Homecoming '72

The 1971 Homecoming was a week of festive preparations for Friday's homecoming game with Petoskey. All week long the floats were worked on, candidates for the 1971 Homecoming queen were busy getting their formals ready, and the team was hard at work for the most important part of Homecoming, the game.

Floats, Pom Pom girls, and queens paraded radiantly down the main street of Rudyard as the band provided music for the parade.

New thinking was introduced into the Homecoming theme this year . . . and everyone finally got into the act.

Sweetheart 72

The 1972 Sweetheart game was exciting, as was the dance that followed it. There were five beautiful queen candidates who sat regally through the game until halftime, when the queen "Helen Royer" was announced.

The dance following had a good turn out and everyone seemed to have had a great time at the Sweetheart 1972.

Oftentimes, students can be observed standing against their lockers, studying in the library, or gazing at one another. "Sometimes I sits and thinks and sometimes I just sits. . ." The slogan on a popular poster is appropriately descriptive of our student body. Whether working academically or extra-curricularly, the display of hope for a bright future for themselves, their school, and their nation is apparent.

High school students are invariably aware of their fast approaching responsibility of adulthood. An inherent part of this is their decision for future employment. Sometimes this turns out to be a bothersome and troublesome venture. The educational institutions of our society are aware of this truth and strive to eliminate it by usage of a counseling area. Here is where the facts and figures together with the personnel who lend helping hands, put it all together in order to help the student and his teacher. Catalogues, pamphlets, applications, pictures—all add to the resources of this area. Combined with a friendly atmosphere, the counseling area is a meeting place for many who just want to relax or talk without interruption.

For Self-Improvement

Students returning to Rudyard this year from previous school years observed a new addition to our library. A blue carpet had been laid to cover the entire floor area. Bookshelves had also been added to compensate for the increasing selection of reading material that our library offers. A popular place for studious pupils, the library also offers a quiet place to unwind—be it after, before, or during school hours. Sensitive to the needs of the students and faculty, the library enables either group to use the recent periodicals that might otherwise go unread. Miss Busaid, Mrs. Irwin, and Mrs. Bradovich are available to aid in the process of learning. Libraries are purposely designed for the enrichment of their users. The Rudyard Area Schools Library becomes increasingly effective in this area each year.

Mr. Page, who is our speech therapist is as much a part of the library scene as those we have mentioned previously. Mr. Page received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University. He majored in Audiology and Speech Science and minored in Psychology. He obtained his Masters degree from M.S.U. in Audiology and Speech.

His majors in political science and history make him a natural for his teaching position at RHS. Seniors know him from U.S. Government. Other students may have him for Far Eastern Affairs or World History. Presently Mr. McCaffrey is working for his masters degree. In his leisure you might find him with a good book, on one of several ski slopes, or in warmer weather—camping.

He also enjoys skiing and in warmer weather—camping. A graduate from Western Michigan University, Mr. McCaffrey teaches World History, Far Eastern Affairs, and U.S. Government. His classes learn through in class work, as well as individual research. Oral reports comprise a portion of the learning activities of this class and help students in more ways than one.

Mr. Zyskowski, affectionately called "Mr. Z.," is a graduate of Northern Michigan University. Mr. Z. holds a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Chemistry and a minor in Mathematics. He received his Masters Degree from N.M.U. in Chemistry Education.

The Science Department at Rudyard High has "come a long way" in improving its course offering this past year. The addition of two new classes proves that the department believes in progress. A Lab Science Credit Course and a Summer Ecology Program added much to the scope of science at Rudyard. The Lab Science Credit Course was for students who were independent, with students creating their own program. The Summer Ecology Program teaches students to be aware of their environment and to aid in its preservation. These new programs, coupled with the traditional ones, Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry, Advanced Biology and Advanced Chemistry have made the total science program well-rounded indeed.

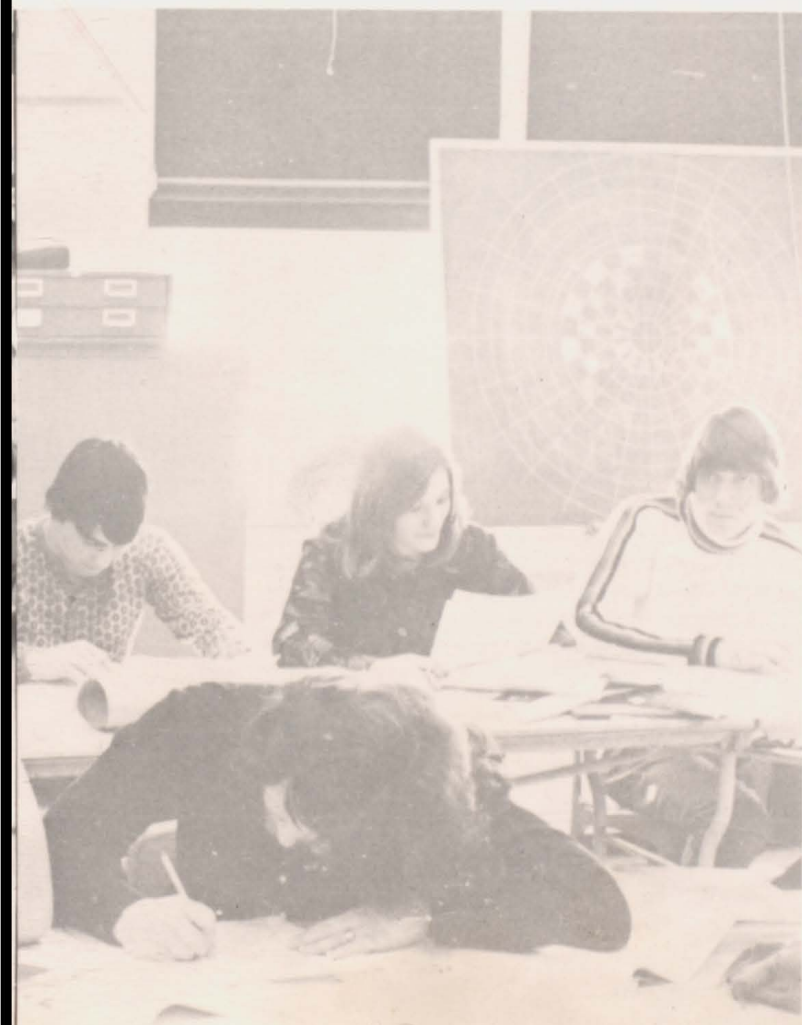

A graduate of Northern Michigan University, Mr. Barry is one of our Biology teachers. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Biology and a minor in Conservation. He earned his Masters degree from N.M.U. in Zoology.

Mr. Downey is a graduate of Northland College. He obtained his Bachelor of Science degree from that institution with a major in Mathematics and a minor in Physics. He received his Masters degree from Wisconsin State University in Physics.

A faculty member at RHS, Mr. Grangskog teaches Livestock Production, Forestry, Soils & Conservation, and Agriculture & Business Management.

Coordinated with Mr. Grangskog's classes is the Future Farmers of America Association. The activities they participate in are "intra-curricular" and provide various honors to the winners as well as their school. Particularly fortunate this year, Rudyard High had several first place winners.

There are some new additions to the music program this year. One of the two High School choruses is selective and the students must audition to gain entrance. They represent R.H.S. at assemblies and contests. Another new addition is a class on theory (musical notation and composition).

