As we continue recognizing America's 250th anniversary, today's focus is the United States Constitution—the document that established our nation's government and continues to protect the rights and freedoms of every American.

The Constitution begins with a powerful introduction known as the Preamble:

"We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

These opening words remind us that our government exists to serve the people and that every generation has a responsibility to preserve the freedoms and opportunities guaranteed by our Constitution.

Take a moment today to reflect on the rights you enjoy and the responsibilities that come with being an informed and engaged citizen.

At this time, please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Have a great day!
