Family Newsletter

7/24/2026

Hello Andalusia Families!

I hope you are having an amazing summer with your friends and families! My first newsletter is always bittersweet. It is the start of a brand new school year, but also it means summer is coming to a close in a few short weeks. I hope you get to soak up every moment!

It is also the time when my own children start asking questions. For example, just yesterday, my daughter wanted to know what the first day of school lunch is. Students want to know who their teacher is! They get so excited to buy their supplies. So, I wanted to just share some information for you to have.

Teacher assignments are available in Lumen on August 1st. The school supply lists are linked below. The menu is on the next page. I also listed updated food pricing and Chromebook replacement fees. The main office opens back up the first full week of August. If you have questions in the meantime, the best way to reach us is to email me directly at tsaey@rr300.org.

For those of you that are new, welcome to the Andalusia family. You will receive a Family Newsletter every Friday that is jam packed with information. I highly encourage you to take the time to read it. As always, thank you for letting us be the present in your child's future.
