All families that are residents of the Greenville Central School District are eligible for Universal Pre-K. All invitations to participate in UPK programming are contingent on funding from the New York State Education Department. The deadline for returning UPK applications is May 18, 2026. Names will be drawn by lottery, and families will be notified in writing of UPK acceptance.

Upon acceptance into the UPK program, you will be required to complete the Greenville Central School registration process.

Currently, there are two program sites, one located at the Greenville Central School District Elementary Building and the other at the United Methodist Church Daycare in Norton Hill. Please list below your first choice of locations. Final assignments to the UPK program will be determined by Greenville Central School District.

Information on these UPK providers is available upon request.
