Good morning! Today is Tuesday, November 10th, it is a Day 1 schedule.
Please stand and join me for the Pledge of Allegiance
	I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Please be seated.
Positive Thought November
	For today's positive moment, think all the way back to last week. What was your favorite memory of last week?
DEAR
	Our random DEAR spot check took place during 2nd period yesterday, and Panthers, you continue to impress! You are becoming true masters of stamina and focus. Each week, we're spotting fewer and fewer reading drifters! In a world full of distractions, the ability to lock in, tune out the noise, and get lost in a good book is becoming a superpower. And guess what? You're proving you've got it! Keep those pages turning and that focus firing, Panthers.
Hallway expectations
	Yesterday, I reported that the 300 hallway and the 100-level hallway outside STEM were under investigation. Our surveilance showed that the morning is NOT the problem, but the afternoon has a lot or work to do. We've narrowed our list of suspects to a group of students who are on our Agent Watch list. The hallways weren't quite hush enough to release the code yesterday. Bring it down, folks! Teachers: We need your help keeping our investigation moving! If you notice agents who are repeatedly exceeding sound limits, please submit their names for our Agent Watch List. Our investigative team will follow up with a one-on-one mission refresher to help get those agents back on protocol. Remember, Keep the hush, keep it classy, and let's earn another codeword release!
