The New Greenhouse By: Bridgette Valentine and Terrace Dieterich

In construction

As you know west valley 7th graders are installing a new green house and supply shed. right now the shed is being constructed"We put the kids into groups of 4, each group gets to construct a wall" Mr. Jackson explains"The hardest part about the building was getting the base level, one mistake and we have to start over". Mr. Music, one of the teachers helping with the construction says"The shed will most likely be done in a few weeks.

This week we interviewed Mr. Musick, Mr. Jackson and student, Ellie .B

Student Ellie states that they had problems with the floor and had to retry. She says that the contruction is going well, but she didn't expect it to be so complicated. She doesn't know when the construction will be done but hopefully in a couple weeks.

7th Grade teacher Mr. Musick says the contruction is doing great and the students are working hard. It the next couple weeks he says the shed should be done. The students are split into groups of four and they each build a wall for the shed.

Head custodian Mr. Jackson said the students are doing very well and the building process is going great. He also informed us that they are still ordering parts for the green house and are building the shed. They now have most of the walls done but when this paper is out they will most likely have more done. He said his favorite part is watching the kids build and learn along the way.

HIDDEN PUMPKINS!

By: Annabel V.

Oh no! Weston the mischievous warrior has hidden all of the West Valley pumpkins! How many can you find? If you think you found all of them, circle and then come to room B4 to show Mrs. Freese, or leave a note on her desk along with the newspaper, or send an email to her and receive a prize!

(The pumpkins you counted MUST have a "WV" on them! The example ones on this page and the plain pumpkins do not count!)

Trick or Treat from a Tiny Seat

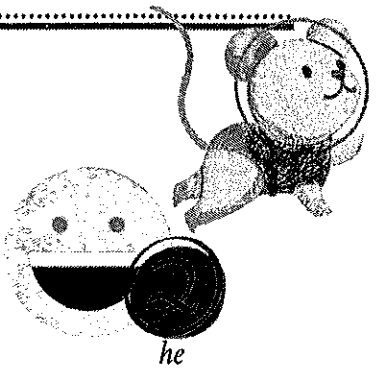

By Reegan Needs

Forget the spooky decorations—the real magic of Halloween is seeing it through the eyes of our youngest neighbors. Kindergarteners got interveiwed, 1 boy and 1 girl from each class. They got asked what they are going to be for halloween. Nolan said that he wanted to be a scary stickman that can camoflaugh and glow in the dark, isn't that fascinating?! Nolan also said that his favorite candy to recive from trick or treating is Chocolate bars. Isabella said that she wanted to be Guacamole, now that is a pretty funny costum. Her favorite candy that comes out of her trick or treat baskets is Gummy worms. Beau decided that he really wants to be a cowboy, He's got his boots and hat all he needs is his favorite candy... Sweedish fish! Abby wants to be a dinosaur and Abby's favorite candy is Candy corn, sounds yummy! Olan has finally decided that he wants to be mummy, but he says that it might be too scary so he might have to change it. Kynlee wants to be stitch, isnt that cute! Kynlee's favorite candy is Ring pops! Forget all the cute and cuddly costums Owden really wants to be a crazy monster Owden also likes gob stoppers And last but defintly not least Grace wants to be the character Rumi from K-pop demon hunters and she loves loli pops! In the end, while their costume choices were wildly imaginative, their universal love for sugary treats proved that these kindergarteners all share the same goal: collecting the biggest candy haul possible.

CONRAD MANSION SPOOKY STORIES

by: Bridgette Valentine

CONRAD MANSION IS KNOWN FOR MANY SPOOKY STORIES AND SPOOKY PAST. BUILT BETWEEN 1892-1895 THE CONRAD MANSION IS A VERY OLD BUILDING WITH LOTS OF STORIES. I INTERVIEWED BRIT CLARK FROM THE CONRAD MANSION AND SHE TOLD ME REAL SCARY STORIES THAT ACCUALLY HAPPENED.

FOR STARTERS SHE TOLD ME LOTS OF PEOPLE INCLUDING HER HAVE HEARD FOOT STEPS, SMELLED CIGAR SMOKE, AND HAVE HEARD DOORS OPENING AND CLOSING. SHE SAID THAT IT'S GORGEOUS DURING THE DAY AND UNSETTLING IN THE NIGHT. THE CONRAD MANSION ALSO DOES GHOST TOURS SO, IF YOU WANNA HEAR FULL STORIES YOU CAN BOOK ONE. SHE TOLD ME ALICIA "LETTIE" CONRAD HANGS OUT ON THE SECOND FLOOR IN HER MAGNIFICENT GOWN. HER HUSBAND IS SAID TO HAVE "SMOKED CIGARS" TO THE POINT WHERE GUESTS CAN SMELL IT. AND THEIR YOUNGEST CHILD IS SAID TO HAVE LAUGHING GUESTS SAY THAT SHE TAKES THE FORM OF A YOUNG CHILD EVEN THOUGH SHE DIED AS AN OLD WOMAN.

