Autumn Acts of Kindness

Mani Kumar ~Nominated anonymously

Mani is a devoted team member who is always willing to lend a hand. Her patience and dedication shine through in the little things she does every day—waiting for a late bus, stepping in to support a different student, or participating in whole-group activities. Thank you, Mani, for being dependable, flexible, and always willing to help. Your efforts are noticed and appreciated!

Jacqueline Chamberlain ~Nominated anonymously

Jacqueline has embraced her transition to a new classroom this school year with excitement, positivity, and a willingness to learn. Her open-minded approach to change and genuine team-player attitude make a difference. Thank you, Jacqueline, for approaching new challenges with enthusiasm and showing what it means to grow together!

Kelly Brandle ~Nominated anonymously

A huge thank-you to Kelly for the hard work and dedication she brings to her role as a supervisor!
Kelly consistently supports teachers, paraprofessionals, students, and families while helping keep things running smoothly. Her care for staff and students does not go unnoticed. Thank you, Kelly, for showing up for your team every day. We appreciate you!

Georgie's Classroom Team at Longview ~Nominated anonymously

Georgie's classroom is a wonderful example of teamwork in action! The staff work together to support each child's individual needs with patience, care, and understanding. They are always willing to lend a hand to other classrooms, whether helping students off the bus or supporting families during arrival. A special shout-out to Georgie for her dedication to meeting students where they are and helping each child experience success. Her ability to connect with students has even earned her the title of "teacher whisperer!" Thank you to the entire team for making a difference!

Tyler Horton ~Nominated anonymously

Tyler brings hard work, compassion, and determination to the students he supports. No matter the challenges that come his way, he approaches each day with a positive attitude and a commitment to making it a great day for students. His dedication and genuine care shine through in everything he does. Thank you, Tyler, for always putting students first!

Lexi Umlor ~Nominated anonymously

Rain or shine, Lexi brings positivity and enthusiasm to Nature Preschool! When the weather turned rainy, Lexi embraced the opportunity to hold circle time outside. The students loved the experience and were fully engaged in learning. Her creativity, flexibility, and willingness to make the most of every situation make her a bright spot for students and staff—even on the rainiest days!

Holly Booth ~Nominated anonymously

Holly is a problem solver who is always looking for ways to support others. This month, she has been working hard alongside teachers at MCESA and Midland Public Schools to help make classroom days run more smoothly. Thank you, Holly, for your collaboration, dedication, and willingness to find solutions that support students and staff!

Pamela Melchi ~Nominated by Jennie Coston

Pamela, thank you for sharing your expertise with Steadfast and taking the time to help train a teacher who is new to the program. Your willingness to share your knowledge and support a colleague is a wonderful example of working Better Together. Your help is greatly appreciated!

Marianne Durocher ~Nominated anonymously

Marianne brought a wonderful new opportunity to Sugnet School by organizing a Scholastic Book Fair during the trick-or-treat event! From coming up with the idea to making it happen, Marianne helped create a special experience that allowed students to explore and participate in a book fair. Thank you, Marianne, for your creativity, initiative, and dedication to providing meaningful experiences for students. Way to go!
