FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tory Moix, Assistant Principal at Greenbrier Middle School in the Greenbrier School District, named the Arkansas Association of Middle Level Administrators (AAMLA) Assistant Principal of the Year

GREENBRIER, AR – Mrs. Tory Moix, Assistant Principal at Greenbrier Middle School in the Greenbrier School District, was recently named the Arkansas Association of Middle Level Administrators (AAMLA) Assistant Principal of the Year. This award is sponsored by Curriculum Associates. Lenett Thrasher, AAEA Assistant Executive Director; Mike Mertens, AAEA Consultant; Scott Spainhour, Superintendent of Greenbrier Public Schools; Harry Dickens, Curriculum Associates; and Alice Shirey, Curriculum Associates, presented Mrs. Moix with the award on January 14, 2025.

This award is given each year to an Arkansas middle level assistant principal who has succeeded in contributing to a positive and motivating environment for others and has been recognized as exhibiting exceptional leadership skills in the school community.

Mrs. Moix has been Assistant Principal at Greenbrier Middle School since 2022. During her time as assistant principal, Mrs. Moix has worked to build capacity within teachers by creating "Monthly Mentor/Mentee Meetings" to onboard, retain, and support new and novice teachers. She also led in the design and implementation of the school's intervention period to help meet the needs of students, as well as transitioning to the use of Standards-Based learning, grading, and reporting at the school. Mrs. Moix is dedicated to the education of Arkansas students and very deserving of this award as evidenced in the following comments:

"Tory Moix is committed to excellence for the students and staff at Greenbrier Middle School. She is willing to go the extra mile to ensure that every student's needs are met academically and emotionally. Not only does Mrs. Moix take the time to connect with students and staff, but she also brings positivity and enthusiasm to each situation she encounters." Jordan Pavan, Library Media Specialist, Greenbrier Middle School

"In the classroom, Mrs. Moix leads by example. She regularly models high-quality instructional practices, offering support and insights to teachers through co-teaching and demonstration lessons. Her deep understanding of pedagogy and student-centered instruction has been an invaluable resource to our staff, allowing them to grow professionally and adopt innovative teaching strategies that truly engage our students." Rachel Atkinson, Special Services Director, Greenbrier Public Schools

"Mrs. Moix is not only a dedicated leader within the school but also a vital part of the broader community. Her connection with families and students goes beyond the school walls, as she actively engages with parents and community members to ensure that every student has the support they need to thrive. Her willingness to listen, collaborate, and find solutions has earned her the trust and respect of everyone she