IN CONCLUSION THE CONRAD MANSION IS A VERY INTERESTING PLACE THAT YOU SHOULD VISIT! THEY DO GHOST TOURS YOU CAN GO TO, AND THEY ALSO DO NORMAL TOURS WHERE YOU JUST HEAR THE HISTORY. I HAVE BEEN TO BOTH THE GHOST TOUR AND THE NORMAL TOUR AND I CAN SAY IT'S WORTH IT TO GO.

WHAT'S COOKING?

The Recipe of The Month

By: Isla D. & Annabel V.

Pumpkin Swirl Cheesecake

Ingredients:

Brownie Base:

- 1 box (18 to 19 oz) fudge brownie mix
- Oil, water, and egg(s) as called for on the brownie box

Pumpkin Cheesecake Swirl:

- 3 oz cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup canned pumpkin purée
- 3 tbsp white granulated sugar
- 1 large egg
- 1 tsp pumpkin pie spice

Steps

1. Preheat your oven to 350°F. Grease the bottom of a 9-inch square baking pan or line it with parchment paper.
2. In a medium bowl, beat the softened cream cheese, pumpkin purée, granulated sugar, egg, and pumpkin pie spice on low speed until smooth. Set it aside.
3. In a separate large bowl, prepare the brownie batter according to the directions printed on the box.
4. Pour about 3/4 of the prepared brownie batter into the bottom of your pan. Evenly spread the pumpkin cheesecake mixture directly over it. Spoon the remaining 1/4 of the brownie batter randomly over the pumpkin layer.
5. Using a butter knife or toothpick, gently cut through the layers in a zigzag or figure-8 motion to create a marbled effect.
6. Bake for 40 to 45 minutes. The edges should feel set while the center retains a very slight jiggle. A toothpick inserted into the middle should come out almost clean with just a few moist crumbs.
7. Let the pan cool completely on a wire rack. Transfer them to the refrigerator to chill for at least 30 minutes before slicing into squares. Store any leftovers covered in the refrigerator.

STEAK AND BRISKET

By: Terrace Dieterich

rolled and stuffed backstrap prep time: 30 minutes
cook time:15 minutes
total time:45 minutes
yield: 4 servings
ideal internal temp: 125

Ingredents

1.1lb venison backstrap lino (ideally a thick, 10-12 inch center section)
2. ¼ lb. cubed prosciutto
3. 8 oz of cream cheese(softened to room temp)
4.2-3 fresh jalapenos
5. 1 cup of cheddar cheese
6. 2 tbsp stake seasoning of wild game rub.
7. 10-12 slices of bacon

Step 1

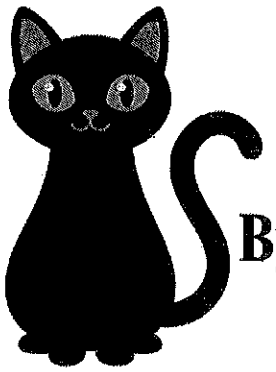

butterfly the backstrap

Place your backstrap flat on a cutting board, use a very sharp knife to cut the backstrap into slices, the backstrap down the loin, cutting about ⅓ of the way through. Do not cut all the way through, leave a "hinge" so it opens like a book season the inside of the backstrap with half the seasoning, in a bowl mix together the softened cream cheese, diced jalapenos, and shredded cheese. Spread the mixture evenly across the meat evenly ⅓ - inch border around the edges so the cheese doesn't come out. Starting from one end roll the backstrap title back into a log or cylinder shaper. Secure the roll with twin around it 1-to 2-inch intervals, tuck the ends in as best you can lay your bacon strips on a cutting board tile over lapping each other to make a blanket.places the tied backstrap on one end of the of the bacon and roll it tightly so the interior loin has a bacon shell. Season the outside with the remaining seasoning .cook on a grill for 30-40 minutes about 375*F to 350*F, use a digital thermometer and insert it into the center of the meat, pull the backstrap off the heat when it is golden brown, check the meat to see if it is fully cooked, and there you have it, enjoy!

WEST VALLEYS CHEFS

By Kennedy Goodman and Sophia Bacon

1. What's the most popular lunch item that kids LOVE?
2. What's funniest thing you've seen in the lunch line?
3. Wht's the sweetest thing a student has said to you?