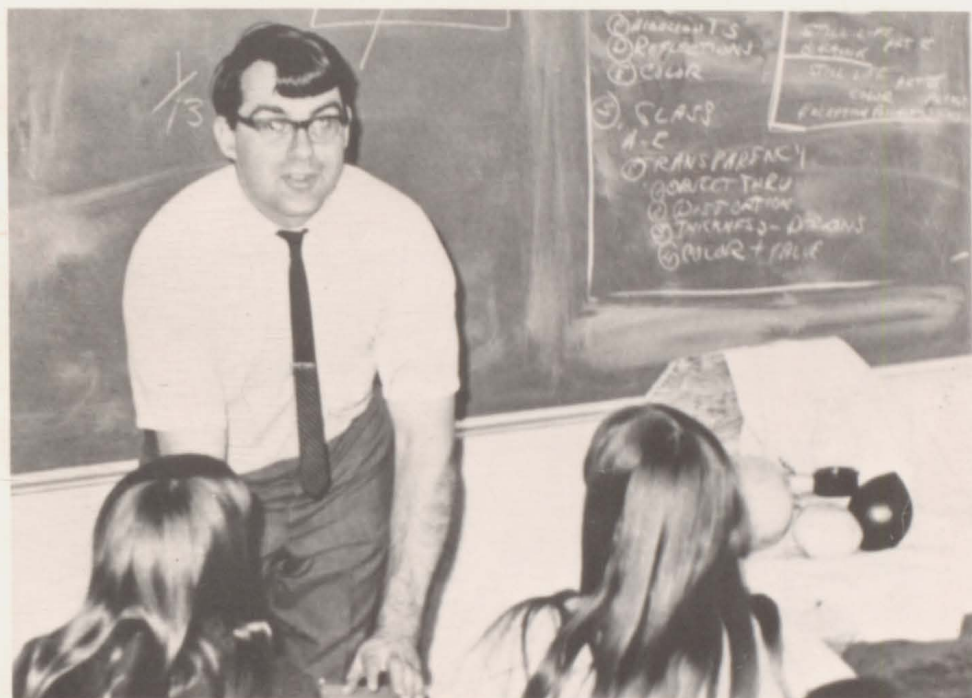

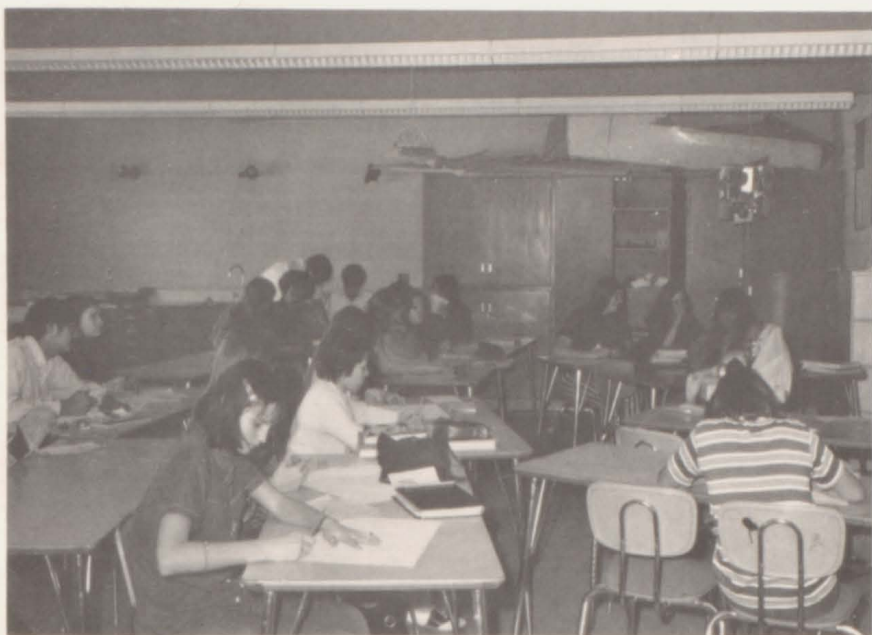

Outside of the classroom, Miss Gardner is the R.E.A. Membership Chairman, a member of Joe Rogers Bowling Team, and the Choir Director of the Adult and Youth Choirs at Central Methodist in the Sault.

Mr. Nye is the band director at Rudyard High. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Music from Western Michigan University. He directs the elementary, junior high and high school bands. Bundling in their coats and heading for the old school, we often observed yearbook staff members going to work on the Osceowentha. This year's annual suffered the growing pangs that are characteristic of all journalistic endeavors. Deadlines were often met hurriedly, copy lost, and pictures many times proved non-existent. But, the Osceowentha survived and triumphed as can be seen from these pages.

Student Council Worked On Improvement of RHS

The student governing body of Rudyard High, the Student Council, provided a means for developing student unity and a method for change. All Council members were representatives of the student body and gave of their time for the betterment of R.H.S. In formulating and carrying out goals throughout the year, the Student Council emphasized student interest in school affairs.

In any situation where a number of people must cooperate and accomplish things together, there must be a central group to provide organization. In a high school this group is a student council. Our council is responsible for organizing homecoming, the awards assembly, all student money-making ventures, paid assemblies, student elections, special programs, ticket sales and other school activities. Throughout the year they sponsor programs such as Student Council exchanges, student-teacher conferences and other student services.

The Student Council can only function with the cooperation of the students; their suggestions, their interest and their ideas. For these things, for the help and cooperation of our advisor, and for the efforts of the members themselves we say thank you; it's been appreciated.

National Honor Society

"The brains of the outfit? . . . where?" In the National Honor Society we find the students of Rudyard High School who have been recognized for their outstanding qualities of character, leadership, scholarship and service. Although this year's N.H.S. was a small group, we can see by their activities that they were very spirited in their undertakings. The movie "Harper" came to Rudyard High sponsored by the National Honor Society and with the proceeds, society members are financing a portfolio highlighting school history. National Honor Society initiated several changes this past year. New induction ceremonies and the inclusion of faculty N.H.S. members in the group represent the society's attempts to extend their organization to encompass more activities of school service.

ISCF

Inter School Christian Fellowship, commonly referred to as I.S.C.F., was a group of students promoting the awareness of God. Throughout the year they posted signs and banners to increase student recognition of God in their daily lives.

Comprised of students dedicated to the cause of making music, the Rudyard High School Band has participated in many activities in the past year. Rudyard's aspiring musicians have played at football and basketball games, marched in parades, competed in the state solo and ensemble contests and performed in concerts. Their annual Band Banquet climaxed the year for this group.

Rudyard's stage band can be found in weekly jam sessions as they tackle the modern music scene in its more complicated form. Under the direction of Mr. Nye—Chris Herbst, Debbie Schwartz, and Bob Bales team up with several others to provide a unique listening experience.

Also a part of the Rudyard scene, the majorettes performance at football games was worthy of our appreciation. Della Smith, the manager of this group, was in charge of working up routines for the group's activities. Particularly memorable, was their deliverance at the homecoming game. The girls remember it well, also, for their uniforms were inadequate in the freezing weather!

Pom Poms

Marching to music at various football and basketball games, the Pom Pom Girls under the direction of Miss Luoma, have delighted their audiences. For their performances during football season's "brisk" night air, they deserve a special note of recognition. These girls have added much to the promotion of school spirit and unity during the past year.

Girl's Athletic Association

If we were to describe this year's program of choral music in one word, we would have to say "innovation".

For the first time in R.H.S. history, there were two high school chorus classes. One group was selective and students had to audition to gain entrance. Another was termed a general chorus. Activities involving our choral music department were many this year. They gave a Pop Concert in November, a Christmas Concert and a Spring Concert in April.

99.9% of every cheerleader is spirit. Or so we thought after watching the actions of our Varsity and J.V. squads this year. Their job was no easy one—promoting school spirit—but these girls proved that they had the necessary abilities to do the trick. By giving their time to unite the student body behind our athletes, the cheerleaders gave our whole school a big boost.

