

Daily Announcements for Wednesday, December 10, 2025

Good Morning - Here are your daily announcements for Wednesday, December 10, 2025:

- Sweet News from the Library! Attention students! The library is serving up something extra delicious this holiday season... and no, you can't eat it — but you can borrow it! We now have holiday baking pans, molds, and cookie cutters available for checkout! That's right — gingerbread people, snowflakes, candy canes, festive molds — all the goodies you need to level up your holiday baking game. Whether you're planning to wow your family, impress your friends, or just make something tasty for yourself, stop by the library and check them out!
- Attention all potential life savers! Join the class Health Observations for a Blood Drive on Thursday, December 11. Make sure to sign up and collect your permission slips during Lunch. You need to be at least 16 years old to donate. Once you have your permission slips signed by a parent/guardian, please hand them to Mr. Gibson in room S146 by Wednesday, December 11. Your contribution can make a real difference—help save a life by donating blood!
- A representative from UW-Parkside will be here on Friday, December 12 during 2nd hour and an Air Force ROTC Scholarship representative will be here on Wednesday, December 17th during 1st hour. Any students interested in meeting with the representative, please stop in Student Services to sign up for the meeting.
- Students: Please make sure to check your email daily. If you didn't get an email telling you your ELT location, please login to Securly Flex.

We would like to wish the following student(s) a Happy Birthday!

- Jack Kaczmarek