-pizza is the most popular
-Kids dealing with gloves
-Goodmorning & thank you

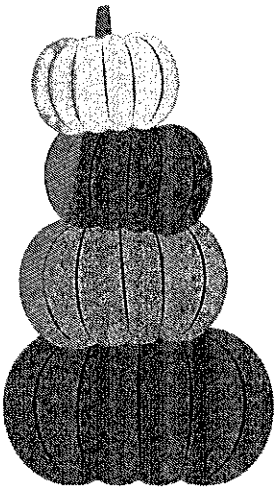

- Chicken nuggets are the most popular
-A kid broke his arm
-Thank you by so many kids

-chicken strips are the most popular
-Her green shirt gets people to laugh
-Her green shirt again

A lot of work goes into the lunches. They have to make the lunches, follow the health code everyday, make sure that there are enough lunches for everyone, and make the lunch menu. Making the lunches can take 1 to 3 hours to finish. Some of the lunches need to be prepped and that can take up to 3 days.

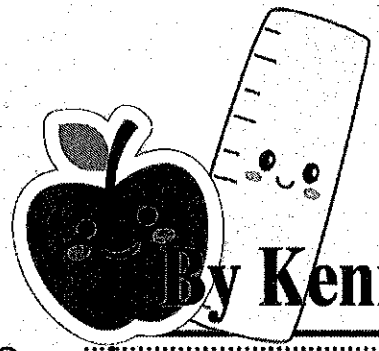

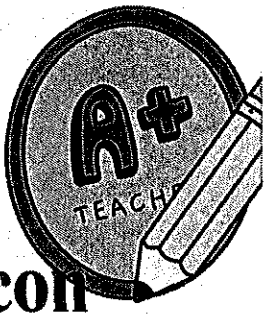

To follow the health code they need to keep track of the food temperatures, clean the kitchen daily, and wash their hands a lot.To make the lunch menu they have to find 4 different protein options for the week and figure out a way not to repeat the same lunch in a month. They make a few extra lunches in case someone forgets their lunch but if they run out they give the 4th and 8th graders PB & J sandwiches. That is why it is important to order food if you need it.

Our questions:

1. What grades do you teach?
2. What are you doing in class right now?
3. What do you think about this year's theme (Small actions, big impact)?
4. What is the wierdest thing you have eaten?

1. Ms. Root teaches 2nd through 6th grade.
2. Right now, they are working on a Mexican American unit.
3. Ms. Root loves the the theme. She says that thinking about a small step instead of the big picture, which can be overwhelming, really helps.
4. The weirdest thing she has ever eaten is octopus- and apparently it was not a pleasant experience.

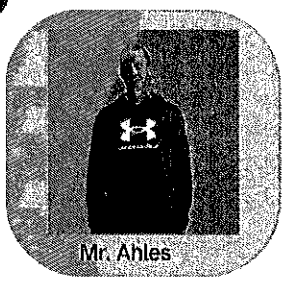

Ms. Root

1. Mr. Keller teaches Kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, and 4th grade.
2. This week he is teaching all about American Indian Heritage day and introducing to powwow.
3. Mr. Keller says that the theme is great. He associates it with the butterfly effect.
4. The most interesting thing Mr. Keller has eaten is mountain lion. This is a sweeter meat, and he feels it is wierd when you think about eating a cat.

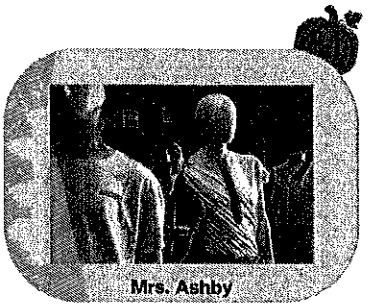

Mr. Keller

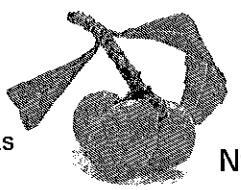

Mr. Ahles

1. Mr. Ahles teaches Kindergarten through 5th grade.
2. Right now, he is doing two different units: volleyball, for 3rd through 5th grade, and scooter, for Kindergarten through 2nd.
3. He thinks that the theme for this year is great.
4. The strangest thing that Mr. Ahles has ever eaten is plain sauerkraut, because he thought it was food when he was younger. He won't make that mistake again!

1. 5-8th grade
2. For art, everybody is doing graffiti. 5th is doing their names on a "brick wall", 6th is doing traincars with graffiti on them, and 7th and 8th is doing a 2 point perspective of a brick building with graffiti on te side. In Spanish, she is just going over the basics.
3. Mrs. Ashby likes the theme, and thinks it is a simple and easy to understand. She says that it is relatable, which makes it easier to act out.
4. Mrs. Ashby says that the strangest thing she has ever eaten was Nisparo, which is a fruit.

