Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!
January 26-30, 2026
Citrus Grove Elementary

Monday, January 26th	Red for Read Our country was born as colonists read and debated the ideas of our first patriots. Today, it's your turn! Wear red and…. Read about our history, learn the lyrics to patriotic songs, and challenge yourself to experience the same works our founders read! Enrichment: Have a family debate about a civics topic Start tracking your pages read on the flag poster. Aim for 50 pages each day!
Tuesday, January 27th	It's Write to Where White We read because someone wrote. Today, it's your turn! Wear white and fill a white page with your writing. Write about where you enjoy visiting, in Florida or other state, and expand your vocabulary. Work with words that sound the same or have more than one meaning.
Wednesday, January 28th	Books Fix the Blues Nothing fixes a blue mood better than reading! Wear blue today, and choose something fun to read: silly stories, jokes, or start a humor-filled chapter book!
Thursday, January 29th	Reach for the Stars! Wear stars today – either kind: ✨ or a t-shirt that shares a favorite patriot, athlete, singer, or celebrity. Dedicate time to reading biographies and about space or the arts.
Friday, January 30th	Patriotic Day - Aim for head-to-toe red, white, and blue! America is the home of the free because of the brave. Today, you are free to choose any book topic you'd like! Thank you for kicking up your reading this week! Finish your last 50 flag-pages and color in the stars section. Turn it into the library (today or next week) for a patriotic prize!
