Jefferson Elementary (PK-5)

A proud Leader in Me school, we use data-driven strategies to empower students and foster leadership at every level. By building culture through multi-grade teams, we create a supportive environment where students learn from and inspire one another. Our strong sense of community—among students, staff, and families—drives everything we do, ensuring every child has the opportunity to thrive academically and personally.

Roosevelt Elementary (PK-5)

Our district's legacy school in the Leader in Me program. Visitors will see the 7 Habits embedded in classrooms, schoolwide practices, and student-led leadership opportunities. During the Mini Symposium in Pryor, OK, Roosevelt offers an inspiring look at what's possible when Leader in Me is fully integrated into a school's culture.

Lincoln Elementary (PK-5)

Making a name for itself in the Leader in Me community, this school is showcasing an innovative House System. Inspired by the 7 Habits, students are organized into eight houses — each aligned with a specific habit — to enhance belonging, leadership, and school spirit. Having presented at several symposiums last year, Lincoln offers a living example of how to bring the Leader in Me paradigms into daily school life in meaningful, fun, and engaging ways.

Breakout Session 1 (12:15 - 1:00 PM)
Session Title	Presenter(s)	Session Description
Student Voice: We Can and We Do!	Lincoln Elementary Students	Imagine..a panel of student House Leaders from Lincoln Elementary sharing how Leader in Me has transformed their school community from the inside out. In this session students themselves will showcase how the 7 habits come to life in their Houses-how belonging, alignment, and collective energy are no longer just staff goals but everyday practices for students too. You'll hear directly from student leaders about how living out the habits has helped them grow in confidence, leadership, and responsibility in ways they didn't think were possible.
Living the Seven Habits: Leader in Me at the High School Level	Pryor High School Students	Attendees will listen to current students from Pryor High School share about how they have been taught to embody the character and leadership traits of the seven habits of highly effective people, how they lead with their strengths, the different traditions and events they have established, and how they influence other internal and external organizations.
Lead and Let Lead	Pryor Middle School Adult and Student Lead Teams	Our Teacher Lead Team and Student Lead Team are great! It is their hard work and guidance that help to set the standard for all things happening in our building. Come hear what our Lead Teams do to ensure Leader in Me success at the middle school level.
Leadership Legacy	Roosevelt Elementary	This session shares strategies for infusing student leadership to build culture, climate, and academics through LIM, leaving attendees inspired with actionable ideas and ongoing support.
5-4-3-2-1 ACTION!	Pryor Middle School Staff	We have 5 action teams that help make Pryor Middle School successful. Learn how our Leadership, Academic, Student Culture, Teacher Culture, and Parent Culture teams work hard to include and empower everyone at Pryor Middle School.
Advisory with Purpose: Building Leaders, Clubs, and Goals	Moore Public Schools Southridge Junior Central Junior	Discover how to turn advisory into a catalyst for student leadership and achievement. Two junior high principals will show how they embedded WIG writing, accountability partners, and scoreboards into daily practice. We will also dive into our “club day” model that gives students authentic chances to lead—and love—school.
Principal Perspectives: First Year Leader in Me	Bartlesville Public Schools	Join us for an honest, practical look at what it takes to launch Leader in Me in both elementary and secondary settings, and look through the eyes of principals in their first year of implementation. We’ll walk you through how two schools approached the rollout, the steps taken to introduce the framework, and the strategies used to build staff and student buy-in.