Ms. Ralston

1. Ms. Ralston teaches Kindergarten, 1st, and 2nd grade Art. She also teaches K-4th Title.
2. Kindergarten hasn't started yet, but when it does, Ms. Ralston says they will be going over what art is. Right now, 1st grade is doing an "All about me" crayon and 2nd is doing Minecraft selfies.
3. She states that she likes the yearly theme, "Small actions, big impact". She says that it is a very big, important thought for kids to take with them into their adult lives.
4. Ms. Ralston said, somewhat laughingly, that the weirdest thing she has ever eaten is crocodile pot stickers.

1. Mrs. Measure teaches 6th through 8th grade.
2. In class right now she is ending her flag football unit.
3. Mrs. Measure feels the theme is very important, small things all add up.
4. The weirdest thing that Mrs. Measure has eaten is raw sea urchin in Hawaii, she said that it is very salty, mushy, and gross.

Mrs. Measure

1. Mrs. Hillis teaches Kindergarten-5th grade.
2. Kindergarten is working on sitting nicely and raising their hands. 1st and 2nd is going over beat and rythm, and 3rd and 4th is reviewing musical elements. 5th is, of course, doing recorders.
3. Mrs. Hillis thinks the theme is great: she loves ow everybody is weaving it into daily life because your small actions become who you are.
4. She says that the weirdest things she has ever eaten are yak and ostrich eggs.

Mrs. Hillis

1. Mrs. Hand teaches 6th grade, 7th grade, 8th grade, and college.
2. Right now, everybody is playing their instruments and singing.
3. Mrs. Hand likes it because it is easy to remember and makes a big impact: it is simple but very important.

THE DISAPPEARANCE AT THE CORN MAZE

BY:RAYMOND KEMP

The thick, unseasonal fog rolled into the Whispering Pines corn maze so quickly that Mia lost sight of her friends' laughter within seconds. One moment she was teasing them about getting lost, and the next, the vibrant green stalks were swallowed by a suffocating, milky white wall. The air turned bitterly cold, carrying the sharp scent of damp earth and something distinctly metallic. Panic tightening in her chest, she pressed forward, calling out their names, but her voice flatlined against the dense mist as the path seemed to twist and reshape itself under her boots.

Desperate for an exit, she burst through the final turn of the maze, expecting to see the bright string lights and bustling food trucks of the autumn festival. Instead, she stepped out into a completely silent, darkened field. The neon signs, the pop music, and the crowds were entirely gone, replaced by a dirt road and a lone, rusted pickup truck from an era she had only seen in history books. A chilling breeze rustled the corn behind her, carrying the faint, tinny sound of a radio broadcast discussing a moon landing that hadn't happened yet.

Walking toward the nearby highway in a daze, Mia stopped dead in her tracks when she spotted a faded wooden billboard at the edge of the property. The festival advertisement she had laughed at an hour ago was missing; instead, a pristine sign proudly welcomed travelers to the town's inaugural 1969 harvest festival. Fear fully crystallized as she reached into her pocket and pulled out her smartphone, only to find the screen completely dead, leaving her utterly stranded decades before she was even born.

THE MOST POPULAR HALLOWEEN COSTUMES OF EACH DECADE, 1980S-2020S

By: Wyatt Boes

The most popular costumes in the 80s were pop idols and movies characters, such as Marty McFly, MJ, and Madonna.

After the 80s, the 90s came along with an entirely different style in costumes. Some costumes were Ghostface, Teletubbies, and Austin powers.

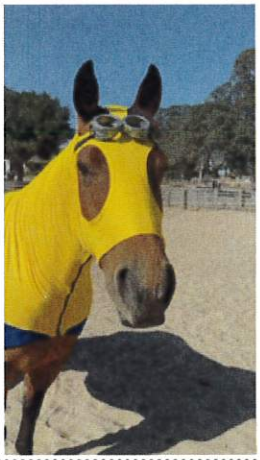

HAVE A GOOD DAY

The 2000s focused around nusical artists, movies, and TV shows. I added some.

The 2010s costumes were a lot more interesting than the 2000s, such as Pennywise, Angry Birds, and Minions.

Summary

The story begins with a friendly witch and her cat flying happily through the sky on a broomstick. As a fierce wind begins to blow, the witch accidentally loses her hat, forcing them to drop down to the ground to search for it. While looking, they encounter a polite dog who has found the hat and asks if there is room on the broom for a new friend. The witch welcomes him aboard, but as their flight continues, the stormy wind knocks away even more of her belongings, leading to encounters with other helpful animals.

