LOCATION AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITY

The Bald Eagle Area School District is located in the northern portion of Centre County, extending north to the western branch of the Susquehanna River. Formed in 1952, the district is the largest, geographically, of the four school districts located entirely in Centre County. The District is comprised of the boroughs of Howard, Milesburg, Port Matilda, Snow Shoe, and Unionville, and the townships of Boggs, Burnside, Howard, Huston, Snow Shoe, Union, and Worth, and encompasses 342.6 square miles of majestic hills, rolling farmlands, and surrounds 80,000 acres of state forest. The district serves a population of 16,156 residents, who occupy approximately 5,768 housing units.

SCHOOL STRUCTURE AND ENROLLMENT

The Bald Eagle Area School District operates the Bald Eagle Area Middle/High School, a combined secondary school serving students in grades 6 through 12. The school offers a comprehensive academic curriculum along with vocational and technical training through a partnership with the Central Pennsylvania Institute of Science and Technology in Pleasant Gap. The school has a total enrollment of 828 students across grades 6-12.

* A+ denotes outstanding achievement. The GPA is calculated according to the scale and is not weighted. GPA is based on all subjects except Phys. Ed., Band, Chorus, and Driver's Education.

Beginning with courses taken during the 2008-09 school year, "Honors" or "Advanced Placement" courses will be weighted, with only final grades receiving a weighting factor. Weighted Grades will be converted to a five-point scale and will be utilized for class rank purposes only. Only grades of a C or better will be given a weighting factor. Official transcripts will continue to report GPA according to a four-point scale.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Bald Eagle Area School District is to provide all students with academically challenging educational experiences and opportunities to grow into responsible lifelong learners and productive contributors to our global society.
