OCTOBER EVENTS

Not all dates are confirmed, but this is what is in the works for next month!

If there is something you would like to teach or learn, let us know!

Adulting 101 - September's participants will decide what to do next - stay tuned and be ready to sign up!

The Basics - the September class will decide this topic, but we're sure youll want to save the third Monday of the month for this!

Our Alzheimer's series will continue - watch our social media and the local newspaper!

Watch for our local author event! Multiple authors, endless stories, and a celebration of local talent.

REMEMBER HALLOWEEN AT THE LIBRARY!
Spooky and fun!

LOOKING BACK THROUGH THE YEARS…
1901

A request for a second charter was sent to the Sate University by the Library Board. The 1901 the second charter reflected the name change to The Mary E. Seymour Memorial Free Library to honor Mr. Seymour's daughter Mary E. who passed away in 1894.