THE MYSTERYS OF THE LOST AND FOUND

By Kennedy Goodman and Sophia Bacon

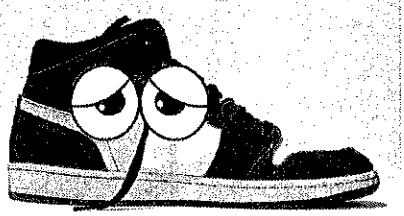

This is Wally. He has been in the lost and found for a few days now. His owner completely forgot about him.

Wally's point of view:

"It was terrifying. I was stuck laying on the ground under the swings watching kids as they almost kicked me over and over again. Then a random lady came and picked me up and put me in the lost and found. I sat there, day after day watching and hoping my kid would come but he never came. One day I saw him walking past and he didn't even notice me. To make matters worse he was holding another WATERBOTTLE!"

Wally was donated and now has a happy life with another kid.

Don't leave your stuff in the lost and found. It has feelings too.

This is Samantha the shoe. She was once on the persons foot. But one day during P.E class the person took Samantha off to put their P.E shoes on. P.E class was over after 1 hour. The person went into the locker room to find out that there shoe was missing. Her owoner did not care.

Samanthas POV

"Aghhhh were am I? I was just on my owners foot but then somebody took me and put me somewhere and its really dark in here! I'm so scared. I waited and waited to be picked up by my owner but they didn't come back. Then a few days later a scary teacher found me and put me in the lost and found. After a few more days of waiting I saw my owner but then I looked down and saw a shoe that looks just like me but the shoe was not me. He walked over and picked me up and put me in his backpack. He took me home and I finally felt safe. But I didn't feel safe for very long because he gave me to his little brother! Whats he gonna do with one shoe! HELP."

We still don't know what happened to Samantha today.

THE MYSTERYS OF THE LOST AND FOUND

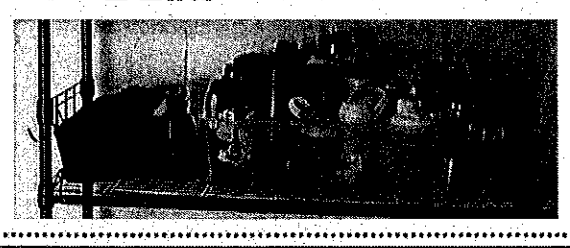

By Kennedy Goodman and Sophia Bacon

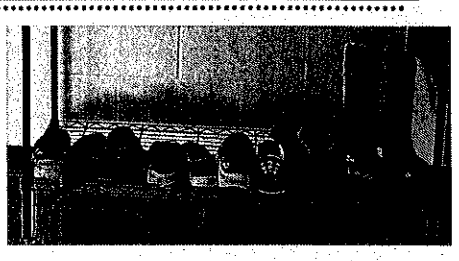

We interviewed Mrs. Blade about the lost and found and she said that it is always full, the weirdest or grossest thing she has found is moldy food in lunchboxes, and she mostly finds jackets and sweaters.

Stuff in the lost and found:

- 1 binder
- 61 jackets
- 10 lunchboxes (no moldy food)
- 5 pairs of shoes
- 8 with no pair
- 1 library book
- 30 waterbottles
- 1 waterbottle lid
- 4 shirts
- 1 pair of shorts
- 2 hair brushes
- 2 pairs of jeans
- 2 hats

We interviewed Mrs. Hammer and Mrs. Denman about the lost and found and they said that the weirdest thing they found is one shoe with no pair. They mostly find hoodies and waterbottles. The grossest thing they found was a really old lunch.

Spookiest Sports!

You didn't know sports could get this spooky! Here are the top 3 spookiest sports!!

1. Night-Time Orienteering: Navigating a dense forest in the dark using only a dim headlamp while listening to nocturnal wildlife and sudden rustling leaves
2. Underwater hockey (Octopush): Playing a low-visibility puck game at the bottom of a swimming pool, where teammates and opponents look like shadowy figures in murky water.
3. The Ghostly Marathon of Bodmin Moor: Running through a misty, desolate landscape in the UK known for phantom dogs and spectral legends

NWSL

The national women's soccer league friendly matches started back up in late July. The top 3 teams are:

1. Gotham
2. San diego wave
3. Washington Spirit

The woman's world cup is summer of 2027, the men's world cup last summer had the whole world on the edge of their seat! During the world cup teams from all over the world compete. The U.S. women's team has won the 4 titles, which is more than any other country! (1991, 1999, 2015, 2019) They also won the very first world cups. The highest paid women's soccer player in the whole world is none other than the Trinity Rodman, (you might recognize the last name, yes she is Dennis Rodman's daughter). In January of 2026 she historically signed a 3-year deal for 6 million dollars. The best woman's soccer player in the world is widely known as Aitana Bonmatí.

