The school year has finally come to a close,
Amid laughter and joys, tears and woes.
We've had victories and defeats,
smiles and grins,
But given the chance, we'd do it over again.
We survived the homework, lunches and tests;
In sports we proved that we were the best.
For some of us, it's on to more challenging things,
But for many it's still "Shut up when the bell rings!"
Whatever we do, however we strive,
We each have our memories of '75.

COUGARETTES ADD COLOR

Spot-lighted at numerous sports events throughout the year, the North Putnam Pom-Pon Corps consists of (kneeling) Tammy Lashley (Captain), Mary Webb, Tammy Green, Karla Adams, Janet Overpeck, Diane Hughes, Marsha McKeehan, Roxanne McBride; (standing) Chris Livesay, Vickie Greene, Kelly Huffines, Janet S. Cox, Lavonda Hanlon, Chris Alexander, Sheryl Williamson, Penny Allen.

As featured twirler with the High School Band, Suzanne McGaughey put extra "spark" into performances with her special routines.

Tammy Lashley spent many grueling hours as Pom-Pon Captain teaching difficult routines to the gals.

Drum Majorette Marsha McKeehan ignited band appearances with her leadership and high-step marching.

BANDSMEN ATTAIN RECOGNITION

Entertaining on local, state and national levels, the North Putnam High School Band had an exciting and fast-paced year. During the summer the group performed at the Bainbridge, Roachdale and Russellville festivals and marched in the Putnam County 4-H Fair Parade.

When school re-opened the band was faced with preparing half-time shows for five home football games. Each show was centered around themes which ranged from religious to popular music. At the DePauw Band Day, area bands spelled the name JOPLIN on the field and played several of this composer's songs.

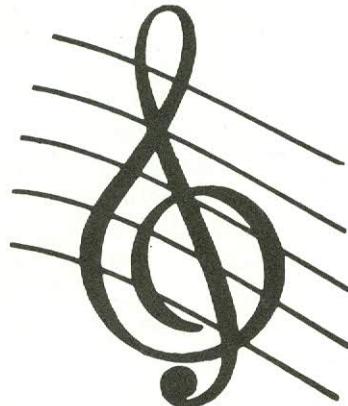

The band's next task was to brave the cold weather at the invitational Crawfordsville Christmas Parade. Winning one of the three traveling trophies for an unprecedented third year, North Putnam achieved yet another award. The Christmas Program, Afternoon Concert and Variety Show were special occasions for the band for it was "featured" entertainment in each.

Highlighting the year's successes was the band's trip to Florida to perform at Walt Disney World. After many fund-raising projects sponsored by the Band Parents, the group traveled by chartered bus to Orlando. Following their march down Main Street U.S.A., the band members spent the rest of the week exploring Disney World, Silver Springs and the Kennedy Space Center. A sun-soaked afternoon at Cocoa Beach completed this Florida adventure.

Upon returning, the band had two weeks to prepare for State Contest and their hard work paid off with a First Division in Group III. The year ended with the group playing the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" at Commencement.

The brassy voices of the Pep Band's horns provided toe-tapping harmony at basketball games and pep sessions throughout the year. Pep Band Personnel were: (Row 1) Julie Frazier, Dee Loft, Cindy Zenor, Cindy Harbison; (Row 2) Rick Farrow, Cheryl Williams, Lisa Porter, Mr. Wilson (Dir.); (Row 3) Steve Jones, Tom Hueston, Alan Gillogly, Cheryl Danberry, Mickey Stisher; (Row 4) Dean Williamson, Brenda Tippin, David Sandusky, Gregg Wilson, Joe Buser; (Row 5) Roger Hedge, David Boruff, Richard Robbins, Harold Greene; (Row 6) Kim Burdette, Rod Crawley, Dennis Fordice, Pam Baldwin, Bob Bock, Chuck Cope.

Swinging through this year's music contest, North Putnam's Stage Band won honors as a performing group. Row 1: Mickey Stisher, Rick Farrow, Lisa Porter, Pam Holland, Alan Gillogly. Row 2: David Sandusky, Gregg Wilson, Dean Williamson, Brenda Tippin, Raymond Curran, Rod Crawley, Chuck Cope, Roger Hedge, David Shonkwiler, David Boruff, Richard Robbins. # FFA, FHA COMBINE TALENTS

In an effort to broaden their knowledge and to serve others as well, the North Putnam Chapters of Future Farmers of America and Future Homemakers of America proved to be two of the school's most active organizations this year.

The FFA began its year of activities in the summer of 1974 by working on a 7 acre crop plot donated by the school to learn the skills of Production Agriculture. In July, 1974 Max and Mike Blackmore and Jesse Ader spent 3 days in Trafalgar, Ind. learning leadership skills and how to apply them.

