Subject: Leadership Update from Coshocton City Schools

Dear Coshocton Families,

We want to share an important update from the Coshocton City Schools Board of Education following a special executive session held on January 21.

At that meeting, the Board appointed Mr. Matt Nicholas to serve as interim superintendent of Coshocton City Schools. Mr. Nicholas will take on this role while Superintendent Mark Kowalski is on paid administrative leave. The Board expects to provide another update later this month.

Mr. Nicholas has served in our district for the past three years, most recently as a central office administrator since July 2023. He holds a superintendent license issued by the State Board of Education and brings strong experience and steady leadership to this interim position.

We remain focused on providing continuity and support for our students, staff, and families during this time. Thank you for your ongoing partnership and commitment to Coshocton City Schools.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Interim Superintendent Matt Nicholas at (740) 622-1901 or Board President Susan Mann through the Coshocton City Schools Board of Education Office.

Sincerely,
Coshocton City Schools Board of Education