MLB

MLB (major league baseball) playoffs are happening right now! below is the bracket. 12 teams (six from the American League and six from the National League) competing in a four-round bracket to reach the World Series.

Division winners: The team with the best regular-season record in each of the three divisions (East, Central, West) gets seeds 1, 2, or 3 based on their win-loss records.

Wild Card Teams: The three teams in each league with the best records remaining outside of the division winners claim the 4th, 5th, and 6th seeds. (continued on the next page)

First-round byes: The No. 1 and No. 2 seeds in each league skip the first round and advance straight to the Division Series

Wild Card Series (Best-of-Three):

- Seed No. 3 plays Seed No. 6, and Seed No. 4 plays Seed No. 5. (continued)

WEST VALLEY NEWS

Oct 2, 2026

- The higher-seeded team hosts all three games at its home ballpark.
- Winners advance to the Division Series.

Division Series / ALDS & NLDS (Best-of-Five):

- Seed No. 1 plays the winner of the 4-vs-5 matchup; Seed No. 2 plays the winner of the 3-vs-6 matchup.
- Played in a 2–2–1 format (higher seed hosts games 1, 2, and 5).
- League Championship Series / ALCS & NLCS (Best-of-Seven):
- The two surviving teams in each league face off.
- Played in a 2–3–2 format, and the winner of each league is crowned AL or NL champion.

The World Series (Best-of-Seven):

- The American League champion plays the National League champion.
- Played in a 2–3–2 format, with home-field advantage granted to the pennant winner with the better regular-season record.

Football Everything!

The NFL is just starting up! In this month's NFL page we'll give a preview of some teams and all the rules!

Football 101

It has come to my attention that some people don't know the rules of football. Which at some point has to be illegal. So, here is where you can come to figure out what is happening when your dad and brother are screaming at the TV!

How do you start?

At the beginning of a football game you have to kickoff. To kick off you have someone hold the ball and the kicker kicks it as far down the field as they can from their own 35-yard line (in the NFl). The opposing team is in their own half, between their 20-yard line and the end zone. The receiving team is trying to get the ball and run as far down the field as possible because that will be where the line of scrimmage is. The line of scrimmage is where your center puts the ball to snap it to the quarterback.

Basic Rules

You have 4 downs to gain 10 yards, once you gain 10 yards you get a new set of downs. You can go farther than 10 yards in one play the goal is to advance down the field as long as possible. If you get to the 4th down you have 3 options: go for it (the offense attempts to reach get their remaining yards for the 1st down like any other play), punt (the offense kicks ball to the opposing team attempting to keep them farther in their own territory), field goal (if the offensive is close enough, usually from about 35-50 yards, they attempt to kick a field goal to gain 3 points). Once you get to the end zone and score a touchdown you receive 6 points, you also have two options. 1. kick a field goal, 2. two-point conversion. Usually coaches attempt a two-point conversion when there is little time left and the scores are close. Most of the time they choose to kick a field goal because it's less of a gamble.

Fouls/Penalties

There are many different types of fouls with a lot of different penalties. Fouls are very common. Here are some of the most common ones.

Common American Football Penalties

Category	Foul / Infraction	Yard Penalty	Key Consequence
Pre-Snap	False Start	5 yards	Dead ball, repeat down
Pre-Snap	Offside / Encroachment	5 yards	Free play for offense / Dead b
Offense	Offensive Holding	10 yards	Repeats the down
Defense	Defensive Holding	5 yards	Automatic first down
Defense	Pass Interference	Spot of foul	Automatic first down
Personal Foul	Roughing the Passer	15 yards	Automatic first down
Personal Foul	Face Mask / Horse Collar	15 yards	Automatic first down

Positions

There 52 players on a football team but only 11 from your team on the field at a time. All football positions are divided into 3 main teams: offense, defense, and special teams. Here are the positions: (Condensed).

(Some positions are at multiple spots on the field thats why theres not exactly 11 positions on offense and defense.)

Offense

Position	Abbr.	Main Job
Quarterback	QB	Leads the team, passes, hands off, or runs with the ball.
Running back	RB	Runs with the ball, catches passes, and blocks.
Fullback	FB	Acts as a heavy blocker to protect the runner or quarterback.
Wide reciever	WR	Runs fast routes and catches passes from the quarterback.
Tight End	TE	Blocks like a lineman and catches passes like a receiver.
Center	C	Snaps the ball to the quarterback to start the play.
Offensive Guard	G	Blocks defenders on the inside to protect the quarterback.
Offensive Tackle	T	Blocks on the outer edges and protects the quarterback's blind side.

