A Note from the Principal

Dear Lake City Elementary Families,

We had a wonderful—though short—week here at Lake City Elementary! Our students continued to demonstrate Trojan Pride in all that they did, showing responsibility, kindness, and a commitment to learning throughout the building.

A special highlight this week was our fourth-grade students' visit to the Carl T. Johnson Hunting and Fishing Center, where they engaged in hands-on outdoor learning and exploration. We are proud of the way they represented Lake City with curiosity, respect, and leadership.

Just a reminder, there will be no school on Friday. We hope this extended weekend provides your family with time to rest, recharge, and enjoy the fall season.

Thank you for your continued partnership and support. We look forward to seeing everyone back on Monday, ready for another great week of learning and growing together!

Trojan Pride,

Principal Hamilton

P.E. News

Week 1 of No Sugary Drinks November is in the books! I hope you and your family are enjoying the challenge. This week at school we talked about nutrition labels and how they can help us see what's in our drink. Coming home this week is a 2-sided handout with information about recommendations for healthy beverage consumption and how to sip smarter. I hope you and your family find the information helpful. Get ready for week 2!