Pep Club Magic?

No Virginia, the locker signs this past year did not appear magically. They were the results of Pep Club's efforts to promote school spirit. The club stressed student awareness of all sports as well as continuing the traditional club activities. A new development at our basketball games, a card section, was the work of this club.

1st ROW, L-R: Joyce Valancourt, Elaniese Downs, Janice Nesseth, Patrina Williams, Patti Kasselmann—President, Mrs. Wakefield—advisor, Sue Poberts, Mary Kay McDowell, Becky Yetters, Sue Cheney. 2nd ROW: Barb Betcher, Pam Barager, Michelle Dorsey, Terri Drewett, Denise Wineberg, CeBBie Wiartella, Margie Braden, Sherry Barnes, Bea Mayer, JoAnne Mayer, Chari Fischer, Kent Maxfield, Linda Gustafson, Sue Underwood. 3rd ROW: Denise Malaski, Kathy Welcher, Theresa Simpkins, Mary Hahl, Roxie Louiselle, Diana Chavez, Ingrid Aho, Susan Estep, Karen Nayback, Debbie Nayback, JoAnne McDowell. 4th ROW: Pattie McDowell, Andrea Dunnam, Pat DeWitt, Debbie Postma, Cindy Hoolsema, Julie Herres, Jeri Green, Judy Beene, Paula Davis, Debbie McDowell, Carol Crawford. 5th ROW: Jean Gentry, Brenda Fischer, Sheila Sampson, Laurie Hackley, Cindy McDowell, Joyce Brood, Pam Lewis, Wanda Lee, Peggry Roberts, Karen McDowell, Debbie Douglas. 6th ROW: Liz Neely, Susan Ingram, Greg Estep, Greg Fitzpatrick, Debbie Swartz, Cathy Klaut, Anita Mayer, Janis Burgess, Bernice Mayer. 7th ROW: Geoffrey Bialas, Pat King, Pat Geary, Flo Bales, Cathy Clancy, Pat Dansler, Cindy Bottos, Malinda Maki. 8th ROW: Lisa Ramsy, Kim Barnhill, Jerri Lampman, Bonni Hakola, Sherri Sanford, Helen Salo.

Perhaps the most active club at R.H.S. this year was the French Club. The driving force behind the group was, of course, their trip at the end of the year. In years past, Montreal had been their goal. This year, the club set their hearts, minds and pocketbooks on New Orleans. In order to finance the trip, French Club sponsored doughnut, carmel apple, stationary, calendar, placque and bake sales, as well as organized a Pizza Dinner in October.

Future Teachers of America

This ambitious group of students donated their study halls to help in the operation of the library. In helping the school to function with greater ease, they helped not only themselves, but the entire student body as well.

They helped students and teachers too. Members of Future Teachers did just this through their participation in Cadet Teaching programs this year. Members of this club worked at the Turner-Howson Elementary School and assisted in teaching classes there. Many students were allowed to become a grade school teachers for an hour each day. It can be said that not only did they help teachers help students, but they helped themselves as well.

Debate Club

Traveling around Michigan, the debate team had a most successful year. Beginning the year with the affirmative team made up of Greg Estep and Roxie Louiselle and the negative team of James Castle and Mary Kahl, the Rudyard debaters began their success in an October invitational held at Marquette High School where they tied for first place with Negaunee High School debaters. The next major showing was at Crystal Falls where the Rudyard debaters won two speaking awards. Later the team traveled to Oscoda in the lower peninsula and beat their debaters, this time with the affirmative team of Roxie Louiselle and Bill Sledge and the same negative team. These four traveled to Charlevoix and brought home a first place trophy in January. In this same month, districts were held in Marquette with this team qualifying to compete in the regionals. At the regional competition three weeks later, our R.H.S. wordsmen went into semifinals and emerged third place winners for the entire Upper Peninsula, consisting of some 2,400 debaters.

An annual event throughout the U.S., Forensics involves students of our school in speaking contests. There are various categories the entrants may be participant to. Future comedians may aspire to excel in Humorous Interpretative Reading. Others may choose to go into Serious Interpretative Reading, Extemporaneous Speaking, Oration, Multiple Reading, Radio Newscasting, or Storytelling. In March, a local contest started the ball rolling, followed by districts in April at LSSC and regionals at Marquette, with state finals held in Ann Arbor in the early spring.

Think Snow . . . Ski

Snow—that wonderful white stuff that we are blessed with each year, is a necessity for this club. The only school group that needs snow for its livelihood is, of course, the Ski Club. With members ranging from beginners to veterans, with experiences from broken legs to wind burns, these ski fanatics traveled to Lower Michigan and Canada in search of worthy hills.

Unites Students

Informing students of activities in and out of school, and uniting the student body were the goals which were set and met by this year's Doghouse. The newspaper staff, perhaps the only high school group which successfully united students from all grades in concerted effort, succeeded in improving the paper's quality and content tremendously. Telling it like it was, or should have been, the Doghouse was indeed a school publication worthy of praise.

Drama Club Did It Again . . .

An active group of students interested in the theatre, the Drama Club is widely known for its outstanding productions. Two plays are produced each year and are performed in what Drama Club member fondly refer to as the "little theatre." Actually, rehearsals and performances are held in the old school building, but despite the adverse working conditions, Drama Club productions are more than deserving of the praise they invariably receive.

Under the competent direction of Mr. Larry Flanders the Drama Club presented "Weekend" for their first play. Club members are quick to give credit to Mr. Flanders, callin him their "little elf" because of the long hours he spends creating sets and supervising their endeavors.

The Rudyard track team repeated their fine performance of the previous year. This year, they again took first place in the Eastern Upper Peninsula Conference.

This year's team yielded several outstanding track and field men. Ron Thompson, Doug Thomas, and Fred Besteman gained recognition as two of the fastest hundred yard dash men in the E.U.P.C. Jimmy Lee displayed great form in the four-forty. Andy Thompson and Warren Seavey were tops in the hurdles.

After regular season meets the team went to Marquette for the Upper Peninsula finals. The team took third overall in class B. But several new records were set by members of the team. The team set new sprint relay records, a new 440 record by Jimmy Lee and a new hundred yard dash record by Doug Thomas.

The 1971 Baseball team can only be termed fantastic! Under the steady coaching of Mr. Bickel, the team overpowered one team after another.

The Bulldogs displayed their slugging power in the season's opener against Brimley. An excellent display of might overwhelmed the Bays twenty-seven to nothing.

Yet none of the games came easy. The team practiced long and hard. All through the summer months the team perfected their skills. But it all paid off in the end as the team took first place in the Eastern Upper Peninsula Conference for the second year compiling a 12 and 4 record.

In post-season tournament action, the Bulldogs had trouble. Rudyard drew Cheboygan Catholic in the first round and defeated them three to two. This moved them to a game with Engadine where they lost five to four. Engadine took first in the tournaments.

All in all it was a fantastic season with several team members gaining all-conference berths. They were: Dennis Suggit, Scott Suggit, George Drewett, John McLean, and Steve Malone.

Cross Country

Cross country is a tough sport that takes endurance and guts. Nevertheless, each year there are the brave and devoted few who accept the challenge. This year's team lacked none of these prerequisites.