Defense

Defensive Tackle	DT	Play in the middle of the line to stuff the run and pressure the QB
Defensive End	DE	Play on the outside of the defensive line to contain runners and rush the QB.
Linebacker	LB	Roam behind the line to tackle ball carriers, cover pass catchers, or blitz the QB.
Cornerback	CB	Guard wide receivers and break up or intercept passes
Safety	SS	Play deep in the secondary as the last line of defense against run and pass plays.

Special Teams

Kicker	K	Kicks field goals, extra points, and kickoffs
Punter	P	Kicks the ball away to the opponent on fourth down
Long Snapper	LS	Snaps the ball long distances back to the punter or holder
Holder	H	Catches the snap on field goal attempts and holds the ball upright
Return	KR/PR	Catches kickoffs or punts and runs them back
Gunner	G	Specialized players who sprint down the field to tackle the returner or block for their own team.

HOW MODERN DATA SCIENCE AND ALGORITHMIC TRACKING PROVED THAT SHOOTING 33% FROM THE THREE-POINT LINE YIELDS THE EXACT SAME VALUE AS SHOOTING 50% FROM THE TWO-POINT LINE.

HOW THE PROFESSIONAL GAME TRICKLED DOWN TO LOCAL PARKS AND HIGH SCHOOLS. TEENAGERS TODAY DON'T PRACTICE LAYUPS OR POST MOVES. THEY PRACTICE 30 FOOT SHOTS BEFORE THEY ARE PHYSICALLY STRONG ENOUGH TO FORM PROPER SHOOTING MECHANICS.

WHEN THE NBA INTRODUCED THE THREE-POINT LINE IN 1979, PLAYERS WERE SMALLER AND SLOWER. TODAY, ATHLETES ARE MASSIVE, AGILE, AND CAN SHOOT FROM ANYWHERE. THE FLOOR IS NOW HEAVILY SPACED OUT, AND THE CORNER THREE IS A CHEAT CODE BECAUSE THE LINE IS PHYSICALLY CLOSER TO THE BASKET THERE.

THE TRADITIONAL, BACK-TO-THE-BASKET CENTER IS VIRTUALLY EXTINCT. IF A MODERN 7-FOOTER CAN'T "STRETCH THE FLOOR" AND SHOOT THREES, THEY CAN'T GET DRAFTED.

AS YOU CAN SEE, THE STORY ABOUT THE INVENTION OF THE “THREE POINT LINE” IS VERY DEEP INTO DETAIL AND IS VERY IMPORTANT IN NBA HISTORY.

TECH TIPS, GAMES, AND TRICKS: HOW TO PLAY CHESS, SPOOKY EDITION

By: Anthony C. Husain

Chess is a large and old game with a community of around 600 million players. Chess has been around since the 6TH CENTURY!

Chess is one of the hardest games to play as it requires much consideration in moves and strategy. there's over 10 to the power of 120, that means there's more chess moves than ATOMS IN THE OBSERVABLE UNIVERSE! Now the actual learning curve of chess. So the pawn moves straight and can only take a piece when it's next to it diagonally to the upper left or right. The Rook (tower) moves straight endlessly in any direction except diagonally. the knight (horse) Moves in a two space L. The king moves anywhere 1 space at a time. The queen can move anywhere... end of story, as long as there isn't a piece in front of the path. The bishop (slit in the top of the piece) moves endlessly diagonally (like the rook but drunk) up left up right low left low right. Thats it.

How to get Minecraft Story Mode

Hi, this is Leland. These pages will tell you about how to get Minecraft story mode present day. If you don't want to read this I made a video for you to watch: bit.ly/MCstorymode
(Also I did not make this, so credits to whoever made this website!)

Android

First on your phone you want to go to the Megathread for minecraft story mode by searching up this: "minecraft story mode megathread" or you can just go to this link: https://www.mcsmmegathread.org/

Then you need to go on the first results and scroll all the way down to android

Now you want to scroll down to Season 1 bundle and click on "Adreno" (If Season 2, it will be Universal).

When you click on this you want to select: "MCSM-S1-Adreno-Bundle-1.2.1.apks" then click download (Season 2, is "MCSM-S2-Universal-Bundle-1.2.1.apks)

Because this is 5 GB It might take a while to download. So while it's downloading you should go to google play store and type in SAI and click install.

