

Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!
January 26-30, 2026
Palm City Elementary

Monday, January 26th	Opening Read, White, and Blue Kickoff • Morning announcement introduction to Literacy Week (each morning a short story will be read highlighting the connection between literacy and our nation's story) • Students and staff wear red, white and blue • Students will set reading goals to track
Tuesday, January 27th	American Heroes Read-Aloud Day Students will listen to read-alouds featuring important American figures and participate in a Building Thinking Classroom Activity/Collaborative Activity
Wednesday, January 28th	Buddy Reading: Red, White and Blue Reading Pals Students will learn about different American landmarks and then create a postcard with an image of the landmark and include details about the landmark.
Thursday, January 29th	America Through the Pages: Literacy Walk Students will read excerpts that represent different eras, symbols, or important people in America's 250-year history and respond in "passport."
Friday, January 30th	Character Dress Up, Write America's Story Students will write on a "quilt square" something they love about America, what makes a good citizen, short narrative, poem, or informational paragraph about an American value, symbol, historical event, or favorite book on quilt piece. Grade levels will display "quilts." Students may dress as their favorite book character.
