1991

A large, expressive red brushstroke on a white background, resembling a stylized 'E' or a series of overlapping 'E's. The stroke is thick and textured, with varying shades of red and white highlights, creating a dynamic and energetic feel. The brushwork is loose and fluid, with visible strokes and a sense of movement.

M r. Starbird

We are proud to dedicate this 1990-1991 Hermon High School yearbook to Mr. Ernie Starbird, upon his retirement. Mr. Starbird began his long and illustrious teaching career at Carmel High School in 1956. He graduated from Husson College in 1956 and began teaching in the same year. Mr. Starbird taught at Carmel High School until its close, and moved with the students when they came to Hermon High, where he has taught ever since. He has served as the Business Department Head from 1962-1988. In his many years at Hermon, Mr. Starbird has inspired many students. We thank you for your dedication and the many years of service.

ntroduction to the SENIOR CLASS

Dedication to Senior Class

Here we are...

It's time to move forward,

— time to establish our futures.

In doing this,

We must remember that it's not only success we're looking for, it's happiness

It's time to face life as adults —

with our heads up,

and our eyes open

We must never lose touch with reality. We must try to look at things in a new light. And to shed light on things unknown.

It's also time . . .

— time to choose our own paths, to go our separate ways, yet,

as we start our journeys, let's not say good-bye.

Let us say —

. . . until we meet again.

— Gail Jewell

Life is movement. We go up or down, and develop the best or worst of us in the journey. Some journeys are full of struggle . . . some are full of success. But the thing that makes for success is struggle and difficulty . . . for without difficulties to overcome, there would be no such thing as succeeding.

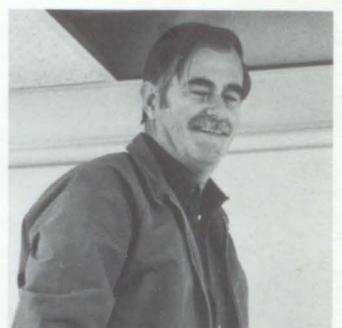

Difficulties develop strength, resolution, resources. Problems are too often regarded as enemies, but they are not such. Storms and dangers alone make skilled sailors.

The fiercest of foes develops your strength and your skill. So don't be frightened by problems and difficulties — or discourage because of them. They are your opportunities for winning, your chances for success.

PROMISE YOURSELF
Promise yourself to be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet. To make all your friends feel that there is something in them. To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true. To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best. To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own. To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future. To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile. To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others. To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Who knows what the future holds?
Anything can happen —
we may be together,
we may drift apart.
Yet no matter what happens,
I'll always have warm thoughts of you.
And I know in my heart that in the future, no matter where I go,
what I'm doing, or who I'm with,
there is one thing I can assure you of:
at any given moment,
should a memory of you flash
through my mind
or if, for any reason, I should find myself thinking back to you,
there will always be a smile on my face.

Friends are one of life's gifts,
and I have a good friend in you.
We are bonded by the growth we have shared
over the years that we have known each other.
With each year that has passed,
we have grown even closer.
We've loved each other through illness,
despair, and so much more.
Together we have celebrated our youth.
With you, I have learned to laugh at myself.
You have filled my heart and mind with enough
memories to last a lifetime.
My love for you has gone beyond friendship;
you are a part of my family.
May the future bring us both the joy of success
and a continuing friendship to get us through the hard times ahead.

French and Spanish Clubs

The French and Spanish clubs are open to all French and Spanish students in the school; it's an opportunity for them to speak the language in a relaxed atmosphere through games, caroling, and a total immersion which involves other schools. Each year, they do many fundraisers, like selling flowers, walkathons, and the total immersion. The French students are invited on the annual trip to Quebec, Canada, on Memorial Day weekend. The trip is very exciting and educational, while being low-cost at the same time, and it's organized by Mrs. Clain.

The journalism class completed its first newspaper project with the publication of the HHS Chronicle. Through the creative efforts of the staff, the Chronicle covered the senior play — "Little Luncheonette of Terror" — senior parking privileges, student of the week, and career option day. Sports were well covered, the English class contributed their philosophies of life, and staff and students used the Standing Ovation page to salute individuals for their special favors. Members of the Journalism class include, counter-clockwise starting from bottom left, L. Phinney, C. Sutherland, N. Adams, A. Badger, M. McCready, J. Henry, L. Russell, K. Poland, T. Rankin, C. The Lady Hawks qualified for the playoffs this year for the first time in their history. They traveled to Orono to take on the Red Riots. The team made an excellent showing, outplaying the Riots although the game ended 1 to 0 — Orono's favor. The Hawks finished the season strong, however, with four wins and a tie in their last seven games. The defense allowed an average of only one goal per game for the season. Stand out defenders included Tracie Cushman, Marie McCready, Steph Alexander, Melanie Kimball, Lori Davis, Nichole Adams, Wendy Pace, and Amy Martin.

Field Hockey

The 1990-91 season for Varsity Field Hockey proved very successful. We ended the season with a 5-9 record. Despite our young team, with only 5 seniors, our desire and drive carried us all the way to the semi-finals, contradicting pre-season expectations.

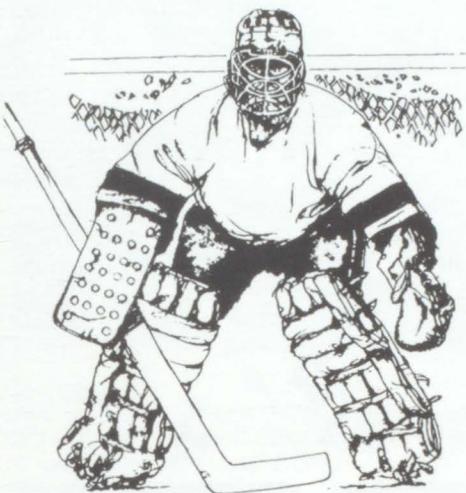

Both games against Old Town demonstrated our dogged determination. When we hosted the Indians, by half-time, we were behind 0-1. We started the second half strongly, scoring three goals in a matter of minutes. The final score was 3-1. In the game at Old Town we also proved victorious. After 2 sudden deaths and 3 penalty corners, we scored, ending the game 1-0.

We later hosted Orono. They were undefeated and not yet scored upon. This fired our spirits, enabling us to score early and hold them 1-0 the rest of the game.

The most memorable game was the quarterfinal game against Belfast, the upper seeded team. We began the game as underdogs, but by the end we had held them off 2-1. This was the first time in the history of Hermon Field Hockey that the Hawks had defeated Belfast. For the 90-91 Girls' Field Hockey team, this was certainly a year to be proud of.