Once the file downloads, go to google files and go to downloads

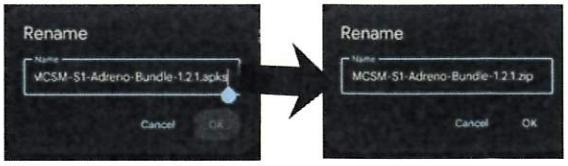

Then when you see the file you need to click on the 3 dots and click rename

Now you just need to click the textbox and at the end, replace .apks to .zip

TECH TIPS, GAMES, AND TRICKS

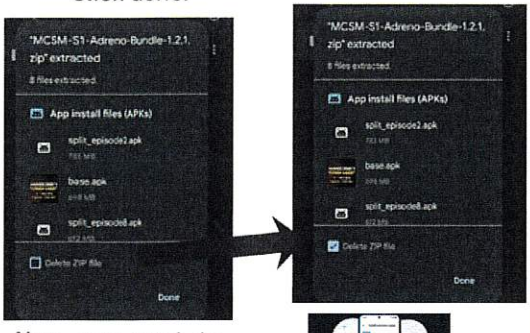

How to get

Minecraft Story Mode pt. 2

Then click done, and click on the file and make sure you have all 8 episodes (Season 2 has 5 episodes) (btw base.apk is episode 1), then click extract.

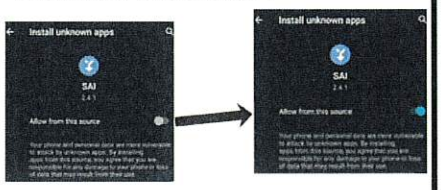

And this will take awhile as usual, but then when it is done extracting, checkmark the delete ZIP file, then click done.

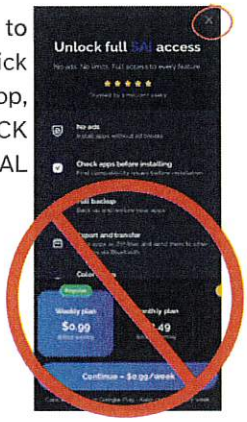

Now you want to go into the SAI app that you downloaded, and when you reach this page, click grant permission

Then you want to turn on this feature "Allow from this source".

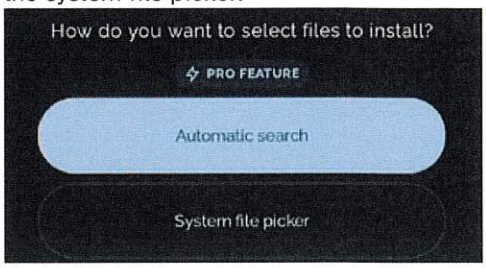

Then go back to the app and click the X at the top, DO NOT CLICK THE TRIAL BUTTON!!

Then when you are actually in SAI, Click the Select file(s) button, then click watch ad. Watch all of the ads to continue.

Then when you are done with the ads, click the system file picker.

Depending on your device, you just need to go to downloads and click on the folder that you just extracted, and select on every apk in that folder, if you don't click on all of the apks, you won't have the full game.

Now it should show this screen, make sure all of them are selected. Then click install

How to get

Minecraft Story Mode pt. 3

Now it should start installing, please do not get out of this screen, or it will not install!

Now, when it's says it's done, go to your home screen, and the logo should look like this. (If you cant find the logo, go back into SAI, at the bottom where it says apps, search up "MCSM", then it should pop up.

When you launch the app, congrats! you are now playing minecraft story mode! Enjoy!!

Now, when you are doing season 2, do all of the instructions again, make sure to follow the Season 2 instructions! If you need any help, feel free to contact me at l61774432@outlook.com

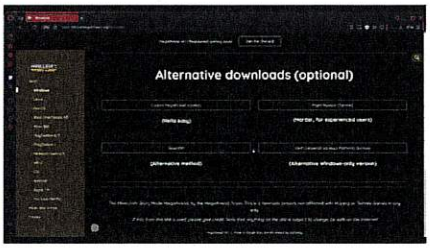

PC/Windows

Btw, this is only for windows, any other pc devices/consoles, you can go on the website at https://www.mcsmmegathread.org/

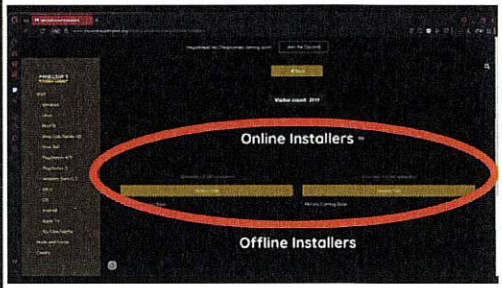

So, when you get on the website that I showed you up there, click on windows at the bar and scroll past the downloads section (Files are often corrupted there).

Keep on scrolling until you are on this section. Then click on the Custom Megathread installers.

Now when you are on this screen, Pick season 1 below "Online Installers" (If you want season 2, click season 2).

Then it should redrect you here, then select the file "MCSM-S1-Setup-1.0.0.exe" (if season 2, it should be "MCSM-S2-Setup-1.7.0.exe" or something like that) then download it.

Once it downloads, click open, then an application will pop up, just accept everything and let it download (This is what it will look like, or something similar).
