Back to School: By staff: Colbie Eichmann and Kynlee Kennedy

School has officially been back in session for two weeks now, and we interviewed five middle school students to see what they look forward to this new school year. Let’s see what they have to say:

What are you most excited for this year?
Derek - FFA, Ava - Volleyball

What are your favorite classes or subjects this year?
Derek - Geography and PE, Sophia - Geography

How is school going for you so far?
Kyson - Absolutely great!, Sophia - Good.

If you could change one thing about the school, what would it be?
Kyson - the food, Matthew - longer passing periods

What extracurricular activities do you plan to participate in?
Ava - Sports, Matthew - Oral interp, track, and one act

Amelia Remacle and Brody Weber were last week’s Competitors of the Week winners for being prepared. Congratulations!

Our homecoming king and queen have been crowned! Kaedyn Kennedy and Ameiia Remacle are our Homecoming royalty.

High School Student of the Month By Staff: Miles Belt-Hanson and Ryder Hutcheson

Malachi enjoys weightlifting and golf as hobbies and dreams of becoming an architect due to a passion for math and creativity. He has a unique talent for swallowing marshmallows whole and comes from a family; his parents are named Cody and Erin, along with siblings Hadassah, Mara, and Obadiah. He has two pet dogs, Nelli and Sage. A memorable school moment includes a funny incident with a friend named Chase when he got yelled at for stealing napkins. His favorite teacher is Mr. Schumacher; Schumacher is known for his laid-back attitude and helpful lifting tips. This year, he aims to maintain a 4.0 GPA and believes that being Student of the Month means serving as a role model.