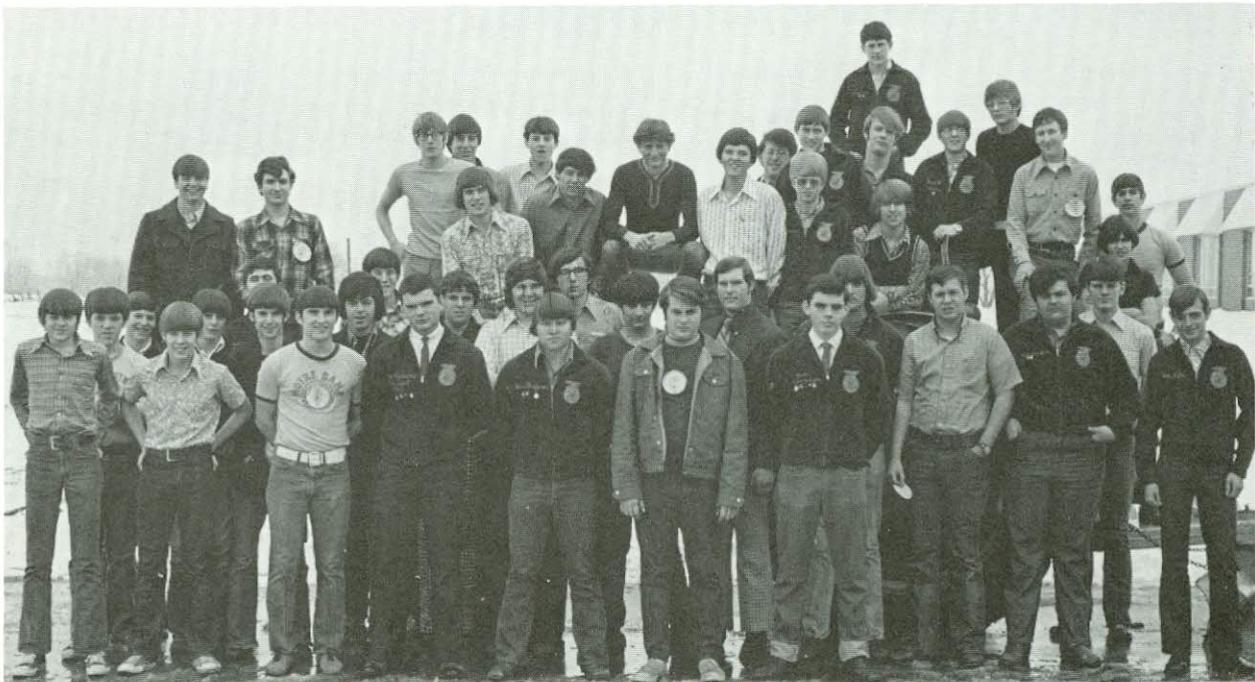

Auctioning themselves off at their October Slave Sale, the boys promoted FFA by doing community service projects. Then, to break away from their work schedule, the guys held their own hayride.

FFA's counterpart, the Future Homemakers of America, was also civic-minded during the year. The girls made a trip to the Greencastle Nursing Home where they cheered the patients with their singing and conversation and also sponsored a Children's Easter Party.

In April, the year's activities reached a climax when newly-elected officers and their sponsor attended the FHA State Convention where they learned more about incorporating the National FHA themes into their chapter's functions. As their final community service project, the FHA donated $100.00 to the March of Dimes.

Although the FFA and FHA worked independently most of the year, their jointly-sponsored Winter Wonderland Ball in January was an occasion for success-sharing and enjoyment. Committees were selected and their hard work was reflected in the shining decorations, highlighted by hundreds of snowflakes. While the couples glided to the sounds of Blue Shadow, excitement mounted as they awaited the crowning. At the climax of the evening, Ernie O'Hair and Vicki Greene crowned Terry Nichols and Donna Miller as royalty.

HOOMEOMING '74

Highlighted by Nifty Fifties Day the week before Homecoming churned with activity. Floats were built, court candidates chosen and halls brightly decorated.

Filled with spirited class rivalry, action climaxed at the bonfire where all grades joined in a tug-o'-war, trike race and skit contest. The court candidates were announced. Queen hopefuls were seniors Sandy Redifer, Rhonda Chaplain and Debbie Carey. Junior princess was Denise Gibson while the sophomores chose Cindy Spencer. Mary Webb represented the freshmen.

With the band the class floats and the court paraded before the fans on game night.

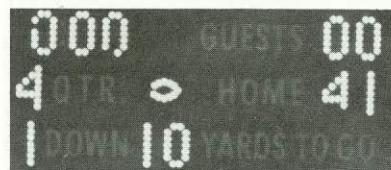

Gridders Steve Bullerdick and Rex Call slammed in the first TD in the second quarter. At halftime Sandy Redifer was crowned 1974 Homecoming Queen. The junior high float with its "Eagle Knievel" theme was named winner.

Action picked up quickly during the second half. A punt by Steve McGaughey led to a score by Mike Green with Ernie O'Hair booting in the extra point. The Cougars led 14-0 with 4½ minutes left in the quarter.

In the last period Call and Mike Bullerdick added another TD. Jerry Miller scored to give NP a 33-0 lead. Kelly Sanders and Lester Miles combined to leave the final slate 41-0.

A victory dance with music by "Quo" finalized the Homecoming Week festivities.

FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON

FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON is based on the poignant journal of a mentally retarded adult, Charlie Gordon. During the play, Charlie is transformed from a dull but amiable man with a yearning to be smart into a genius. By means of a delicate brain operation previously tried on the mouse, Algernon, scientists raise Charlie's IQ from 68 to 185. Tormented by memories of the rejection and cruelty suffered during his earlier life, Charlie is brilliant but miserable.

This is the compelling story of Charlie Gordon, the willing victim of a strange experiment—a moron, a genius, a man in search of himself. It will long be remembered by those whose hearts were touched by Charlie's frankness and zest for life.

ONCE THERE WAS A SPOT . . .

Camelot is a magical land of splendor, imagination and entertainment. In the enchanted world of King Arthur's court, two themes are interwoven—Arthur's dream of a peaceful world administered by the Knights of the Round Table and the ill-fated romance between the French knight Sir Lancelot and Queen Guenevere. Punctuated by a sparkling musical score, the fast pace and emotional appeal of CAMELOT captivated the cast and the audience alike.

COUGARS CAPTURE SECTIONAL, SUCCUMB AT REGIONAL

Having already disposed of South Putnam by 21 points and Cloverdale by 31, the Cougars vanquished Greencastle 74-60 to capture their first sectional championship since 1971. J. Brothers and M. Hess led the scoring (15), closely followed by R. Brothers, R. Call and M. Rossok. The ball club brought home Coach Sharp's first sectional trophy.

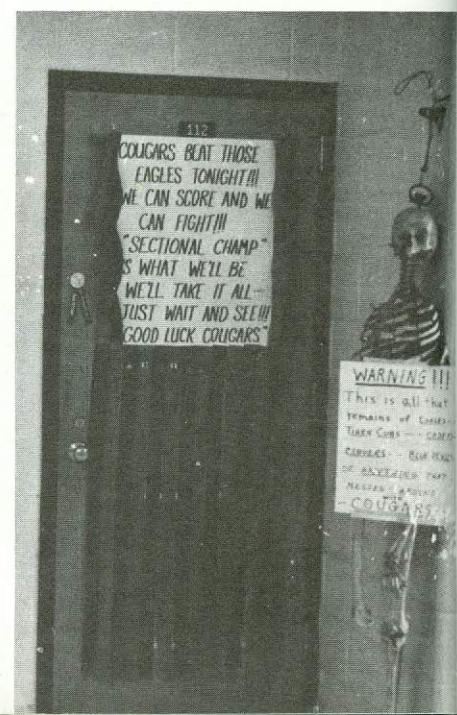

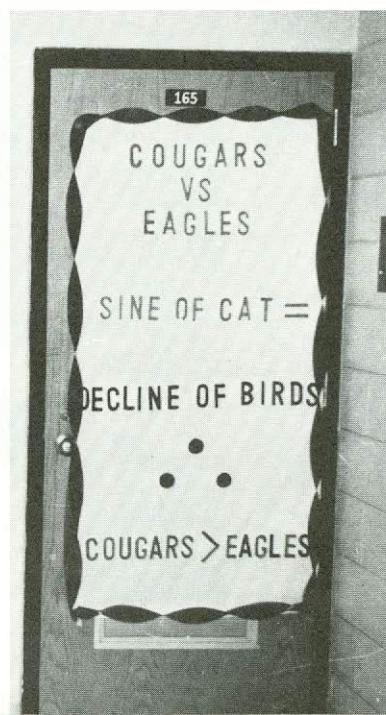

Defense problems against Lebanon caused the elimination of NP from the regional tournament, the Cougars falling to the Tigers 74-49.

