Job Title: Agricultural Education Instructor (Grades 8–12)

Reports To: High School Principal

Contract: 12 months

Position Summary: Coyle Public Schools is seeking a passionate and innovative Agricultural Education Instructor to lead a comprehensive AgEd program for students in grades 8–12. This 12-month position is designed for an educator committed to fostering student growth, leadership, and real-world success both in and beyond the classroom.

The ideal candidate will build strong relationships with students, families, and the community while delivering a dynamic, hands-on agricultural education experience rooted in the traditions and future of Oklahoma agriculture.

Coyle offers a close-knit, agriculturally rooted community that values education, hard work, and student success. With strong community support, modern facilities, and a growing program, this is an outstanding opportunity to make a lasting impact on students and the future of agriculture.

Program Highlights & Facilities

Coyle Public Schools offers exceptional resources to support a thriving AgEd program, including:

- Brand-new Agricultural Education classroom and shop to be completed in December 2026
- Renovated greenhouse adjacent to the AgEd facility
- On-site livestock show facility for student projects and events
- Dedicated school vehicle for program use, travel, and student activities
- Strong and growing 4-H program with deep community ties
- Active and supportive FFA Booster Club and School Foundation

Primary Responsibilities

- Develop and deliver engaging, standards-based instruction in agricultural education courses for grades 8–12
- Integrate classroom instruction with hands-on learning in the shop, greenhouse, and livestock facilities
