Can You Guess the Delack Brothers?

I would like to dedicate this annual to the "Spirit of '76", and include our great country in its Bicentennial celebration; our community for every way it has helped the youth in our school; and to the graduating class for whom this will be final memories of their high school days.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to this Separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain Unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new Government, laying its Foundations in such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for轻率的改变, as they have, in general, an aptitude to render themselves暴虐的, and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while恶人横行, than to suffer for their freedom, to be free.

But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing unceasingly the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such a Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.—Such an Oppression we have been under.

We have been led, whil st, to a firm resolution to be independent.

WRESTLING

It was a year of near misses. We almost had our first State Champion. We almost won a trophy at Divisional. We almost put it all together. We lost potential State Champion, John Lee to injuries. Mark, Orlen and Jerry, wrestling in the toughest weight classes, were among the toughest. If Paul Wadsworth had just another year of experience. And so on.

These five boys will be sorely missed.

All The Years

Where has the time gone,
That we might say we have Lived here for years.
It has been hard, oh yes,
It has been hard.
My grandparents have known
Such hardness,
But the land accepts,
And the beauty of harmony overcomes.
Oh, isn't it rich, this rendezvous,
Where time gives us all the riches.

The Shot Heard 'R

A historical illustration for the 1776 Bicentennial. It features a large, multi-story building with a prominent clock tower and a flag flying from a pole. In the foreground, a banner with the words 'INDEPENDENCE DAY' is partially visible. The scene is set outdoors with trees and a clear sky.

Without Representation and The World

King George III: "The political bonds which have connected them with another, and which have made the colonies of mankind requires that they are endowed by their Government to be instituted among Men, during the pursuit of Happiness. Prudence, & according to the laws of Nature, mankind are more disposed to suffer and submit to tyrants, than to fight and usurpations, pursuing invasions for the same off such Government, and to provide our Guards for their future security. See to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of England is a history of a long train of Oppression and Usurpation - No more than the facts be submitted to prove the particular good. He has forbidden his governors to pass Laws of imminent and when so furnished, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. He has the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right so familiar to them and so long and distant from the depository of their publick Records, for the sole Purpose of causing to rest with many fummes his incursions on the rights of the People. He has refu-
