Joanne S. Hayes Memorial Scholarship

The Arc Chemung-Schuyler offers the Joanne S. Hayes Memorial scholarship, a $1,000 award, to one graduating senior whose chosen field of study will enable him or her to have a positive impact on the lives of people with disabilities.

Joanne Hayes was a past board member and president prior to her death in 1987. This education fund is a fitting tribute to her commitment to The Arc.

Eligibility Requirements

1. The recipient must be a graduating senior from Watkins Glen, Odessa-Montour, or Bradford Central Schools OR must be a graduating senior who is a Schuyler County resident pursuing education elsewhere.
2. The recipient must plan to pursue their education in the field of special education, human services, or a related clinical area such as nursing, psychology, speech pathology, or physical/occupational therapy.
3. The scholarship application must be completed in its entirety and submitted with all requested attachments.
4. Completed applications must be received on or before Friday, May 15, 2026. Students attending Watkins Glen, Odessa-Montour, or Bradford Central Schools should return their completed applications to the high school guidance office. Students pursuing education elsewhere should submit in person or mail their completed applications to: The Arc Chemung-Schuyler, 711 Sullivan Street, Elmira, NY 14901.

Method of Selection of Scholarship Winners/Rules

1. Candidates will be evaluated and selected by a committee of at least four members.
2. Candidates will be scored in the following areas:
 - Career goals related to the support of youth and/or adults with intellectual, developmental, or other disabilities.
 - Academic achievement (academic improvement and/or maintenance of high average through high school)
 - Extra-curricular activities (athletics, fine arts, volunteer projects, work experience, etc.)
 - Essay quality (please respond to all components of the essay and proofread)
 - Additional points will be awarded to applicants who tour The Arc Chemung-Schuyler to learn first-hand about its programs and services prior to, or when, submitting the application. Tours may be scheduled by contacting The Arc's Director of Marketing and Community Development, Missy Smith at SmithML@arcofcs.org or 607.734.6151 ext. 122.
3. Winners will be recognized at June graduation ceremonies.
4. The recipient is eligible to receive the award upon returning to college for the second school semester of his/her first year. The one-time award will be given in the form of a check by The Arc Chemung-Schuyler when The Arc is notified by the recipient that he/she is eligible. Copies of college transcripts and/or other proof of continued enrollment will be required at that time.
5. The recipient must be willing to provide his/her current photo to The Arc Chemung-Schuyler, to be used in internal/external communications promoting the Joanne S. Hayes Memorial Scholarship.

Application forms may be reproduced. Questions about the Joanne S. Hayes Memorial Scholarship should be directed to Missy Smith, at SmithML@arcofcs.org or 607.734.6151 ext. 122.
