

INDIANA
DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION

20
26

Internet Safety Series

The Indiana Department of Education has curated resources and live sessions led by industry experts to assist students, educators, and families to build the following internet safety skills:

- Think critically about online information.
- Act ethically and respond to harmful online behavior.
- Recognize digital deception.
- Protect their digital identities.
- Understand the economics of online engagement.

Explore the resources and view workshop recordings here:

Keeping Kids Safe Online - Workshops for Educators and Parents

Cyberbullying & Digital Media Use: What Educators Need to Know

Empowering Families to Help Children Navigate Digital Technology and Social Media

Digital Behavior, Oversharing, & Responsible Tech Use

Digital Ethics & Responsible Online Behavior

Managing Cyberbullying & Other Problematic Online Behavior

Understanding the Economics of Online Engagement

AI, Deepfakes & Digital Deception Awareness

Spotting Digital Deception

Protecting Your Digital Self

Safe Communication in Gaming & Online Platforms

Thinking Critically in a Digital World

Navigating Online Harms: Knowledge is Power

digitalllearning@doe.in.gov

