

Our Commitment to Military Students

Lincoln Elementary Military Child Transition Team – Job Description

Who We Are:

We are a team of friendly, helpful students who make sure new classmates—especially those from military families—feel welcome and included at our school.

Your Job as a Team Member:

Welcome new students on their first day and help them feel comfortable.

- Give tours of the school (classroom, cafeteria, playground, library, gym, and more).
- Be a buddy at lunch, recess, and in class so new students aren't alone.
- Answer questions and share what you like about the school.
- Help with special events like Purple Up! Day or Month of the Military Child.
- Be a role model by showing kindness, respect, and leadership every day.
- Share ideas with teachers or the counselor about how to make new students feel even more welcome.

What We Look For in a Team Member:

- Friendly and welcoming to everyone
- Responsible and dependable
- Willing to help others
- Positive attitude and good role model behavior

Why It Matters:

Moving to a new school can be tough, especially when a parent is serving in the military. Our team helps make those students feel like they belong—because everyone deserves a friend on the first day!
