Principal's Perspective

Parkers Chapel High School – Oct/Nov 2025

Robby Frizzell, Principal

HANDBOOK HIGHLIGHTS

Parents must call the school by 10:00 a.m. on the day of their child's absence or the absence is considered unexcused.

Students receive no credit for grades missed due to an unexcused absence.

No lunch deliveries will be accepted by the high school office after 12:40 p.m.

THE TROJAN MARCHING BAND has capped off a landmark season filled with firsts, triumphs, and a bold new identity. Earlier this fall, the band debuted its updated uniforms, made possible through the support of the school district and the school board. The modern design brought fresh energy to the group, giving members a renewed sense of pride as they took the field for their competitive season.

That pride was on full display at the Region 3 Marching Contest, where the band earned straight superior ratings—a feat accomplished for the first time in the program's history. Judges praised the ensemble's musicality, precision, and overall performance, marking a major milestone for the students and their directors.

The success at Region 3 propelled the band to the State Marching Finals, where they represented Parkers Chapel and the community with professionalism and spirit. Their performance was met with enthusiastic support, highlighting the band's growth, dedication, and rising reputation across the state.

Band Director Cyrus Tucker described the season as "a breakthrough year," noting that the students' hard work and commitment have elevated the program to new heights. Community members and school officials echoed these sentiments, celebrating the band's achievements and the positive example its members set both on and off the field. (See p. 4 for the list of Junior High and High School Jazz All Region.)

PCHS STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Zoie Wilson was selected as the PCHS Student of the Month for October. Zoie was nominated by her teachers for her great attitude and for being an all-A student, one of the highest scoring students on the ATLAS interims, and for being a Trojan Way Student (honor roll, no discipline referrals, no unexcused absences, and no tardies. Congratulations, Zoie! You are a great representative of PCHS!

Semester Tests Dec 17th, 18th, and 19th

Semester tests are right around the corner. The schedule is posted below. For this semester, students may qualify to exempt a semester test based on their performance on the Summative ATLAS exams that were taken back in April of this year. Additionally, students could qualify to exempt a semester test based on their performance on the ACT exam taken on March 26th. Any 9th-12th grade student that qualified to exempt a semester test received a certificate congratulating them on their performance and describing the semester test they are now eligible to exempt. These exemption certificates were attached to report cards and handed out during parent teacher conferences on Oct 14th.

- Students who have qualified and intend on exempting a semester test must notify the teacher prior to testing week.
- AP course semester tests are not eligible for exemption.
- If a student has a grade lower than a C, he/she cannot exempt the semester test for that class.
- Extra exemption certificates can be obtained in the high school office.

TROJAN E-SPORTS TEAMS HAVE BREAKOUT SEASON!

The Parkers Chapel ESports program celebrated an exciting and successful season this year, led by two talented Super Smash Bros. teams.

Team 1, led by captain Ethan Vickers, with teammates Jamaree Brown and Dalton Farris, delivered an exceptional performance throughout the regular season. Competing against 171 teams from all classifications, they finished an impressive 10th place, securing their spot in the Arkansas Activities Association State Tournament.

Team 2, captained by Daniel Cummins alongside players Mia Brown and Johnathan Scott, also had a fantastic season. The team showcased growth, skill, and enthusiasm throughout their matches, contributing to the exciting momentum of the Parkers Chapel ESports program.

Both teams demonstrated dedication, cooperation, and a true love for gaming. As the ESports program continues to grow, students and coaches alike are already looking forward to next season. With such strong talent and teamwork, the future of Parkers Chapel ESports is brighter than ever. We can't wait to see what next season brings!

Parker's Chapel art and STEM partnered up to place a tree representing Parkers Chapel Schools inside the Union County Courthouse.

STEM made the tree topper and wood ornaments. The art department made paint-filled marble & confetti blue and white ornaments.
