The Ultimate Debate Qdoba vs. Chipotle

By Staff Reporter: Roo Acheson

There is a big debate in Canistota High School about whether Chipotle or Qdoba is better. After doing some research data shows that people like Chipotle better because of the quality and consistency, while others like Qdoba based on variety and value. Overall Chipotle has more locations and a bigger revenue than Qdoba. However, Qdoba has more toppings and choices on what to get. Another bonus about Qdoba is free queso and guacamole, which some say is a huge bonus. With both sides having pros and cons, the only way to settle the debate is to ask Canistota High School students. Last week, the Journalism staff went around asking a variety of people what their favorite was. We got many mixed reviews, but the debate is still going on. Here are our results:

Adrian D: Chipotle because the chicken has a better flavor, and the queso is better

Mrs. Lori Foresman: Qdoba because only been to Chipotle once, and that one time they did not have queso

Ashlyn J: Qdoba because I had a bad experience at Chipotle and did not like it

Sophie K: Qdoba is better because it tastes better

Ms. Regan Miller: Qdoba is cleaner, and people are friendlier. The experience is better

Carter B: Chipotle is better because it tastes better

Conner E: Chipotle is better because they know how to cook their steak better and season it really well!

Clara R: Chipotle is better because I have never actually been to Qdoba; only had it when it has been catered.

Ellie B: Both taste amazing in my opinion but if I had to choose, I would pick Chipotle because it is easier to get to in Sioux Falls.

Adam K: I have recently been going to Qdoba but I think Chipotle is better.

Nate M: Qdoba because of their chicken.

Dayne K: Qdoba because you get spicy queso and more food

Jaxon P: It depends on price because Qdoba is cheaper but I like the taste of Chipotle better

Ember S: I have rarely had Qdoba to give an accurate rating but I love Chipotle!

Ty J: Chipotle because it is all I have ever had

It seems that both Chipotle and Qdoba are great options, which one would you choose?

Girls Relay Earns Howard Wood Medal

By Staff Co-Editor: Ellie Becker

Congratulations to the Canistota Hawks Track and Field Girls Relay team for placing 6th at the 101 annual Howard Wood Dakota Relays in the 4x2 meter relay this past weekend! The Girls also ran a 4x1 meter relay which placed 10th and a 4x4 meter relay. Pictured to the right is the placing 4x2 meter relay team L to R: Allison Leber, Ellia Hjermstead, Adrian DeHaan, and Ellie Becker.

Elementary Spring Concert

On April 30, the elementary students took the stage for their Spring Concert, and this year's performance had a fun twist "Wild West" was the theme of the night. Families and friends filled the gym to see the students showcase their hard work and musical talents. The concert featured songs inspired by wide-open landscapes and classic cowboy folk tunes, giving the concert a western feel. Students dressed up in western outfits. Wearing flannels, cowboy hats, and boots making the night feel like a trip back in time to the Old West. The fifth grade band performed two pieces and sounded amazing! They have grown since the beginning of the school year. This year's spring concert was a big success. Overall, the Spring Concert was a night full of music, smiles, and a little bit of western spirit.
