The City of Ashland, with a population of approximately 21,000, is the home of Southern Oregon University. Education and tourism, along with recreation, technology, and light manufacturing make up the community's economic base. Ashland's Oregon Shakespeare Festival attracts over 200,000 viewers each season.

ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL PROFILE

Ashland High School (AHS), accredited by the Northwest Accreditation Commission/Cognia, is a comprehensive, four-year public high school of approximately 858 students with 62 teaching faculty. Approximately 30 percent of students qualify for free or reduced lunch. AHS is a member of the 5A-2 Midwestern League with 18 OSAA teams and 7 club sports. Clubs are a vibrant part of AHS with approximately 32 different clubs available for students. Our theater and music programs are enhanced by collaborations with a national repertory theater, university music and drama faculty, and a regional Youth Symphony. College credit courses are taught by AHS faculty in partnership with Southern Oregon University and Rogue Community College. Each AHS course has a value of one credit, with 49 credits required to graduate. AHS follows a semester academic calendar with a block schedule that has four 80-minute classes that meet on alternate days

CLASS RANK – Ashland High School does not report class rank or percentile. All letter grades included in GPA are unweighted. As a courtesy, weighted GPA is included on transcripts. Only AP classes are weighted.

COLLEGE PLACEMENT – AHS graduates attend colleges across the U.S. and abroad. Over the last five years, students have been accepted to the following schools: Barnard, Bowdoin, Brandeis, Bryn Mawr, Carleton, Carnegie Mellon, Claremont McKenna, Colorado College, Columbia University, Cornell, Fordham, Georgetown, Gonzaga, Grinnell, Harvard, Lewis & Clark, Macalester, MIT, Northeastern, Northwestern, Oberlin, Occidental, Pitzer, Reed, Rice, Santa Clara, Scripps, Smith, Stanford, Swarthmore, Tufts, UC Berkeley, UCLA, University of Chicago, USC, Vassar, Wellesley, Whitman, Willamette, Williams, and Yale.
