Falling Into Gratitude at MCESA

Rhonda Bigham ~Nominated by Nancee DeBolt
Rhonda consistently goes above and beyond for the students at Northeast. She is attentive to both verbal and non-verbal needs and responds with patience, compassion, and care—even when she isn't scheduled to work directly with a particular student. Rhonda is dependable, punctual, and always willing to step in wherever she is needed. Her dedication to students and support of her colleagues truly represents what it means to be Better Together. We are fortunate to have her on our team!

Nichole "Nikki" Roberson ~Nominated anonymously
Nikki brings a positive attitude and a big heart to work every day. She is helpful, open-minded, and willing to embrace change—even when it may feel uncomfortable. She arrives early, looks for ways to help, and continually works to improve her already exemplary skills. Thank you, Nikki, for consistently going above and beyond. We appreciate you!

Kristen Parker ~Nominated by Sarah Zimmerman
A big shout-out to Kristen for recognizing when the Meridian ECSE program needed some extra hands and jumping in to help for most of the morning. Kristen helped keep students safe while also taking the opportunity to build relationships with them. Thank you for noticing a need and stepping in to support your team!

Stephen Fort ~Nominated anonymously
Stephen did a great job emceeing our Opening Day activities! His sense of humor and positive energy add something special to MCESA events. Thank you, Stephen, for bringing the fun and helping make our time together enjoyable!

Caroline Davis ~Nominated by Jennie Coston
Caroline pours her heart into getting to know her students, and that care is reflected in the IEPs she writes. Her dedication to creating individualized IEPs that truly address each student's unique needs is appreciated. Thank you, Caroline, for keeping students at the heart of your work!

Cathy Agle Lead Toddler Room Teacher ~Nominated by Kim Clark
When a United Way volunteer reader needed a place to visit at the last minute, Cathy welcomed them into her classroom without hesitation. Her flexibility and willingness to accommodate the volunteer helped create a positive experience for everyone involved. Thank you, Cathy, for being so welcoming!

Tracy Brindley ~Nominated anonymously
Tracy is always on the move—ordering supplies, delivering requested items, shuffling vans, and finding ways to support our classroom teams. She supports so many people across MCESA, and her responsiveness and willingness to help make all of us better. Thank you, Tracy, for everything you do behind the scenes to keep things moving!