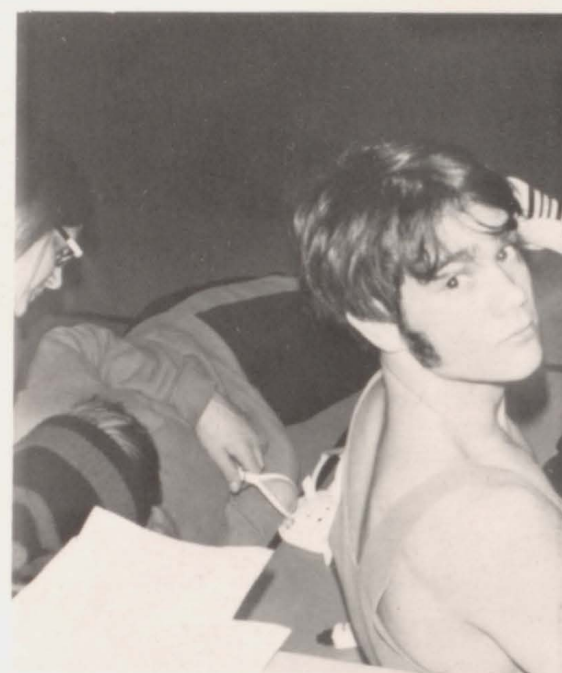

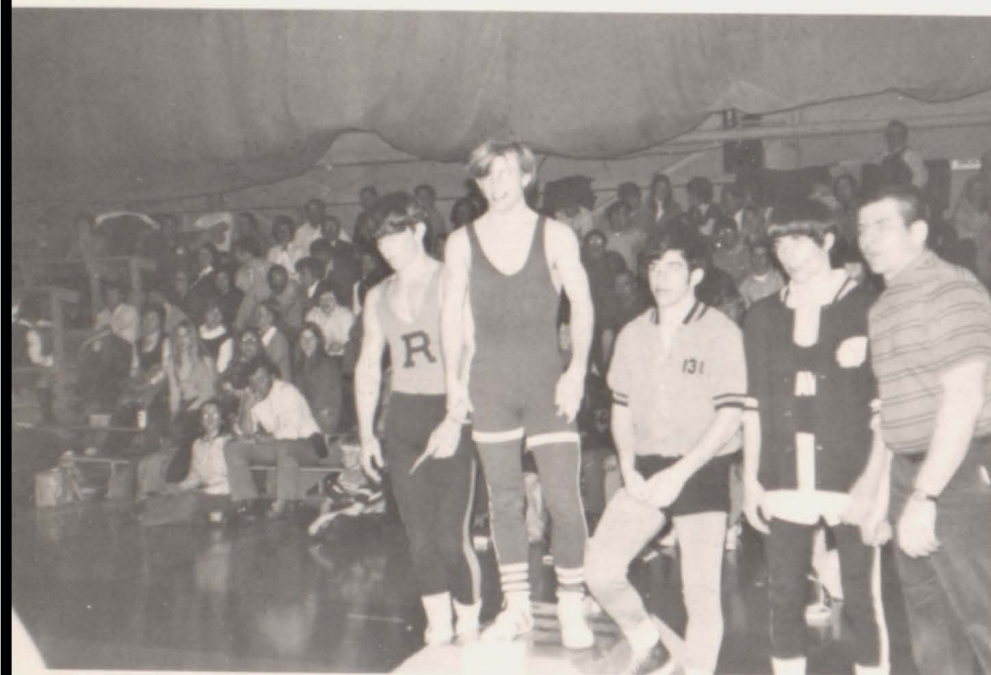

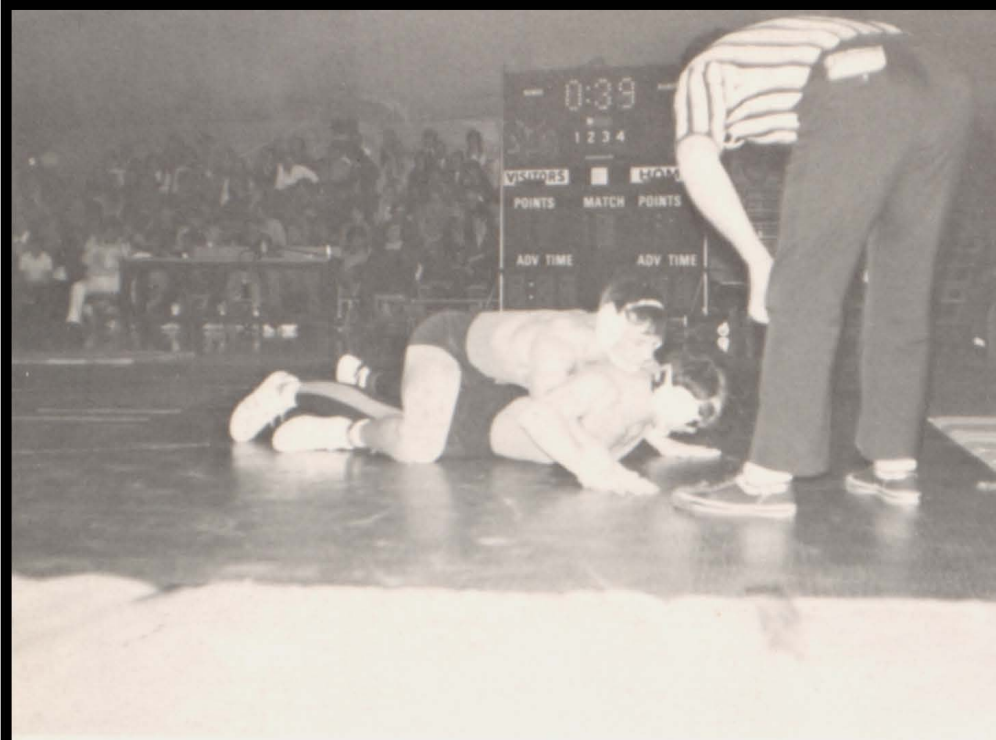

In cross country the course is a distance of two and one-half miles. It runs over rough ground, through bush and over hills. The first five finishers of each team are counted toward the team total. As in golf, the lowest point total is the winner.

This year's team was another outstanding member of the Rudyard athletic department. They won some and lost some but they showed a lot of promise for future teams!

Kim Kamper, Fred Besteman, Charles Williams, Harold Johnson, Dennis Suggitt.

The Rudyard grapplers finished the year with an even season, winning six meets and losing six. But several individual members of the team were outstanding in two very important meets, the Korah Invitational and the U.P. finals in Marquette. Billy Myers, Alfred Castle and Doug Bales put on fine shows of wrestling ability as Rudyard blasted Korah 48 to 14. At the U.P. finals in Marquette, the team competed against the finest teams in the upper peninsula. Alfred Castle took 2nd in the 138 weight class, and Doug Bales took 4th in the 167 weight class. Billy Myers took 4th in the 119 weight class. The 1971-72 wrestlers are Alfred Castle, Billy Myers, Doug Bales, Cullen Pitman, Jim Anderson, Jody Mayer, Steve Woods, Dan Hohbein, Ralph Jones, Rick Crawford, Bob Mayer, Steve Shufelberger, Bab Chadwick, Carlos Ruiz, and Dareld Jarvie. Congratulations to the U.P. winners and coach Michael Downey.

CONFERENCE CHAMPS!

There's no word to describe the performance of the team this year. Once again we proved we're the team to beat.

Starting with Engadine on a Saturday afternoon, the Bulldogs showed their power and defeated the returning conference champs easily. The Orange Tide was on its way.

The team rose to the occasion against Detour. In a bid for the conference crown Rudyard handed the Red Raiders their only conference lost in a thrilling game.

Losing only one conference game to Cederville the Bulldogs took first place and shared the conference crown with Detour.

