Our History:

Founded in 2006 for grades 6 through 10, The Epiphany School of Global Studies has grown into a premier Kindergarten through 12th grade independent school, serving almost 500 students on its two campuses in the historic town of New Bern, North Carolina. Epiphany serves students in Craven, Beaufort, Jones, Pamlico, and Carteret counties.

Our Mission:

The Epiphany School of Global Studies, anchored in the Judeo-Christian commandment of Love God and Your Neighbor as Yourself, is a comprehensive college preparatory and globally-focused school that inspires students to devote themselves to our core values of respect, responsibility, service, and integrity.

Global Focus:

- 97% of the Class of 2026 will have traveled internationally, 95% with the school.
- All freshman engage in a school-subsidized service-learning trip with Immersion Abroad in Atenas, Costa Rica.
- Seniors spend their last month of high school participating in long-range service projects in Eastern North Carolina and Peru.
- Upper School students help plan and facilitate an International Family Night on the Henderson Campus each year.
- Most courses at Epiphany include global components.
- Epiphany faculty participate in extensive professional development through several organizations, including UNC's World View program.
- Epiphany is fully endorsed by the Global Education Benchmark Group.
