June 5, 2026

Dear Florence Roche Families,

Happy June! Time seems to speed up as we move through these last days of our school year. This week we had our grade level Field Days and next week we will recognize our outgoing 4th graders with their cookout and family celebration. It's definitely a fun time of the year as students and teachers reflect on all of their growth and accomplishments.

Thank you to Mrs. Kinneen and the many parent volunteers who supported the successful Field Days for each grade level. Students enjoyed the time to play and many shared with me how it was "the best" day! Here is a short slideshow that captures some of the fun. Field Days 2026

We had our final all-school meeting today focused on kindness. We talked about how we are feeling about the school year ending and where we're feeling it in our bodies. We also reviewed ALL of the things we learned about kindness this year, including what kindness means; what it can look like, sound like, and feel like; what to do when we see something unkind; how to keep an attitude of gratitude; expanding our circle of care; listening deeply to others; learning more about each other's stories; using positive self talk; and understanding our own emotions. We hope your child enjoyed the all-school meetings this year. If you have an idea for next year, please let us know! And remember, kindness is contagious!

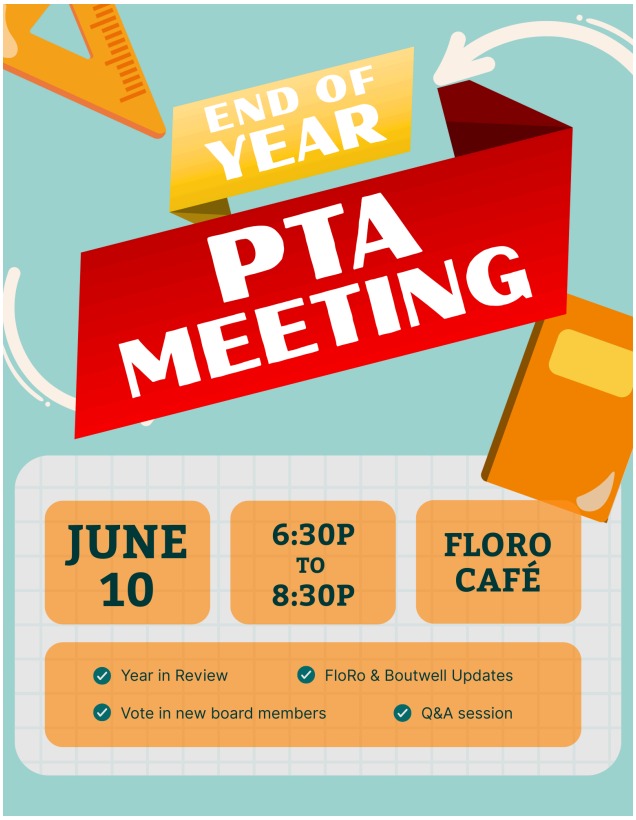

Thank you to Amy Wheeler-Sutton and Jillian Doyle for partnering with us to plan and present each of our monthly all-school meetings. Thank you also to GDEF for funding a grant that connected us with Harvard University and their social and emotional curriculum focusing on kindness.

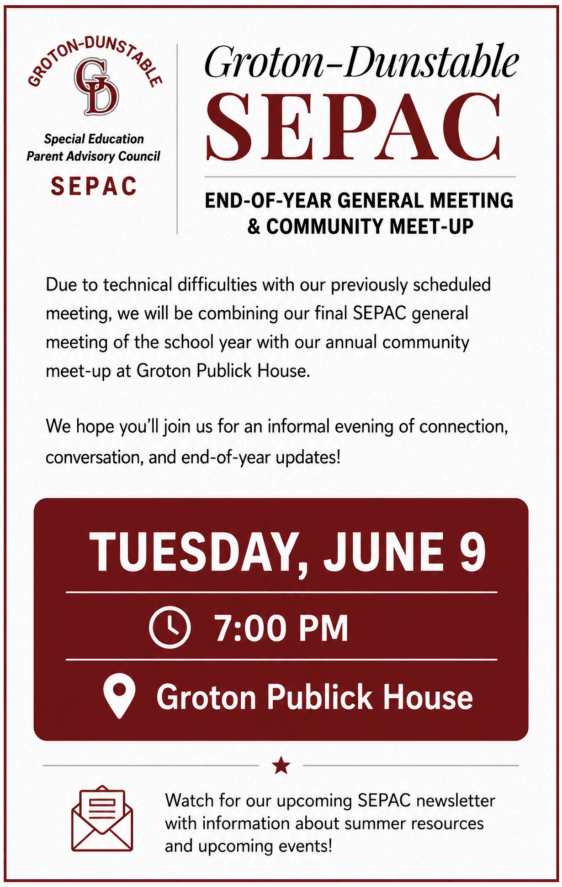

Mrs. Roundtree's 4th graders produced our final edition of The FloRo News for the year. Watch it to learn about all of the happenings in our school community.