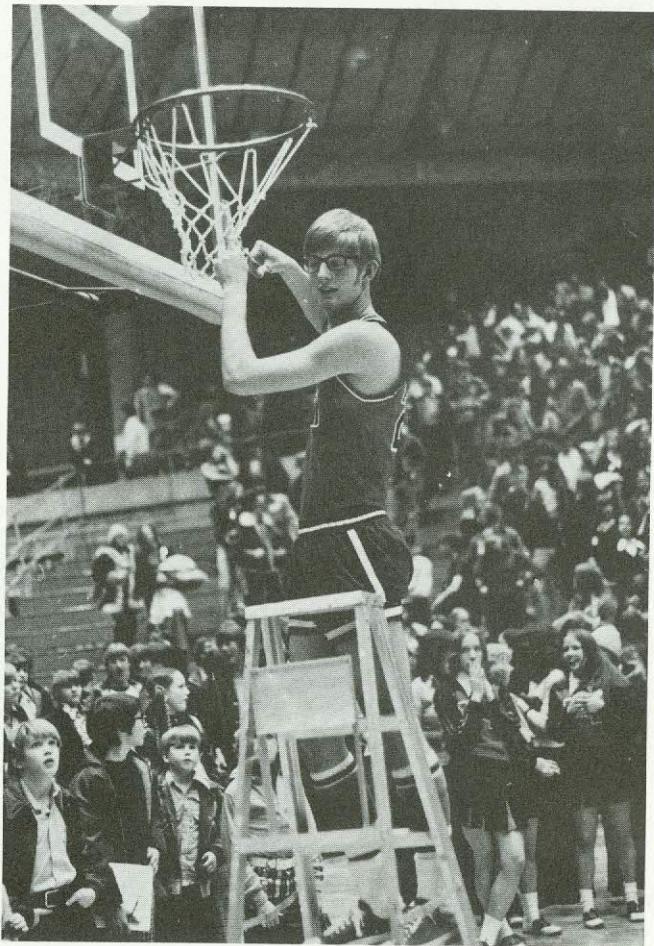

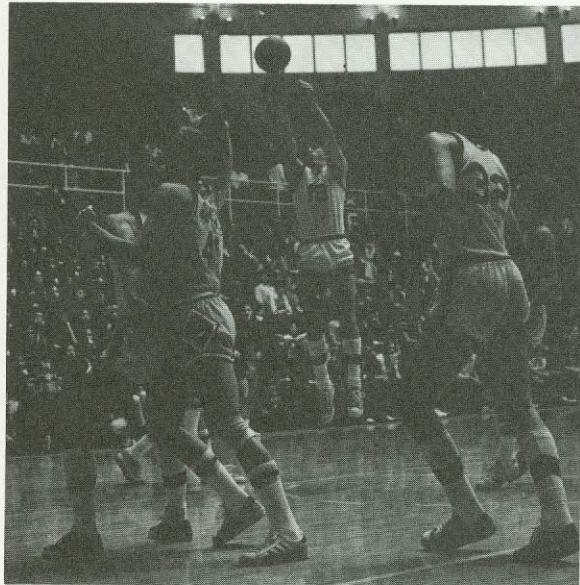

The sweet taste of victory!

Steve and Rex lead the team in to the post-game celebration.

"I'VE GOT PIECES OF APRIL"

As the end of April approached, the Juniors were making final preparations for the 1975 Prom, "Pieces of April." On the night of May 3, couples entered through a formal garden enhanced by authentic grass and shrubs. The cafeteria was highlighted by a fountain, wishing well, and park scene. Dancing to the music of "Good Day," an atmosphere of springtime hung in the air. Rex Call and Lisa Porter were crowned King and Queen with Tammy Lashley, Sandy Redifer, Brad Ades, and Dirk Wagner reigning as the Royal Court. The post prom was held at C'ville Lanes and breakfast was served in the school cafeteria.

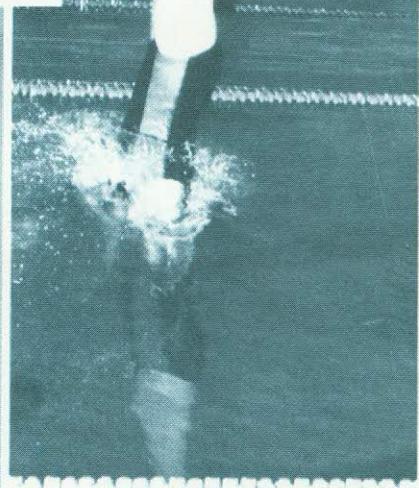

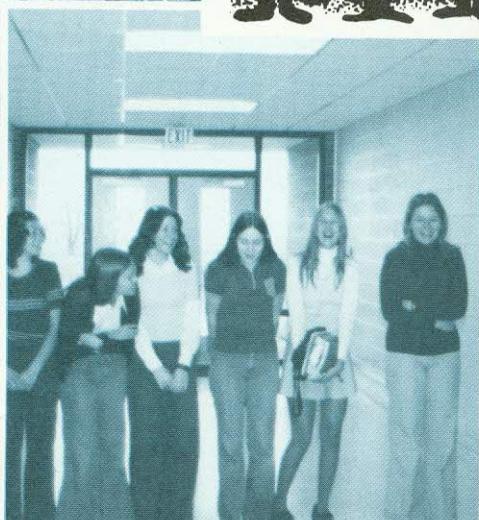

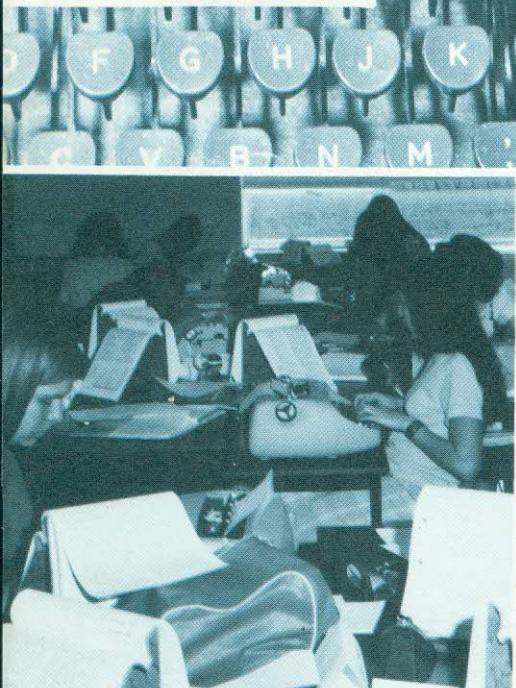

Reigning as King and Queen of North Putnam's sixth annual Prom were Rex Call and Lisa Porter.

