Today marks the 25th anniversary of the events of September 11, 2001—a day that forever changed our nation and the world.

Many of you were not yet born when these events occurred, but it is important that we take a moment to remember the nearly 3,000 innocent people who lost their lives, honor the courage of the first responders and everyday heroes who risked everything to help others, and recognize the resilience our country showed in the days and years that followed.

As a school community, we encourage everyone to reflect on the values of compassion, service, unity, and hope. History reminds us not only of the challenges we have faced, but also of the strength we find when we come together.

Please join us in observing a brief moment of silence in honor of all those affected by the events of September 11, 2001.

Thank you.

At this time, please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.
