Dear Parents and Guardians,

We are looking forward to connecting during Parent-Teacher Conferences this week! Sign-ups are open in Lumen. Please remember there is no school on Friday, October 30th, or Monday, November 2nd.

While at conferences, please check our lost-and-found table to reclaim any missing items! Conferences are a vital part of building involved families and strong parent-teacher trust. Our goal is to support our teachers in delivering high-quality instruction while maintaining an open, welcoming school environment. We truly appreciate your perspective on your family's experience, including how comfortable you feel reaching out to the school with questions or concerns and how well our teachers communicate and connect with your child. Please never hesitate to reach out to me or to your student's teachers with any thoughts or questions.

On Thursday, students may pay $1 to wear a Halloween costume for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Please ensure all costumes are school-appropriate and follow standard dress code guidelines. If your child has questions, please have them check in with the office.

Thank you for your ongoing partnership!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Corlett

Hello Parents and Guardians.

October always seems like a rollercoaster! Some days are hot, some days are cold. We may lay out an outfit for the next day with great intentions of being 'prepared', only to wake up and find we need to scramble for the tote of warmer clothes! And even though we managed to find an extra minute to pull it out, the wardrobe wrestle ensues as we are quick to realize somehow inches were grown in front of our faces and we didn't even seem to see it happen! Isn't that life though?! This month in MTSS, students closed out their lessons on Emotional Awareness and took time to consider what their values are, where they come from, and how our values drive our responses in our daily lives. Middle schoolers are fun to watch as they navigate friendships, responsibilities, and academic challenges. As parents, we hope we've prepared them for all that comes their way, only to wake up and realize they've faced a new challenge we hadn't covered and a response or reaction we didn't see coming! Here's to hoping they continue to reflect on their values and respond to life in a way that brings them success!

Character Dares:

- Hall or Home: Find 3 people to smile at in the hallway, or identify 1 thing you can do to make someone smile at home.
- Thank you. Thank you: Write a thank-you note to someone who has helped or inspired you recently, whether it's a teacher, friend, or family member. Deliver it personally or leave it for them to find.

October is: National Bully Prevention Month