Several members of the team gained post-season recognition. They were Bob Chadwick; offensive center, Mike Nayback; guard, Tony Bender; defensive guard, Tim Green; tackle, Dennis Creighton; line backer, Dave Smyly; line backer, Mike Malone; defensive end, Warren Seavy; half back, Doug Thomas; half back, George Drewett; defensive half back and quarter back.

Rudyard's varsity basketball team had their most successful season in eight years. Emerging District Champions, their record is demonstrative of the poise with which they met opponents on the court this year. Greg Fitzpatrick was Coach Ruhanen's choice for most valuable player of the season. The points he racked up together with his teamwork during game time clearly illustrated why.

Keyword for athletic participation in varsity basketball this year was ACTION! Movement on the court was even more dynamic than the effort shown by past teams in previous years. The school spirit and number of fans had also grown to such proportions that seating was filled to capacity at many of our home games.

Next year's team promises to be a winning one for the line-up includes all members except three seniors to be lost after graduation. So hope for tomorrow springs from the success of today.

Golf

A new addition to Rudyard athletics this season is the golf team. In a very surprising first season the team compiled a record of four wins opposed to three losses. A record any first year team would be proud of.

The team was comprised mostly of novices, including coach Stelzel who, remarked one golfer, didn't know which end of the club to hold at first. Even though inexperienced the team scored surprisingly low. (In golf the lowest score wins) Senior Greg Estep scored lowest with a 36 at Newberry winning medalist honors for that match. Junior Rick Ayers was second lowest with a 40.

The team did extremely well in the upper peninsula finals held in Marquette. The team placed ninth out of a field of seventeen. Rudyard's low score was recorded by Greg Estep, who shot an 84 for 18 holes.

Praise should also be given to Coach Stelzel, without whom there would be no golf team.

We supported you J.V.!

It is often said that there is no better way to learn than by experience. This year's J.V. did just that.

With new coaches and mostly freshman players, the team never gave up their will to win, even while suffering some overwhelming losses.

J.V. is the training ground for future varsity players. Our J.V. showed that future Rudyard teams will not be lacking in the type of football players we're known for. Several of the J.V. showed outstanding ability.

After having tasted a losing season, none of them will ever be satisfied until they're number one!

After a slow start, losing their first two games, the J.V. put it together and ended up on a winning note. Under the coaching of Mr. Hamilton the team put on fine scoring shows and showed devastating board work by rebounders Ken English and Jud Scott. Dave Lemond and Bob Malaski formed a potent scoring duo. Not enough can be said about a strong bench in the likes of Dave Bender and Greg Halonen. Even though they didn't take first place in the conference, they put it all on the line and won the J.V. tournaments, by defeating Cheboygan in a close game.

The freshman squad had a very good season learning what the game is all about under the guidance of Coach Gough. Jesse Ernest, Chris Chreighton and Perry Ruggero were the mainstays of the Bulldog attack. After showing what they can do as freshman, next year's J.V. will prove to be an outstanding team.

Determined to be remembered as the class for change, the Seniors at Rudyard High this year were successful. Sponsoring a nightly concession for the adult education classes, selling posters, a spring Battle of the Bands, and the traditional basketball concession comprised their major money-making projects. The seniors also hosted the Christmas Dance, an event well-remembered by all in attendance.

Areas where the class of '72' sought change included senior privileges and a senior trip. The latter proved fruitless while some success was achieved in the former. Whatever else may be noted, it can be said that this Senior class firmly believed in the words of their class song, "Stand," especially the lines that say: "Stand, you've been sitting way too long. There's a permanent crease in your right and wrong," and through their activities—spoken, written, or acted—they show this school the strength of their convictions.

Administration

Few of us ever realize all the intricacies involved in operating a school system. Our administrators, the people behind the scenes, are the ones who know what it is all about. Our principals and superintendents strive constantly to improve the quality of education at Rudyard Area Schools. Late hours are as synonymous with an administrators job as executive sessions and major decisions, an to an administrator, many jobs seem thankless. We all should realize that without the efforts of these people our school could not function.

Due to difficulties beyond our control, we do not have a picture of the Board, School Board that is.

Services

Behind the scenes, making life at R.H.S. more pleasurable for the students are our cooks, janitors, and bus drivers. Our daily cafeteria program is the result of many hours of planning and budgeting. The efficiency with which our cooks daily deal with the large number of students eating hot lunch further demonstrates their capability. The condition of our halls, classrooms, restrooms gym and cafeteria speaks highly of our janitorial staff. The little improvements made throughout the school—new paint here and a light fixture there—are also attributable to this group of workers. “Rain, hail, sleet, or snow—” that old familiar slogan is quite appropriate for our bus drivers. Daily they rise early to deliver the students on their route to the institution of learning—more often than not thankless, yes, working unobserved behind the scenes—these employees of R.H.S. make our school’s appearance more reputable.

Our Letter for You . . .

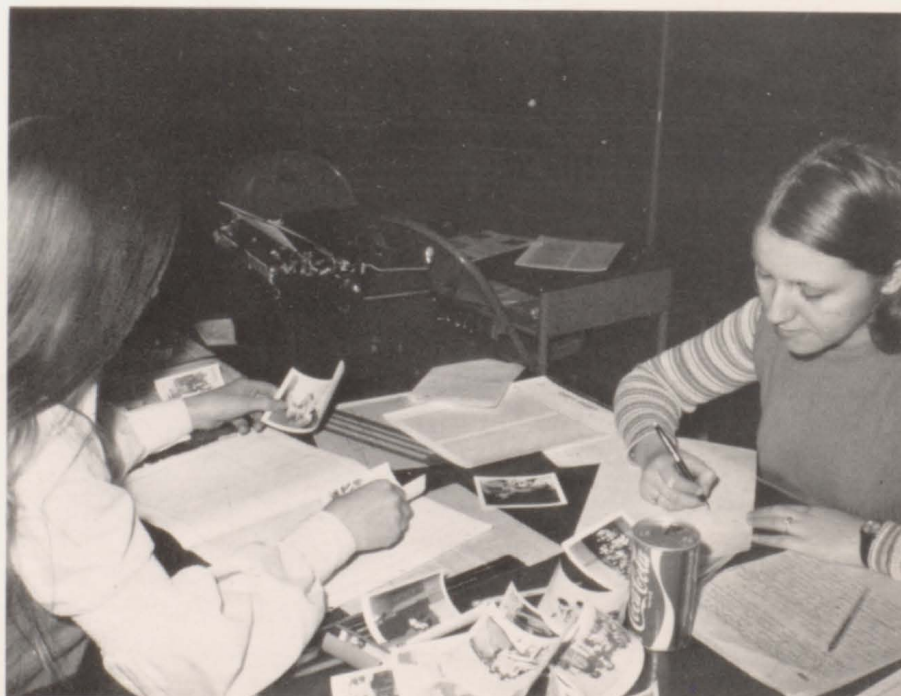

This book was made with patience, tears, laughter, and frustrating hours added to, too short days. It would be unreal for us to say that we enjoyed it all, for we fought many people to keep this yearbook going. We have tried to recreate a memory of this year, of your life. . .for some we succeeded, for others we did our best.