CROSS COUNTRY TAKES LONG STRIDES WITH NEW COACH

With increased interest among participants and fans, and with the new leadership of Coach Jerry Olson, the Cross Country team did indeed take long strides as they posted N.P.'s finest record.

Both the Varsity and B-team won 3rd place honors in the Conference; the Varsity also placed 3rd in the County, while the B-team captured 1st in their County meet. The Varsity runners won seven meets with an over-all record of 28-31. The B-team won only one of three meets, but defeated 10 out of 14 opponents.

Cross Country fans can anticipate future years remembering the determination and confidence displayed during the 1974 season.

VARSITY B'BALL WINS AGAIN!

The 74-75 Cougars shared the honor of conference champions with Edgewood placing Mark Hess and Jim Brothers on the all-conference team. The Cougars started their long list of accomplishments by defeating Rockville 31 points, only to be beaten twice at the hands of Turkey Run and Lebanon. Coach Sharp's team entered the County Tourney with a 5-2 record. Included in the win column was a hard-fought, well-earned nipping of Crawfordsville, the first since the two teams have been competing.

North Putnam drew Cloverdale for the opening game of the County Tourney and handed the Clovers a 24 point loss. The championship games of both JV and Varsity were North vs South. South Putnam defeated North Put's JV, but the Varsity turned the tide clipping the Eagles 81-45, thus bringing home their first County Championship.

After a depressing defeat at Edgewood the Cougars vowed the three losses would not be raised. The Cougars proved their reliability, remaining undefeated right up to the sectional.

The Cougars exploded into action during the first game of the Sectional as they handily defeated South Putnam 71-50, on their climb to the top. The next stumbling block was Cloverdale, which fell down in defeat after a 79-48 beating. Finally the championship battle was at hand. The Tiger Cubs and the Cougars fought it out until the weary Cubs fell 74-60.

After bringing home their third Sectional Trophy in six years, North Putnam traveled to the Frankfort Regional hoping to ambush the charging Tigers from Lebanon, but fell 74-49. The Tigers went on to win the Regional and the Lafayette Semi-State.

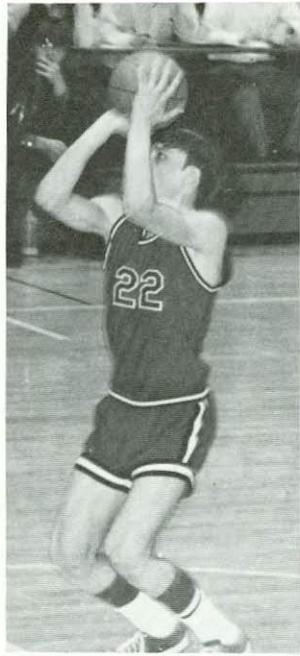

The Cougars gave the school a new record of 20 wins and 4 losses, plus a happy community of proud fans.

GOLF CONQUERS CONFERENCE

This year's golf team set three goals for themselves: to win the county meet, win the conference meet and go to the regional. They attained all of these goals, while establishing a golfing reputation not to be scoffed at.

North Putnam's golf team dominated the county meet placing Steve Bullerdick at the top with medalist honors, and Sonny Roe and Mike Bullerdick tied for second. The conference meet went the same way with Mike Greene taking medalist and Sonny Roe tying up second. This made the golfers the first North Putnam team to solely claim a conference championship.

The golfers continued to win, dropping only 7 meets all year. One of these losses was a 3 stroke difference with the Southmont Mounties, but the Cougars came back to avenge the loss later in the season with a 6 point victory. Our linksters were also given the slip by a highly regarded Brazil team. The Cougars played their best game of the season against the Red Devils, but still came up 5 strokes short.

When June 2 arrived the team went to Lebanon for the sectional. They did their best and ended up second over all. The '75 Golf Team was the first in the school's history to advance to regional play. The linksters also set the best school record at 23-7.

CHEERLEADERS IGNITE ENTHUSIASM IN SPORTS FANS

Although Junior Denise Gibson was elected by the student body to be a Varsity Cheerleader, due to a serious leg injury she was unable to perform floor routines and mounts. Nevertheless, Denise continued to show her enthusiasm for the success of the teams as Alternate Tammy Lashley took over the vacant spot on the floor. The '74-'75 Varsity Cheerleaders were Robin O'Hair, Tammy Lashley, Sandy Redifer, Suzanne McGaughey (Capt.), Penny Allen, and Denise Gibson. (Of course, Charley Cougar was always on hand to express his opinions!)

Besides making a great many posters throughout the year and teaching new cheers to the Pep Club, the Varsity Cheerleaders spent countless hours practicing in order to incorporate various mounts into their yells.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

OUR HAND TO YOURS

After being in the hospital for several weeks, Mrs. Goff returned after spring vacation.

Kenneth Miller
Principal

Norman Evens
Vice Principal

Along with fulfilling her duties as school treasurer, Mrs. Priest helped out by typing permanent record cards.

Mrs. Winters stepped in during Mrs. Goff's absence and kept the office running in its usual efficient manner.

Mrs. Martin tests the speech and hearing of students of all the corporation schools and provides therapy for those who can benefit from it.

