

PINE CREST NEWSLETTER

IT'S MAY!

The month of May is very busy with many end of the year activities! Please be mindful of the calendar and any notes sent home to be aware of trips, events, and more! This important information is regarding if students should dress for a certain activity, bring a sack lunch, or bring money for an activity.

TEACHER, NURSE, & LUNCH HERO APPRECIATION! ✨

We would like to remind parents of some upcoming appreciation days. Lunch Hero Day is May 1st, Teacher Appreciation Week will be celebrated from May 4–8, and Nurse Appreciation Day is on May 6. We are incredibly grateful for our dedicated teachers, school nurse, and cooks and we wanted to share these important dates with you in case you would like to join us in recognizing and celebrating their hard work and commitment.

We appreciate all that you do ✨

IT'S ALMOST SUMMER! PLEASE READ BELOW!

- Report cards will go home with students on May 28!
- Our librarian will be sending out notices of library books that are lost/missing. Please cooperate by searching for these lost books and returning them or by paying any fees that may apply.

From the Office

As we end the school year, we want to remind parents of a few important topics:

- The Pine Crest Office will be open in June from 7am - 2 pm. We will be closed June 19th.
- Online Registration will open in July - those dates will show on your student's final report card and be posted on the District website and social media platforms. ALL returning students must register online. There will not be in-person registration for returning students.
- ALL fee balances are due and can be paid by either:
 - sending in a check or cash to the Pine Crest office
 - paying online through your student's Teacher Ease portal
