Cleveland City Schools offers both breakfast and lunch at no charge to students PK-12th grade through the USDA Community Eligibility Provision.
Students who do not choose a fruit or vegetable and at least two other full components will be charged a la carte prices.
A variety of snacks that meet USDA regulations for all foods sold in schools are offered daily.
You can register at schoolcafe.com and make deposits to a student's meal account as well as see an account history of purchases.
This valuable resource will help guide students purchasing decisions.

Please call the School Nutrition Program Office at 472-9574 with questions.
Menu is subject to change due to product availability, holidays, and special school events.