Juggling the schedules of more than 500 students keeps Mrs. Greeson and Mr. Evens more than occupied.

As well as being the nurse at North Putnam, Mrs. Bridges also nurses at the three elementary schools.

The student body relies on Mrs. Goad for clean swimsuits and towels, as well as for change from their lunch money.

North Putnam's faculty members were faced with some rather unusual circumstances throughout the year, ranging from hidden gradebooks, to falling desks, to the great Carrot Scandal! Even with all of these catastrophes, the "terific teachers" managed to get something constructive done, although the kids didn't always realize that they were learning.

It seems the Math Department has problems with addition, even when using calculators! The magical mathematicians were Mr. William Hawley, Mr. Francis McClure, Mrs. Anne McKeehan, Mrs. Shirley Steward, and Mr. Jim Myers.

INSTRUCTORS ENCOURAGE INTELLECT, INDEPENDENCE

By teaching shorthand, typing, and accounting, the Business Department prepared students for future jobs as well as providing talents useful to a college student. Instructors are Mrs. Kay Greeson, Miss Mary Smith, Mr. David Felty and Mrs. Betty Job.

As North Putnam's librarian, Mrs. Millicent Hammerling keeps students informed of library facilities and their proper usage.

Miss Nina Terrell expresses her horror at realizing that Mrs. Jackie McGaughy has just sewn her skirt together—at the bottom!

Mr. Don Steward and Mr. Larry Cox put the bite on a piece of cedar.

Mr. Sam Stepp over hauls his Indy machine.

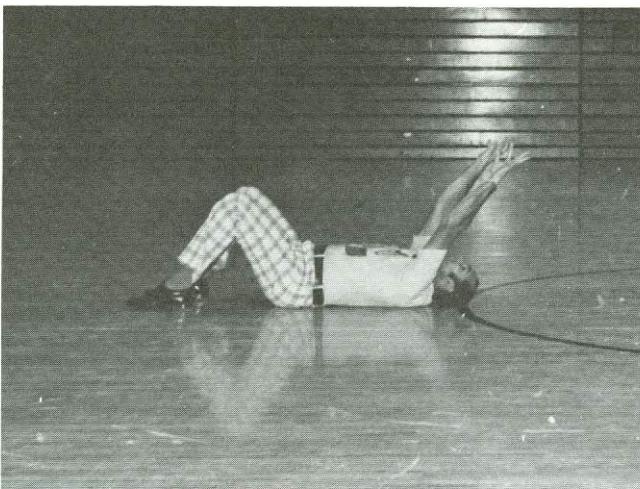

While Mr. John Wilson directs Mr. Dave Gjesvold (on sousaphone), and Mrs. Maggie Emmert (on piano), Mrs. Linda Gjesvold sizes him up for MAD magazine.

Mr. Bays demonstrated his patented shot at sectional and regional pep sessions, and he even made one!

PE teachers Miss Mary Lizabeth Hoey, Mr. Lanny Knox, Miss Lynn Hippenstein, Mr. Jim Sharp, Mr. Jerry Geswein, and Mr. Ron Price showed their coordination (?) while posing for the photographer.

The way to a man's heart is through his stomach, right Mrs. Hartman? Miss Paula Hannum and Mr. John Hartman were wed over the Christmas holidays.

Grammarians need to practice what they preach. (L to R) Mrs. Lethia Myers, Mrs. Debbie Winger, Mr. Jerry Geswein, Mr. Jerry Olson, Mrs. Elaine Chase, Mrs. Anne Elmore, Mr. Lloyd Blubaum, and Mrs. Paula Hartman.

North Putnam's historians were (L to R) Mr. John Seger, Mr. Bill Bays, Mr. Lanny Knox, Miss Lynn Hippenstein, Mr. Ron Price and Mr. Chuck Martellaro.

