Through the years, we have grown to appreciate your efforts, your kindness, and your understanding of our problems. Since your arrival at West Point eleven years ago, we have made noticeable strides in the very thing "West Point" means and stands for. We, of the Senior Class, would like to feel that the class of '59 is one of the finest classes ever to graduate here at West Point. We also would like to think of you as a part of us and a guiding light when things are not too bright. Yes, indeed, you deserve all credit and praise for a job well done. As you and the Senior Class depart at the same time, we can only wish you success, and Gods Speed.

The Annual Staff and Senior Class take great pride in dedicating to you, Mrs. Earl York, our version of the 1958-59 WARRIOR.

faculty

The West Point Yearbook has definitely become a part of the school life of the many boys and girls who are enrolled in our high school. The general public of this area also look forward with much anticipation to the annual publication of this Yearbook for which we have developed so much pride. We are indeed grateful to the many businessmen of Cullman and our own local community who helped to make this annual publication possible. If it were not for their generous help, it would be most difficult for the Yearbook to be published. We are also indebted to Mrs. Filyaw and her Annual Staff for the long hours of work and for their demonstration of co-operative teamwork in organizing the material for the Annual.

Hear us pledge our loyalty

To thy name our hearts atune,

In our memory we will keep thy truths forever,

Faithful to the white and maroon;

West Point High, thy spirit ever guide us,

To great heights along life's trail,

For our school, comrades, joyful praises sing,

To old West Point, All hail!

We of the Annual Staff for the year 1958-1959 wish to express our appreciation and thanks to the faculty and students for their co-operation and efforts toward this years annual.

We sincerely hope you will enjoy the annual as much as the Annual Staff has enjoyed presenting it to you.
