State FFA in Brookings

By Staff Reporter: Ellie Becker

Canistota students went to the FFA Convention in Brookings and did an amazing job!

Allison Leber earned an impressive 9th place finish out of 111 contestants in the Poultry CDE, showcasing strong knowledge and skill in the competition.

In Agronomy, Katelyn Tieszen placed 45th out of 150 students, demonstrating her understanding of crops and soil science.

Competing in Natural Resources, Josh Popkes Jr. placed 108th out of 159 contestants, while Robby Knochenmus finished 140th out of 159 participants.

These students showed dedication and hard work while competing against a large number of participants. Nice work and congratulations to them all!

Track Update

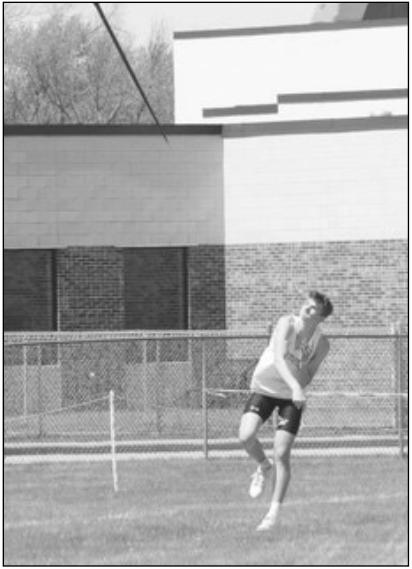

By Staff Reporter: Ellia Hjermstad

The Track team had three track meets last week. On Tuesday, April 22nd, the track team traveled to Howard for the Tiger Relays. This was exciting for the team because the Howard track meet has been cancelled for the last three years. On Thursday, April 23rd, they went to Freeman for the Flyer Relays.

The team was supposed to travel to Chester on Saturday but unfortunately due to weather the meet was cancelled, giving the team an extra day off. We wish the track meet the best of luck for the remainder of the track season. First place finishes and big personal records are on the way!

The Final Countdown

By Staff Reporter: Emma Carter

As the school year begins to wind down, the elementary students are finding a creative way to stay engaged with their “ABC countdown to summer.” The countdown assigns each letter of the alphabet a themed activity leading up to the last day of school. Students participate in a different activity each day, bringing excitement to their routines.

Each letter represents something unique, for example “A is for Anima” where students bring stuff animals to school. Or “B is for Book” where they bring their favorite book to school.

The countdown not only keeps students motivated but also builds classroom community. It gives them something to look forward to everyday. Overall, the ABC countdown has become a highlight of the final weeks of school, blending learning with fun and helping students stay excited to school.

The countdown is not just an elementary event, the high schoolers also like to keep track of how many days they have left. They might not do it as excitingly as the elementary students but they still love to keep track, it gives them motivation to finish the year strong.

The Importance of Volunteering

By Staff Co-editor: Malachi Weber

As a senior, I have learned a lot through the different activities and classes I have taken. Now that I am in the NHS, I have finally realized just how important volunteering is.

Volunteering in any way is helpful for both the school and the community. Whether it be helping at a school event for only thirty minutes or doing the citywide cleanup for four hours. Volunteering shows that you are a good member of the community.

Giving up your time to do things for the community is just one way of giving back, but it is huge. In a town like Canistota, giving to the community is essential to it’s day to day, and even if it seems silly, I assure you that your fellow citizens would do the same for you.

So, whether you are in the NHS or not, you should try to volunteer whenever you can.