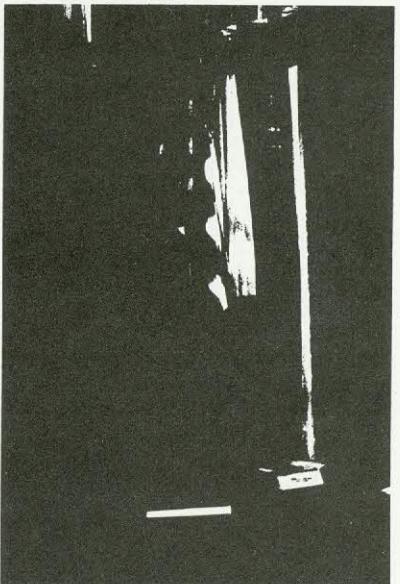

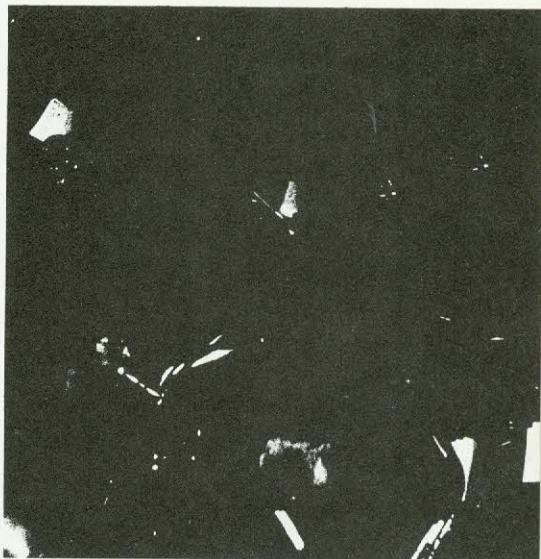

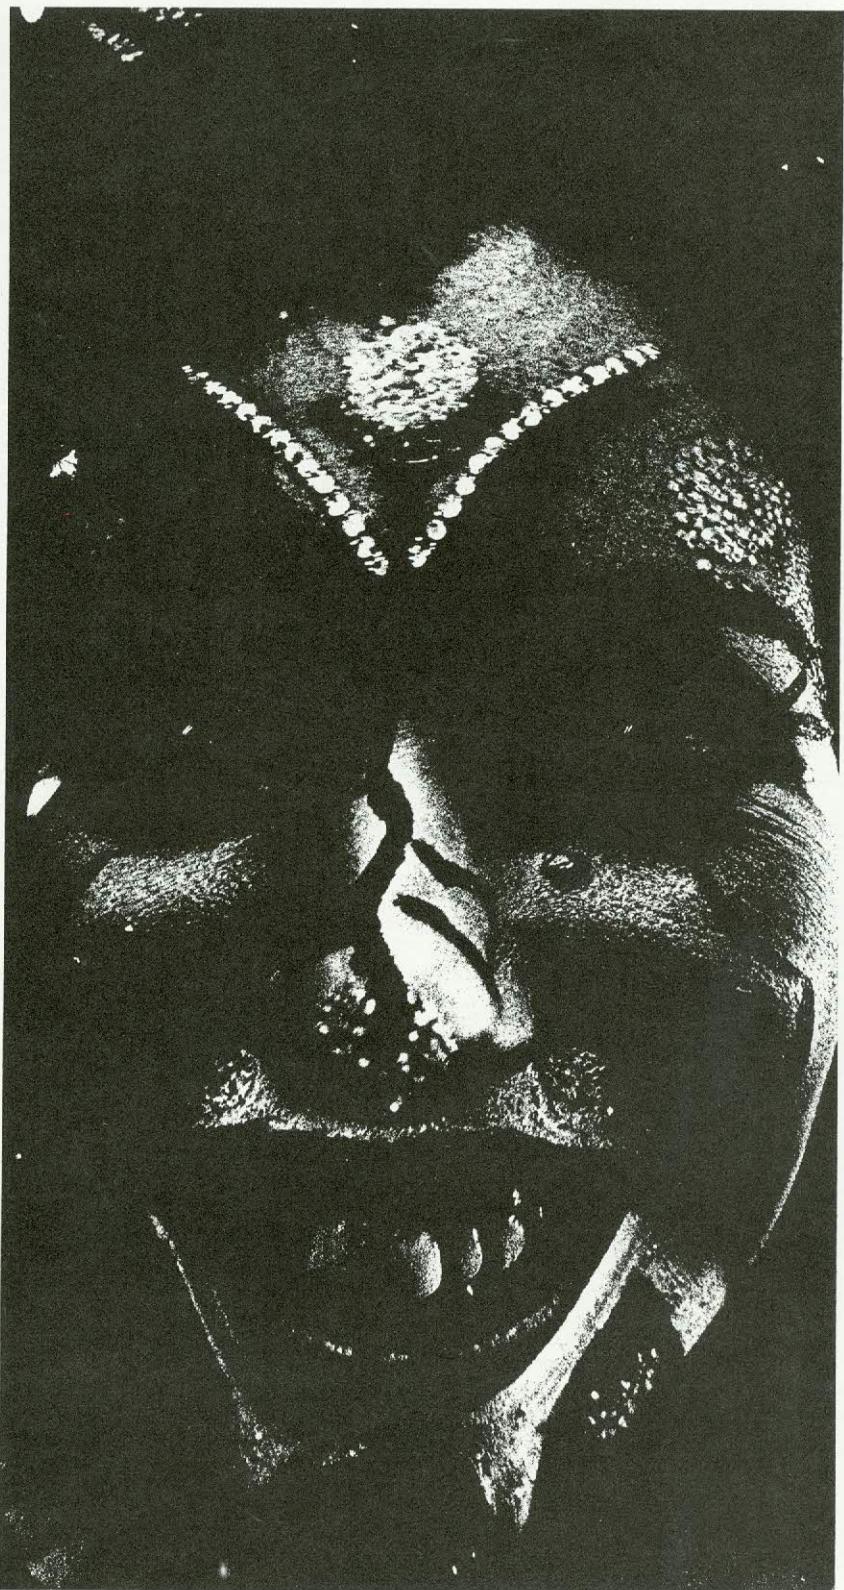

Wedding bells rang over Thanksgiving vacation for Mr. Dave Gjesvold and Miss Linda Daseler.

Chemists, biologists, and physicists at NP were Mr. Don DeBoer, Mrs. Linda Patrick, Mr. Jim Sharp, Mr. Jim Risk, and Mr. William Hawley.