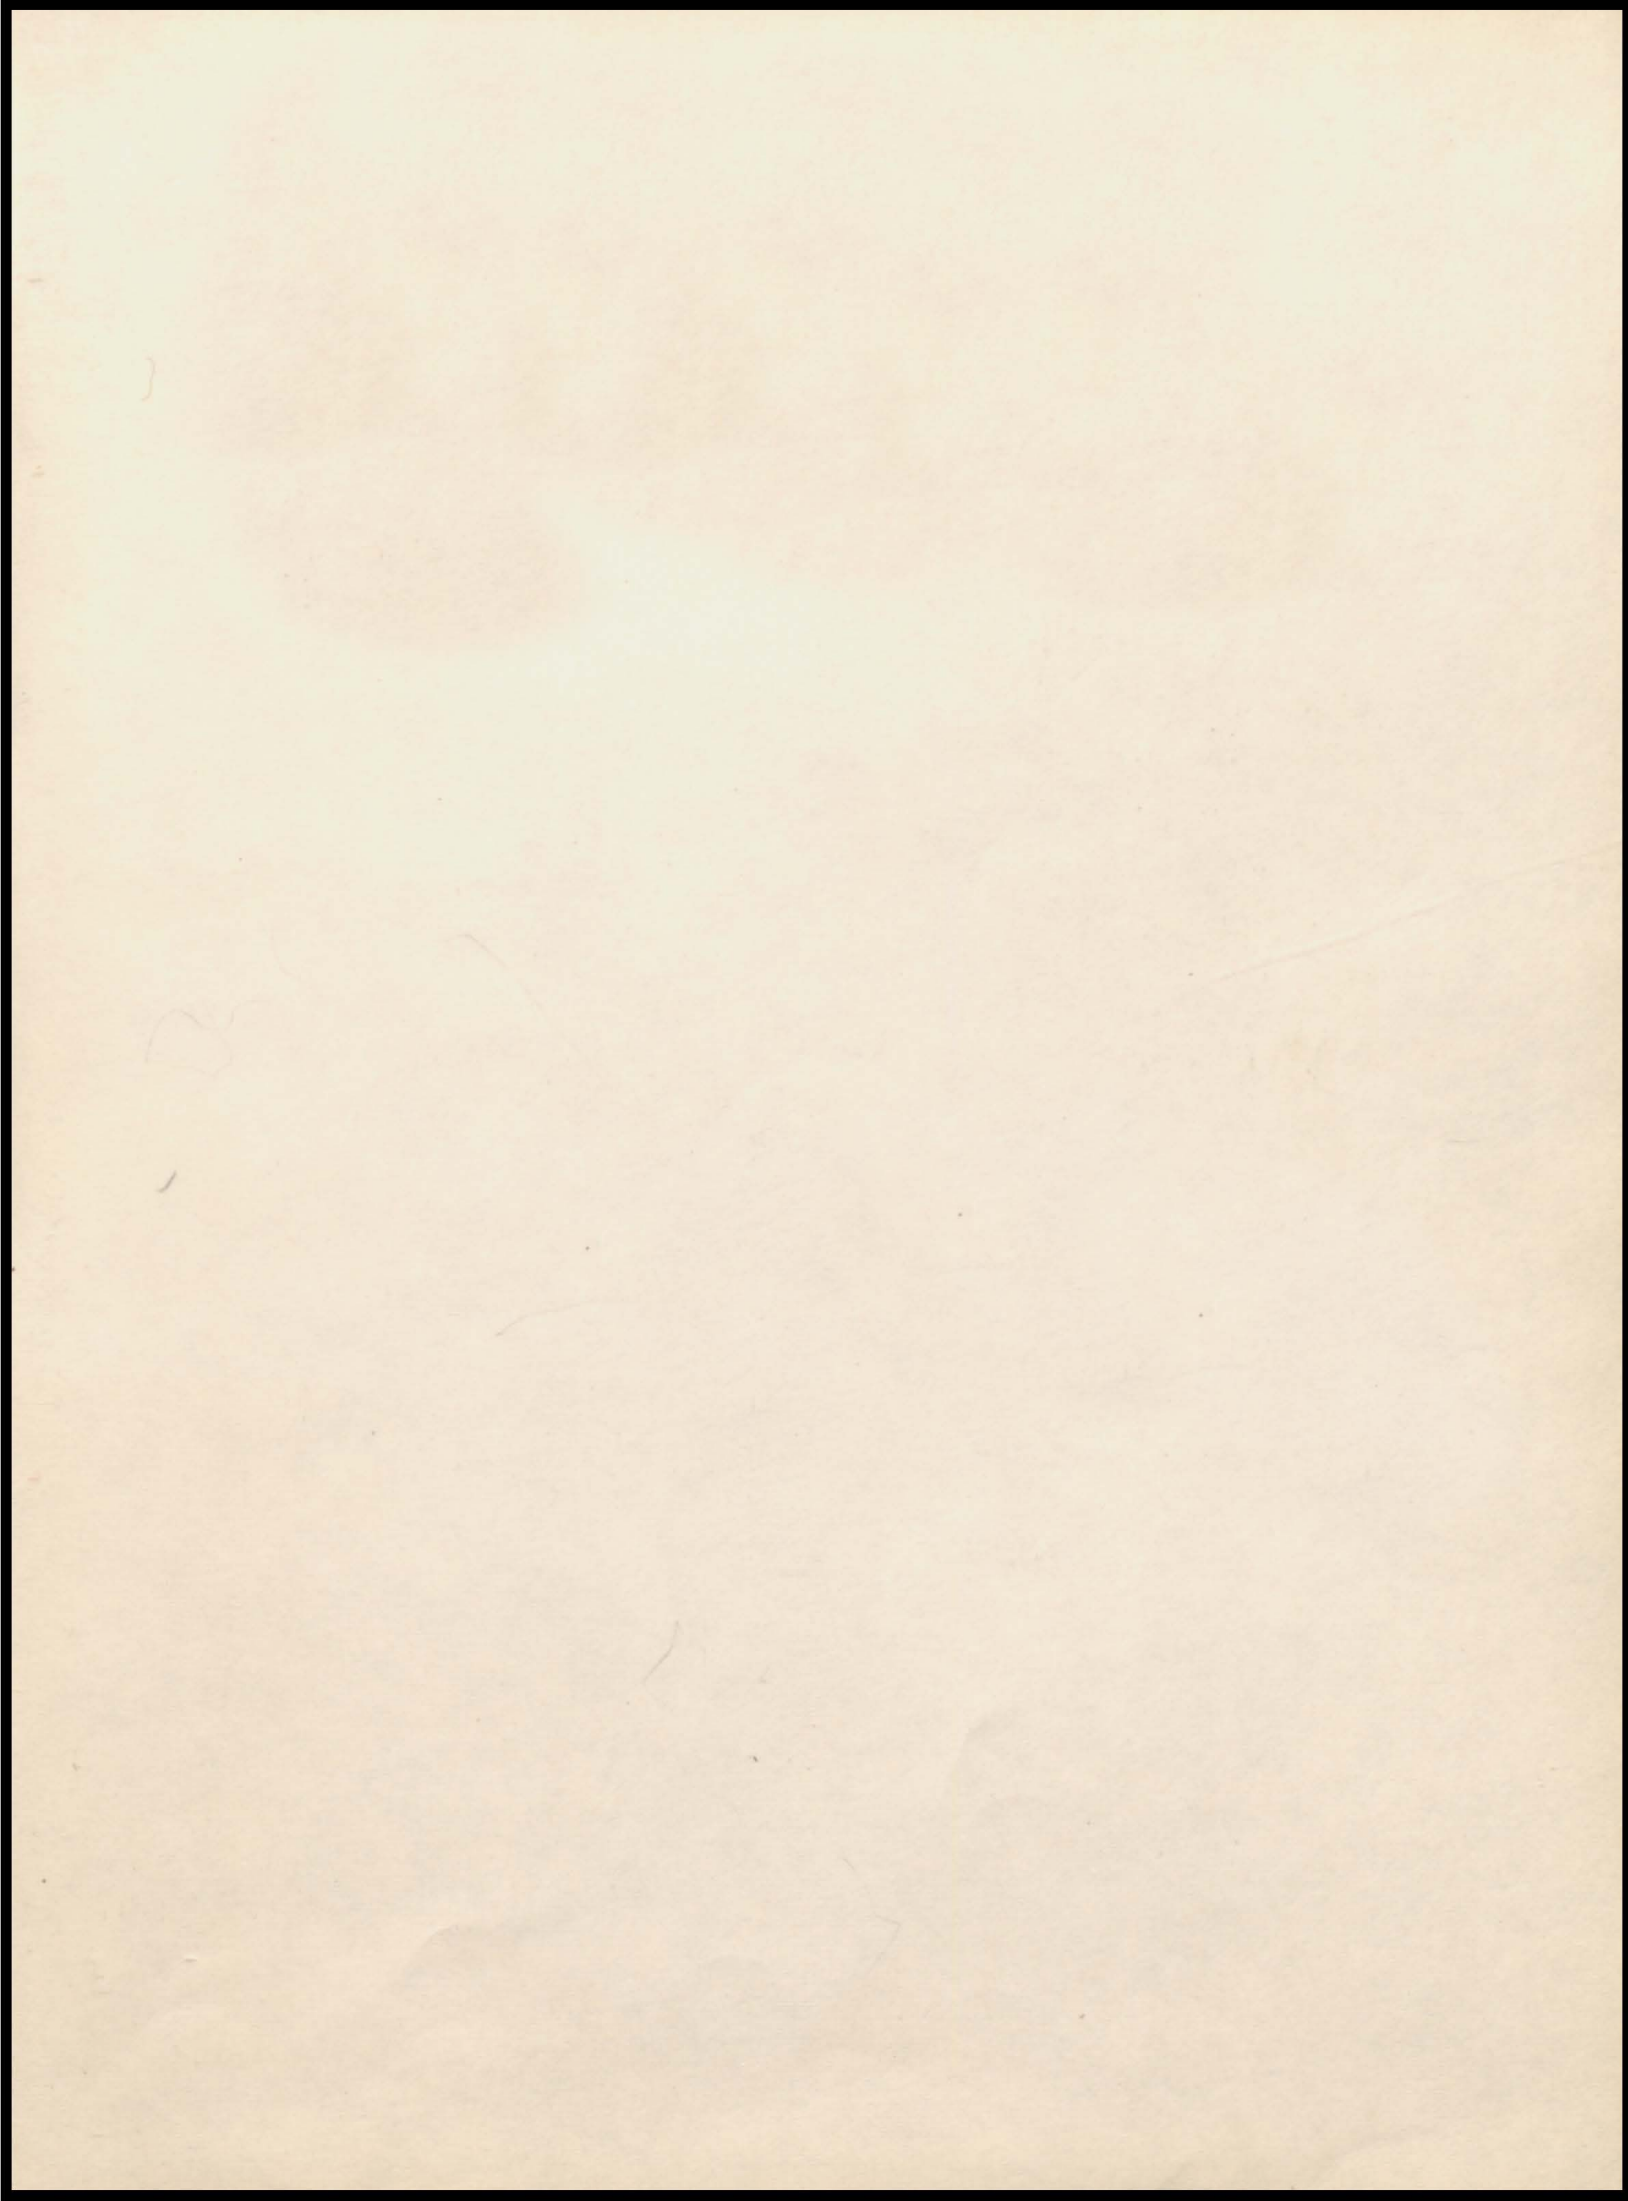

We extend our thankful hands to those who have worked with us in creating this book. Lori and I thank Mary Kahl and Roxie Louiselle, two very illustrious copywriters and the most appreciation from everyone herein concerned to Mrs. Weiss, our advisor.

