Felicianana's Health & School Readiness Luau

In East Feliciana Public Schools, our community partnerships are driven by a shared vision for creating opportunities for students to thrive! Felicianana's Health & School Readiness Luau last Saturday was a true testament to that vision. Thank you to RKM Primary Care for your continued collaboration, to our community partners for your support of our students, and to our students and families for your commitment to starting strong!

Thank you to our community partners who participated, including:

Youth Work Permit Legal Update FAQ

1

What has changed?

Due to House Bill 232 (2026) signed by Gov. Landry on May 11, school districts may no longer issue work permits.

2

Who issues Employment Certificates now?

The authority of issuing Employment Certificates has shifted to employers.

3

What is the new process?

- Once a youth has accepted a job, the employer will provide them with the Employment Certificate form (available at laworks.net)
- Once the form is completed, the employer will email the form to EmploymentCertificate@la.gov.
- The employment certificate is considered issued upon email confirmation from EmploymentCertificate@la.gov.