"LIVE LIFE FOR ALL IT HAS TO GIVE"

Awards Day on May 16, 1975 ended the 12-year struggle for the graduating seniors. They were honored for various athletic and academic accomplishments.

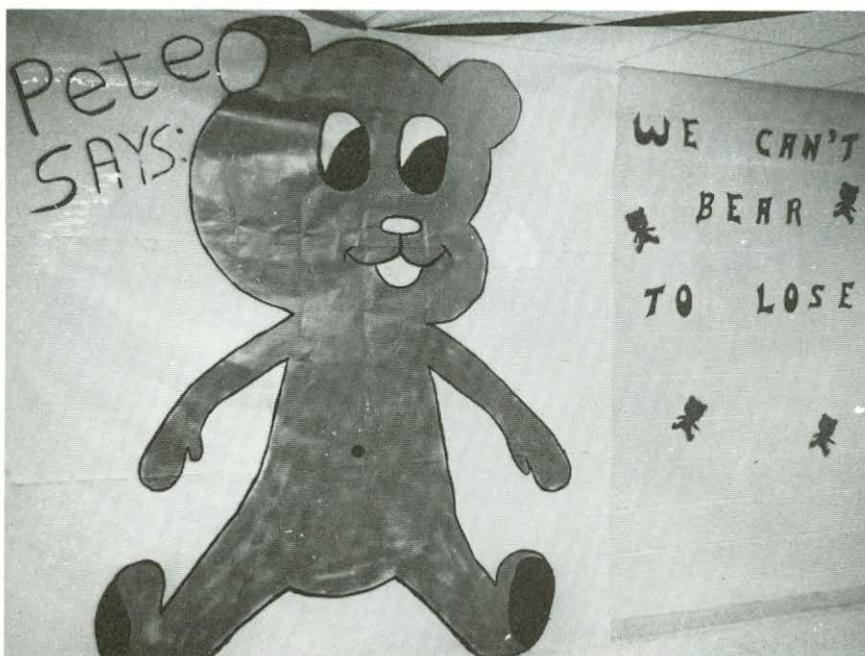

Graduation two days later made them realize that they must face the challenges of the world ahead. The Rev. Leo Schmidt spoke at the combined Baccalaureate and Commencement ceremony concerning the class motto, "Live Life For All It Has To Give."

The Class was the first to start as 7th graders in the newly-consolidated North Putnam Jr.-Sr. High School. It was also the largest graduating class in the history of the school, having 131 members. Six years together helped unify the school by strengthening Cougar spirit and erasing former school loyalties.

As an unknown author once said, "The place where two friends first meet is sacred to them all through their friendship, all the more sacred as their friend-

So is the feeling of the departing Seniors of 1975.

For Sectional poster competition, the Seniors came up with a giant teddy bear named "Pete."

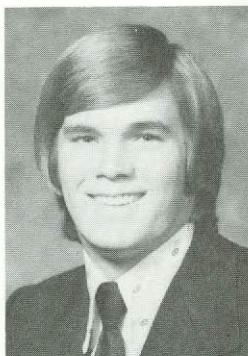

The class officers for the year were (L to R) Tammy Lashley (Sec.), Max Blackmore (Treas.), Mrs. Steward (Spon.), Rhonda Chaplain (Pres.), and Joe Buser (V. Pres.). They collaborated on many decisions for the class this year.

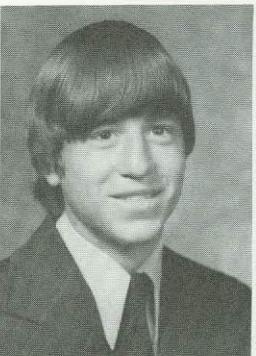

Rhonda Chaplain, Lester Miles, and Trent Hopkins discuss graduation announcements during a class meeting.

WHAT WE MAKE OURSELVES.

Many arrangements had to be made during the year for graduation, and measuring for caps and gowns was only one of them.

Class Motto: LIVE LIFE FOR ALL IT HAS TO GIVE.

Class Colors: Blue and Orange

Class Flower: Light Blue Carnation

Thoughtful faces reflect the inspirational message of the speaker.

COMMENCEMENT

In her Valedictory address, Suzanne McGaughey (Rt.) refers to our futures in the job market, and to the varied experiences we will encounter, whatever paths our lives may follow.

Recalling the laughter and sorrow, the work and pranks of maturing students, Salutatorian Cheryl Danberry (Bottom Rt.) reminisces about our years at North Putnam.

Cindy Zenor (who ranked 4th in the class and offered the Benediction), Suzanne McGaughey, Cheryl Danberry, and Rhonda Chaplain (Class President) listen to 3rd ranked Gregg Wilson as he delivers the Invocation at our graduation ceremony.

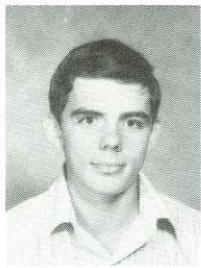

The Rev. Leo Schmidt, of the Roachdale Presbyterian Church, conveys his thoughts about the significance of our class motto and how its meaning can be applied to our lives.
