming in early to help out with the early morning routine. Thank you, Vicky!
Yamilka Maldonado	Line Elementary School/Operations	A wonderful addition to the team. Yamilka is kind, approachable, and takes great pride in her work.
