Daily Announcements

Good morning! Today is Wednesday, September 23rd and it is a Day 2 schedule.

Please stand and join me for the Pledge of Allegiance
	I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Please be seated.
DEAR
	In DEAR News, Boy, has your focus and stamina been tested! Creaky doors, buzzing vents, man-eating spiders, and even Mrs. Degrandt singing. No matter what, keep that focus! When distractions bear their ugly heads, say to yourself, "Not today, distractions, not today". Forgetting reading material has been the downfall of many stamina scores, so let's remember those books! The class to beat after yesterday's results is..... Mr. Kamrath's 5th period.
Hallway expectations
	Remember voice levels 1 or 2 - only the 1 or 2 people walking with you should hear your voice. The commons area volume has been much improved! Let's make sure we;re working on that volume in ALL areas of the school.
Lunch
	Bacon Cheeseburger, Chicken Griller, Fresh Veggies, Apple Slices, Juice and Ruffles Deep Dish Pepperoni Pizza, PBJ Uncrustable, Fresh Veggies, Apple Slices and Juice
Art Department
	The Art Department at Riverside Middle School is collecting empty toilet paper tubes or paper towel tubes. We would greatly appreciate any amount of these cardboard tubes that you could pass along to us to use in a future art challenge. We will continue to collect for the next three weeks. Please drop them off or have your student bring them to the main office.
Sports
	The 7th grade volleyball team went up against Whitewater last night and came away with another clean sweep! Both A and B teams played tremendously! A Team Player of the Game: Brynley Rejert for her exceptional passes and powerful swings! B Team Players of the Game: Harper Nass and Leah Watson for their serving streak! Keep up the hard work and continue to be a great teammate to one another!
	The 8th grade volleyball team was well matched against Whitewater last night! The A Team fought hard but ultimately fell short of the win. Player of the Game: Mason Richards for her consistent and impressive setting skills! The B Team brought the energy and came away with one win! Player of the Game: Sophia Garza for some AMAZING saves near the net! Keep up the good work!
	No practice tonight for volleyball or cross country

That's it for the morning announcements. Have a great day Panthers!