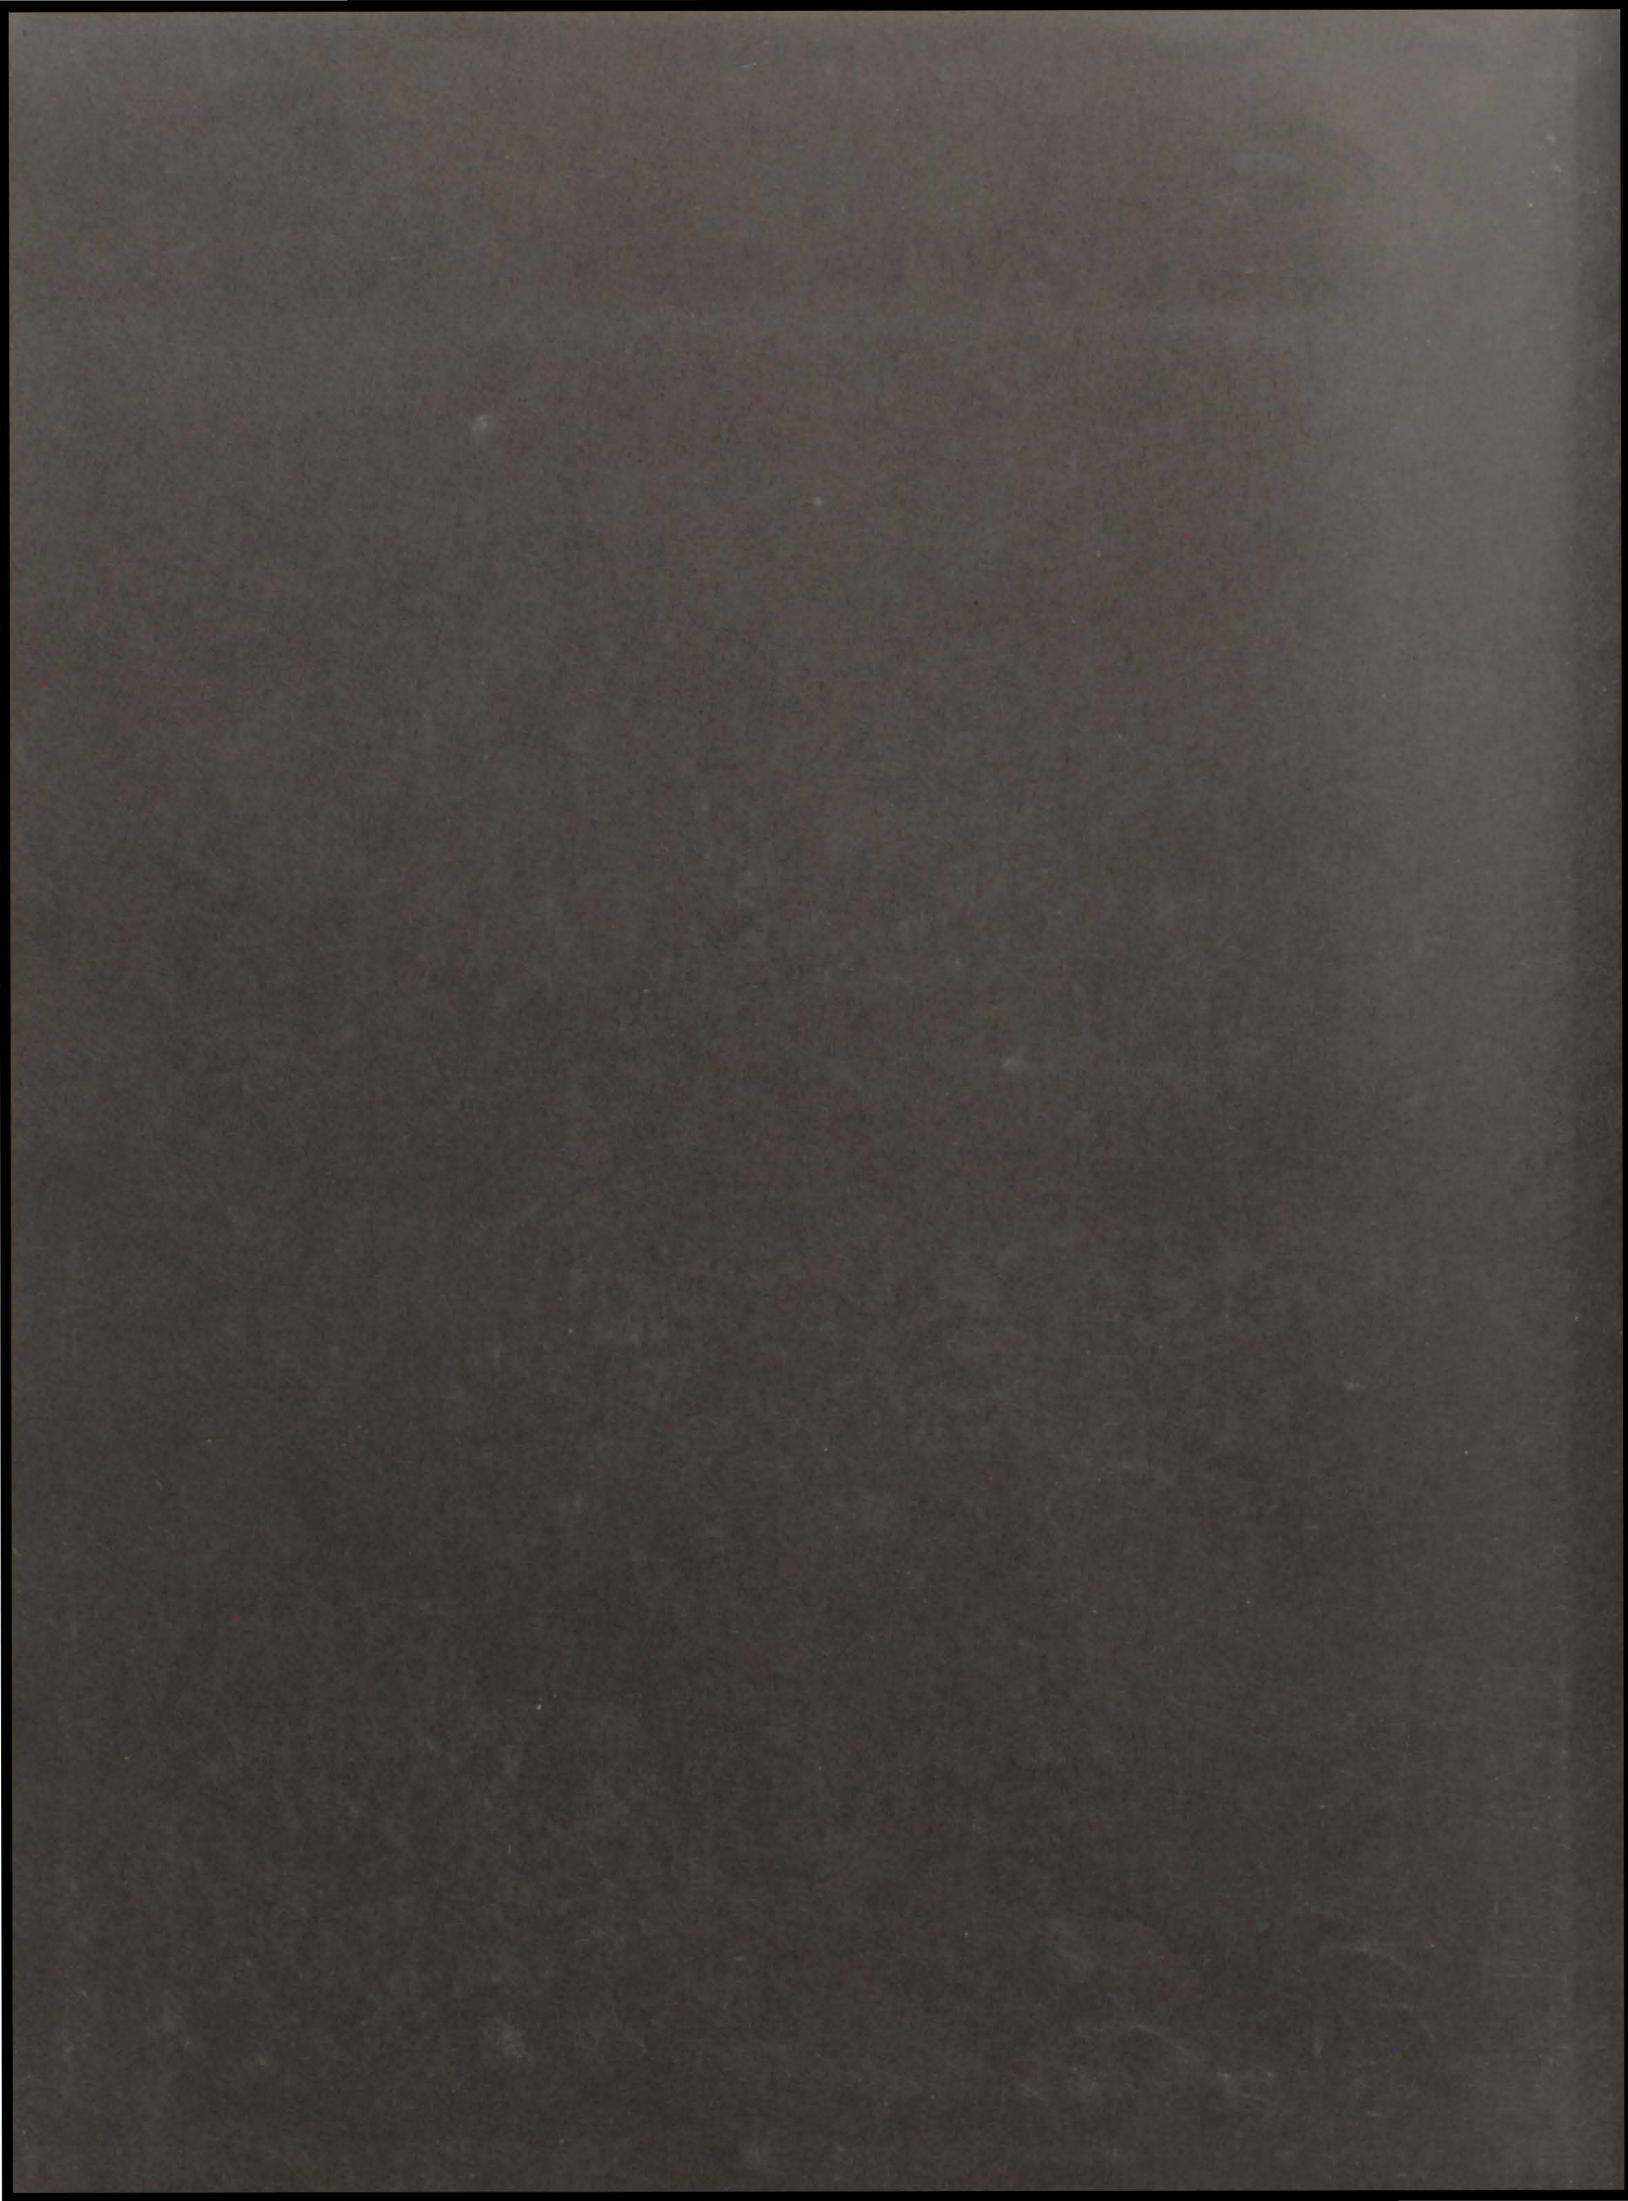

This fantastic lady supported us from the beginning through 'til the end.

With a little help from our friends. . .
