The Day County Conservation District is once again awarding scholarships to high school seniors who reside in Day County. $200 will be awarded to a total of five qualifying applicants. Students must demonstrate an interest in conservation and submit the following:

- Essay of 500 words or less on the topic: "Name a NATURAL RESOURCE CONCERN for Day County and practices you've witnessed, participated in, or proposals you may have to help remedy that NATURAL RESOURCE CONCERN."
 - What is a NATURAL RESOURCE? Soil, water, air, plants, animals, humans, energy are all natural resources
 - What is a NATURAL RESOURCE CONCERN? Any threat that may impact the quality or quantity of these identified Natural Resources
- Completed application (see attached).
- DIGITAL (high resolution) photo of student emailed to address below. No hard copies, please.

Applications are due by 3:00pm on March 6, 2026. Please email completed application along with scanned photo to Josh Wagner at daycd@sdconservation.net. If unable to submit via email, please contact the office at 345-4667 to arrange a time to drop off.

Thank you for your interest in this scholarship and GOOD LUCK!

Sincerely,

Josh Wagner, District Manager
