

EVANS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

304-372-7333

evans.jack.k12.wv.us

205 School House Drive
Evans, WV 25241

EVANS BEARS

Dear Evans Families,

It's hard to believe we are already in the 2nd nine weeks of the school year! Time is flying by, and our students at Evans Elementary School are working hard, growing, and excelling every day! We are so proud of all they are accomplishing and look forward to seeing all the wonderful things they will continue to achieve. Thank you to our families for your continued support! Let's make this another great nine weeks at Evans Elementary!

Teachers will be sending home Non-Traditional Instruction (NTID) packets sometime in November. These packets contain assignments for students to complete if an NTID day is called due to inclement weather. Please keep your child's packet in a safe place, as it will be needed during the winter months if an NTID day occurs.

Don't forget to check out our school website for updates, pictures, upcoming events, and celebrations!
evans.jack.k12.wv.us

Thank you for your continued support of Evans Elementary School!

NTID Information

Jackson County Schools has the authority to use up to five days of Non-Traditional Instruction (NTID) per school year. These remote learning days may be used during inclement weather.

Students will receive a packet of learning materials from their teacher to complete on NTI days. Each student should have five days worth of assignments available.

In the event of inclement weather, the Superintendent will determine whether schools will be closed or an NTID will be implemented.

- School Closure: If school is closed, students are not required to complete assignments for that day.
- NTID Day: If an NTID is implemented, students are to complete one day's worth of assignments from their provided packet.

Teachers will be available by phone on NTI days from 10:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. to provide assistance and support student learning.

Completed assignments should be returned to school when school resumes. Teachers will review all submitted assignments.

DON'T MISS THIS!

NOV 3

Election Day
No school for students

NOV 5

LSIC meeting 5:00
PTO meeting 5:30

NOV 11

Veterans Day
No school for students

NOV 13

Midterm

NOV 23-27

Thanksgiving Break
No School for students

ATTENDANCE ANNOUNCEMENT

WV Attendance Policy 4110 states that all documentation relating to absences shall be provided to the school no later than 3 instructional days. Notes will not be accepted past 3 days and will result in an unexcused absence.

Families are allotted 5 parent written excuses per semester. School excuses can be submitted to the school by hand or be loaded digitally on the JCS website.

Jennifer Doss, Principal

2026 -2027

